Millenium And Charisma Among Pathans A Critical Essay In Social Anthropology:

Millennium and Charisma Among Pathans (Routledge Revivals) Akbar Ahmed, 2012-07-26 First published in 1976 this Routledge Revivals reissue presents an analysis of the Swat Pathans the people of the North West Frontier Province of Pakistan who belong administratively to Pakistan despite being a fiercely independent group with their own codes and ways of life Akbar S Ahmed who knows the Swat Pathans well through his family connections presents a clear and sophisticated analysis of their complex society The study provides an anthropological and critical re examination of the ethnography of the Swat Pathans and the author suggests specific alternative models of social organization The book also represents an important contribution to the general debate in the social sciences between the methodological individualists and the methodological holists and challenges some of the theoretical and methodological premises in anthropology In particular the author is critical of Professor Fredrik Barth s study of Swat Pathans for he believes that the Swat models have inadvertently become the basis for generalized and often incorrect understanding of models of Pathan socio political organization in the social sciences Millennium and charisma among Pathans. A crit. essay in social anthropology. Akbar S. Ahmed Akbar Şālāhaddīn 'Aḥmad, 1976 Pashtun Identity and Geopolitics in Southwest Asia Iftikhar H. Malik, 2016-07-18 Pashtun Identity and Geopolitics in Southwest Asia brings together Pakistan and Afghanistan as two inseparable entities by investigating areas such as the evolution and persistence of the Taliban quest for Pashtun identity the ambivalent status of the tribal region and the state of civic clusters on both sides In addition to their relations with the United States and the EU a due attention has been devoted to regional realities while looking at relations with India and China The study explores vital disciplines of ethnography history Islamic studies and international relations and benefits from a wide variety of source material The volume takes into account the salient subjects including political Islam nature and extent of violence since 9 11 failure of Western policies in the region the Drone warfare and the emergence of new regimes in Kabul Islamabad and Delhi offering fresh opportunities as well as new threat perceptions Pukhtun Economy and Society (Routledge Revivals) Akbar Ahmed, 2013-04-15 First published in 1980 this groundbreaking Routledge Revival is a reissue of an original and authentic anthropological account of Pukhtun society by Professor Akbar Ahmed Combining extensive fieldwork data collected among the Mohmand tribe in the Northwest Frontier Province of Pakistan with historical and literary sources Professor Ahmed s study seeks to construct an ideal type model of Pukhtun society based on the ideal Code of the Pukhtuns and to analyse the conditions of its maintenance and transformation The author s thesis is that this ideal model exists within Pukhtun society when interaction with larger state systems is minimal and in poor economic zones In this way he posits an opposition between the Tribal Agencies along the border with Afghanistan where ecological conditions are poor and state influence minimal and the Settled Areas under state administration where Pukhtun society is forced away from its ideals The New Criminology Ian Taylor, Paul Walton, Jock Young, 2002-11-01 A major contribution to criminology in which Taylor Walton and

Young provide a framework for a fully social theory of crime

Resistance and Control in Pakistan Akbar S. Ahmed, 2004-08-02 How can people in the West make sense of contemporary unrest in the Muslim world Is Islamic fundamentalism to be understood purely in religious terms In Resistance and Control in Pakistan one of the world's leading authorities on Islam Akbar S Ahmed illuminates what is happening in the Muslim world today and assesses the underlying causes He does this by telling the dramatic story of the revolt of the Mullah of Waziristan in northwest Pakistan and by placing it within the context of other movements occurring elsewhere in the Islamic world He also examines the social structure and operative principles in Muslim society and scrutinizes the influence of religion in a society that is undergoing modernization Till now there has been little available literature on this topic This book written by an eminent scholar with an international reputation fills this gap giving students of politics sociology and Asian studies a revealing examination of the Muslim world today

Violence Pamela Stewart, Andrew Strathern, 2002-01-01 This book provides a wide ranging introduction to the meaning and context of violence The authors build upon David Riches's concept of the triangle of violence which examines the relationship between performers victims and witnesses and his proposition that violence is marked by contests regarding its legitimacy as a social act Adopting an approach which looks at the negotiated and contingent nature of violent behavior Stewart and Strathern particularly stress the powerful underlying motivation for revenge and the often unacknowledged association between ideas of revenge and concepts of justice These theoretical perspectives are applied to in depth case studies from Rwanda Urundi Sri Lanka and Northern Ireland The authors also draw on extensive field experience in Papua New Guinea and ethnographic detail is used to address broader issues of considerable global importance

War, Violence and Women's Agency in Pakistan Rehana Wagha, 2024-02-29 War Violence and Women's Agency in Pakistan investigates the prominent features of gender ideology in the Swat region Pakistan and how they influence the norms and forms of women's agency during conflict After 9 11 the War on Terror brought a new wave of anarchy extremism and violence to the valley of Swat This book investigates the socio political structures in the region and examines their impact on women's political behaviour The author asks how these patriarchal socio political structures have contributed to the formation of women's subjectivities and their ability to subvert and resist patriarchal regimes of oppression She examines how women experienced militancy what led them to support or resist the Taliban and how they coped with everyday violence displacement and resettlement in the period from 2005 to 2010 Multidisciplinary in its approach the book analyses the norms and forms of women's agency under the postmodern structure and agency framework of feminist political theory which views structure and agency as co constituted and mutually dependent Focusing on women's narratives and the norms and forms of their behaviour from a woman's perspective this book is a welcome addition to the analysis of the violence in the Swat region Pakistan It will be of interest to scholars of Gender Studies War and Conflict Studies and South Asian Studies

Political and Social Change in Pakistan's Tribal Areas Naveed Ahmad

Shinwari,2025-05-23 This book analyses agency and place of youth within the Pashtun tribal social order in Pakistan It looks at Pashtun youth as a separate social category analysing their changing trends of political leadership in Pakistan s former Federally Administered Tribal Areas FATA Presenting an in depth ethnographic inquiry into the intricate dynamics of political leadership manifest among the Pashtun youth hailing from the erstwhile FATA this book adds more depth to the understanding of political developments and the peculiar relationship between FATA and Pakistan in general The author argues that events following the Soviet invasion and post 9 11 have disrupted traditional age based relations in Pashtun society enabling young adults to assert their political agency in unprecedented ways This book demonstrates how Pashtun youth have emerged at the forefront of politics through avenues such as Talibanisation migration elite politics and the Pashtun social movement These young individuals are redefining politics in FATA and across Pakistan playing a pivotal role in shaping new relationships between the Pashtun community and the Pakistani nation By demystifying longstanding misconceptions and stereotypes perpetuated since British colonial times and post independence Pakistan and the evolving political dynamics in the context of the post withdrawal phase of US forces from Afghanistan in August 2021 this book provides new empirical evidence and insights into social injustices faced by Pashtun youth Analysing themes such as political alliances among diverse youth groups identity politics expressions of agency migration and the importance of urban spaces for activism and rights claims the study sheds light on the dynamic role of Pashtun youth in contemporary South Asia making it essential reading for understanding the region s socio political landscape It will be of interest to researchers studying politics and society in Pakistan and Afghanistan anthropology and post conflict reconstruction in South Asia The

Regime Change In Afghanistan Amin Saikal, William Maley, 2019-05-28 This book is a study of regime change in an underdeveloped country with a weak state and strong autonomous social organizations Regime change is in many countries a traumatic and disruptive experience but few countries have paid as high a cost to retain traditionally accepted relationships of authority as has Afghanistan since the communist coup

Singing with the Mountains William Sherman, 2023-12-05 An illuminating story of a Sufi community that sought the revelation of God In the Afghan highlands of the sixteenth century the messianic community known as the Roshaniyya not only desired to find God's word and to abide by it but also attempted to practice God's word and to develop techniques of language intended to render their own tongues as the organs of continuous revelation As their critics would contend however the Roshaniyya attempted to make language do something that language should not do infuse the semiotic with the divine Their story thus ends in a tower of skulls the proliferation of heresiographies that detailed the sins of the Roshaniyya and new formations of Afghan identity In Singing with the Mountains William E B Sherman finds something extraordinary about the Roshaniyya not least because the first known literary use of vernacular Pashto occurs in an eclectic Roshani imitation of the Qur'an The story of the Roshaniyya exemplifies a religious culture of linguistic experimentation In the example of the Roshaniyya we discover a set of questions and anxieties about the capacities of language that pervaded Sufi orders imperial courts groups of wandering ascetics and scholastic networks throughout Central and South Asia In telling this tale Sherman asks the following questions How can we make language shimmer with divine truth How can letters grant sovereign power and form new ethnic identities and ways of belonging How can rhyme bend our conceptions of time so that the prophetic past comes to inhabit the now of our collective moment By analyzing the ways in which the Roshaniyya answered these types of questions and the ways in which their answers were eventually rejected as heresies this book offers new insight into the imaginations of religious actors in the late medieval and early modern Persianate worlds

Soviet-American Relations with Pakistan, Iran and Afghanistan Hafeez Malik, 1987-03-02 This is a collective volume on Soviet American relations with the three rimland states of Iran Afghanistan and Pakistan The contributors argue that what happens in these three states would ultimately affect the states in the Gulf and the Middle East The USA maintains friendly relations only with Pakistan while her relations with Iran and Afghanistan are antagonistic The future penetration of the Soviet influence in Iran and Afghanistan is assessed and probable scenarios are discussed by the seventeen contributors who represent the military diplomacy and academia The concluding chapter synthesizes the discussions and the criticism of various papers The book is the most up to date thorough analysis of superpower relations with the three neighbouring states of the Soviet Union currently available

Modern Afghanistan

M. Nazif Shahrani, 2018-02-10 What impact does 40 years of war violence and military intervention have on a country and its people As the global war on terror now stretches into the 21st century with no clear end in sight Identity and Politics in Modern Afghanistan collects the work of interdisciplinary scholars aid workers and citizens to assess the impact of this prolonged conflict on Afghanistan Nearly all of the people in Afghan society have been affected by persistent violent conflict Identity and Politics in Modern Afghanistan focuses on social and political dynamics issues of gender and the shifting relationships between tribal sectarian and regional communities Contributors consider topics ranging from masculinity among the Afghan Pashtun to services offered for the disabled and from Taliban extremism to the role of TV in the Afghan culture wars Prioritizing the perspective and experiences of the people of Afghanistan new insights are shared into the lives of those who are hoping to build a secure future on the rubble of a violent past Narrative Identity Trevor

Castor, 2021-11-09 Narrative Identity is the product of seven years of research among Muslim immigrants living in America This book will help you to understand the role that stories have in shaping how we see the world ourselves and others by exploring the process of identity formation for one of the most feared and least understood Muslim peoples in the world the Pashtun The Pashtun are most often associated with the Taliban and for harboring Osama bin Laden after the attacks on 9 11 For centuries these people have been accustomed to war and ethnic tribal and religious violence in the regions of Afghanistan and Pakistan As a result the Pashtun are also one of the largest ethnic groups migrating throughout the West More recently their identity has been reduced to the violent actions of Islamic terrorism committed by a few Pashtun immigrants living in Western nations This study explores the various factors that impact identity formation for Pashtun immigrants including transnationalism social media and the ongoing negative media attention concerning Islam and Muslims This book helps readers understand the nuances of identity formation which are critical to consider in order to avoid the crude categorizations so often associated with identity politics The Taliban Courts in Afghanistan Adam

Baczko, 2024-02-06 Informed by the author s extensive fieldwork in Afghanistan this socio legal study examines how the Taliban used law and courts to substantiate their claim to embody the state disseminate their vision of society and establish local legitimacy The Thistle and the Drone Akbar Ahmed, 2013-02-27 In the wake of the 9 11 attacks the United States declared war on terrorism More than ten years later the results are decidedly mixed Here world renowned author diplomat and scholar Akbar Ahmed reveals an important yet largely ignored result of this war in many nations it has exacerbated the already broken relationship between central governments and the largely rural Muslim tribal societies on the peripheries of both Muslim and non Muslim nations The center and the periphery are engaged in a mutually destructive civil war across the globe a conflict that has been intensified by the war on terror Conflicts between governments and tribal societies predate the war on terror in many regions from South Asia to the Middle East to North Africa pitting those in the centers of power against those who live in the outlying provinces Akbar Ahmed s unique study demonstrates that this conflict between the center and the periphery has entered a new and dangerous stage with U S involvement after 9 11 and the deployment of drones in the hunt for al Qaeda threatening the very existence of many tribal societies American firepower and its vast anti terror network have turned the war on terror into a global war on tribal Islam And too often the victims are innocent children at school women in their homes workers simply trying to earn a living and worshipers in their mosques Battered by military attacks or drone strikes one day and suicide bombers the next the tribes bemoan Every day is like 9 11 for us In The Thistle and the Drone the third volume in Ahmed s groundbreaking trilogy examining relations between America and the Muslim world the author draws on forty case studies representing the global span of Islam to demonstrate how the U S has become involved directly or indirectly in each of these societies The study provides the social and historical context necessary to understand how both central governments and tribal

Problems of a Sociology of Knowledge (Routledge Revivals) Max Scheler, 2012 First Published in 1980 Manfred S Frings translation of Problems of a Sociology of Knowledge makes available Max Scheler s important work in sociological theory to the English speaking world The book presents the thinker s views on man s condition in the twentieth century and places it in a broader context of human history This book highlights Scheler as a visionary thinker of great intellectual strength who defied the pessimism that many of his peers could not avoid He comments on the isolated fragmented nature of man s existence in society in the twentieth century but suggests that a World Age of Adjustment is on the brink of existence Scheler argues that the approaching era is a time for the disjointed society of the twentieth century to heal its fractures and a time for different forms of human knowledge to come together in global understanding

Under the Drones Shahzad Bashir, Robert D Crews, 2012-05-28 In the West media coverage of Afghanistan and Pakistan is framed by military and political concerns resulting in a simplistic picture of ageless barbarity terrorist safe havens and peoples in need of either punishment or salvation Under the Drones looks beyond this limiting view to investigate real people on the ground and to analyze the political social and economic forces that shape their lives Understanding the complexity of life along the 1 600 mile border between Afghanistan and Pakistan can help America and its European allies realign their priorities in the region to address genuine problems rather than fabricated ones This volume explodes Western misunderstandings by revealing a land that abounds with human agency perpetual innovation and vibrant complexity Through the work of historians and social scientists the thirteen essays here explore the real and imagined presence of the Taliban the animated sociopolitical identities expressed through traditions like Pakistani truck decoration Sufism s ambivalent position as an alternative to militancy the long and contradictory history of Afghan media and the simultaneous brutality and potential that heroin brings to women in the area Moving past shifting conceptions of security the authors expose the West s prevailing perspective on the region as strategic targeted and alarmingly dehumanizing Under the Drones is an essential antidote to contemporary media coverage and military concerns

War, Ethics and Justice Annika Bergman-Rosamond, Mark Phythian, 2011-01-28 This edited volume addresses the key issues of ethics war and international relations in the post 9 11 world There is a lively debate in contemporary international relations concerning the relationship between statist obligations to one's own political community and cosmopolitan duties to distant others This volume contributes to this debate by investigating aspects of the ethics of national military and security and intelligence policies in the post 9 11 environment The discursive transformation of national militaries into forces for good became normalized as the Cold War subsided While the number of humanitarian military interventions and operations rose considerably in the immediate post Cold War period the advent of the war on terror raised questions about exactly what we mean by ethical behaviour in terms of military and security policies This volume interrogates this key question via a focus that is both distinctive and illuminating on national military ethics femininities masculinities and difference and intelligence ethics The key objectives are to demonstrate the important linkages between areas of international relations that are all too often treated in isolation from one another and to investigate the growing tension between cosmopolitan and communitarian conceptions of intelligence and security and the use of armed force This book will be of much interest to students of security studies ethics gender studies intelligence studies and international relations in general Mark Phythian is Professor of Politics in the Department of Politics and International Relations at the University of Leicester He is the author or editor co editor of ten books Annika Bergman Rosamond is Senior Researcher at the Danish Institute for International Studies in Copenhagen
