Millennial Countdown In New Guinea:

Millennial Countdown in New Guinea Pamela Stewart, 1998-11-14 In parts of the world where Christianity and indigenous practices have been integrated into hybrid religions the advent of the new millennium produced an immense stir Millennial Countdown in New Guinea provides a unique set of studies based on recent fieldwork that deal with perceptions of the new millennium in New Guinea The articles collected here represent a rich ethnographic record of events leading up to the new millennium exploring end times versus new world notions among New Guinea societies Unlike other published collections on New Guinea this special issue of Ethnohistory focuses on the entire island with essays on both Irian Jaya and Papua New Guinea It makes a distinguished contribution to a classic theme in anthropology and the history of religion Expecting the End Kenneth G. C. Newport, Crawford Gribben, 2006 Jesus promise that the end draws near has spawned an expectation of that grand event across various religious groups This volume examines the abiding social issues that surround the continued presence of apocalyptic anticipation by setting them in historical present day and future manifestations Approaching this fervent expectation from a broad perspective Gribben and Newport explore the contemporary movements with insightful analysis that provokes discussion and even self reflection Millennial Countdown in New Guinea ,2000 United in

Discontent Julia Suzanne Torrie, 2010 The early twentieth century advent of aerial bombing made successful evacuations essential to any war effort but ordinary people resented them deeply Based on extensive archival research in Germany and France this is the first broad comparative study of civilian evacuations in Germany and France during World War II The evidence uncovered exposes the complexities of an assumed monolithic and all powerful Nazi state by showing that citizens objections to evacuations which were rooted in family concerns forced changes in policy Drawing attention to the interaction between the Germans and French throughout World War II this book shows how policies in each country were shaped by events in the other A truly cross national comparison in a field dominated by accounts of one country or the other this book provides a unique historical context for addressing current concerns about the impact of air raids and military occupations on civilians Page 4 of cover

Inequality in New Guinea Highlands Societies Andrew Strathern, 2009-07-16 Strathern s illuminating study of the inequalities amongst the Highland societies of Papua New Guinea is now reissued with a new preface The five papers in this volume seek to set these inequalities into a context of long term and recent social changes that aim to develop schemes of analysis which will permit discussion of the societies over extended periods of time

Witchcraft, Sorcery, Rumors and Gossip Pamela J. Stewart, Andrew Strathern, 2004 This book combines two classic topics in social anthropology in a new synthesis the study of witchcraft and sorcery and the study of rumors and gossip First it shows how rumor and gossip are invariably important as catalysts for accusations of witchcraft and sorcery Second it demonstrates the role of rumor and gossip in the genesis of social and political violence as in the case of both peasant rebellions and witch hunts Examples supporting the argument are drawn from Africa Europe India Papua New Guinea Sri Lanka and Indonesia Pathways to Heaven Holger Jebens,2006-09-01 How does global Christianity relate to processes of globalisation and modernization and what form does it take in different local settings These questions have lately proved to be of increasing interest to many scholars in the social sciences and humanities This study examines the tensions antagonisms and outright confrontations that can occur within local Christian communities upon the arrival of global versions of fundamentalism and it does so through a rich and in depth ethnographic study of a single case that of Pairundu a small and remote Papua New Guinean village whose population accepted Catholicism after first being contacted in the late 1950s and subsequently participated in a charismatic movement before more and more members of the younger generation started to separate themselves from their respective catholic families and to convert to one of the most radical and fastest growing religious groups not only in contemporary Papua New Guinea but world wide the Seventh Day Adventist Church This case study of local Christianity as a lived religion contributes to an understanding of the social and cultural dynamics that increasingly incite and shape religious conflicts on a global scale The Anthropology of Morality in Melanesia and Beyond John Barker,2016-04-01 The Anthropology of Morality in Melanesia and Beyond examines how Melanesians experience and deal with moral dilemmas and challenges Taking Kenelm Burridge s seminal work as their starting point the contributors focus upon public situations and types of people that exemplify key ethical contradictions for members of moral communities While returning to some classical concerns such as the roles of big men and sorcerers the book opens new territory with richly textured ethnographic studies and theoretical reviews that explore the interface between the values associated with indigenous village life and the ethical orientations associated with Christianity the state the marketplace and other facets of modernity A major contribution to the emerging field of the anthropology of morality the volume includes some of the most prominent scholars working in the discipline today including Bruce Knauft Joel Robbins F G Bailey Deborah Gewertz and Frederick Errington Terror and Violence Andrew Strathern,Pamela J. Stewart,Neil L. Whitehead,2005-11-20 What is terror What are its roots and its results and what part does it play in human experience and history This volume offers a number of timely and original anthropological insights into the ways in which acts of terror and reactions to those acts impact on the lives of virtually everyone in the world today as perpetrators victims or witnesses As the contributors to this volume demonstrate what we have come to regard as acts of terror whether politically motivated or state sanctioned have assumed many different forms and provoked widely differing responses throughout the world At a deeper level the contributors explore the work of the imagination in extreme contexts of danger such as those of terror and terrorism By stressing the role of the imagination and its role in amplifying the effects of experience this collection brings together a coherent set of analyses that offer innovative and unexpected ways of understanding a major global problem of contemporary life Islam and Cultural Change in Papua New Guinea Scott Flower,2016-08-12 Scholars of religion and policy makers may be surprised at the changes occurring on the second largest island of the world that straddles one of the most

Christianised and least Christianised areas of the world This book provides an accurate and deeper understanding of the nature of Islam in Papua New Guinea and determines the causes and processes of recent growth in the country's Muslim population Combining ethnographic sociological and historical approaches to understanding Islam's growth in Papua New Guinea the book uses extensive fieldwork interviews and archival records to look at the establishment institutionalization and growth of Islam in a country that is predominantly Christian It analyses the causes and processes of conversion and presents a new analytical approach that could be used as a basis for analysing Islamic conversions in other parts of the world

Presenting an interdisciplinary approach to the study of Islamic conversion thorough the examination of the causes and process of Islamic conversion in Papua New Guinea the book is of interest to students and scholars of Asian Religion Islamic Studies and Cultural Studies

Remaking the World Pamela J. Stewart, Andrew Strathern, 2014-06-03 Drawing on both their own fieldwork from 1991 to 1999 and older written sources Stewart and Strathern explore how the Duna have remade their rituals and associated myths in response to the outside influences of government Christianity and large scale economic development specifically mining and oil prospecting The authors provide in depth ethnographic materials on the Duna and present many detailed descriptions of ritual practices that have been abandoned Remaking the World is a timely contribution to the literature on agency and the making of cultural identity by indigenous peoples facing economic social and political change

Cargo, Cult, and Culture Critique Holger Jebens, 2004-09-30 Cargo cults have long exerted a remarkable attraction on Westerners and the last decade has seen the publication of much new work on the subject This collection of original essays is based on fieldwork in Melanesia Fiji Australia and Indonesia by scholars who are influential in the contemporary debate on cargo Conceived as a reader for undergraduate and graduate courses the volume offers an up to date view of the subject and the debates it arouses among contemporary anthropologists Some contributors plead for the abolition of cargo because of its troublesome implications but also because in the authors view cargo cults do not exist as identifiable objects of study Others argue that it is precisely this troublesome nature that makes the term a useful analytical tool that should be welcomed rather than rejected By delineating and substantiating key issues and positions in this lively and ongoing debate this volume underscores and refines the contemporary reevaluation of cargo cults Scholars of the Pacific region and others interested in new religious movements should find this volume both enlightening and compelling

Religion and Retributive Logic Carole M. Cusack, Christopher Hartney, 2010 Garry Winston Trompf b 1940 in his outstanding academic career has inspired scholars in the fields of Studies in Religion and the History of Ideals In this volume his colleagues and students critique and expand upon the world of this outstanding academic The book is divided into four parts Melanesia Ancient World Studies Philosophical and Methodological Considerations and Historiography Authors address Trompf's research in works such as The Idea of Historical Recurrence in Western Thought Early Christian Historiography and themes of Melanesian religion that Trompf address in Payback No study in the religions of Oceania or ideals of millennialism should ignore this critical assessment of Garry Trompf's work

Violence Pamela Stewart, Andrew Strathern, 2002-01-01 This book provides a wide ranging introduction to the meaning and context of violence The authors build upon David Riches's concept of the triangle of violence which examines the relationship between performers victims and witnesses and his proposition that violence is marked by contests regarding its legitimacy as a social act Adopting an approach which looks at the negotiated and contingent nature of violent behavior Stewart and Strathern particularly stress the powerful underlying motivation for revenge and the often unacknowledged association between ideas of revenge and concepts of justice These theoretical perspectives are applied to in depth case studies from Rwanda Urundi Sri Lanka and Northern Ireland The authors also draw on extensive field experience in Papua New Guinea and ethnographic detail is used to address broader issues of considerable global importance

Becoming Sinners Joel Robbins, 2004-04-12 A study of cultural change through the study of the Christianization of the Urapmin a Melanesian society in Papua New Guinea

Religions of Melanesia Garry Trompf, 2006-09-30 Melanesia boasts over one quarter of the world's distinct religions and presents the most complex religious panorama on earth The region is famous for its unusual new religious movements that have adapted traditional beliefs to modernity in surprising ways As the first bibliographical survey to comprehensively cover the entire region Religions of Melanesia is an invaluable research aid for anyone interested in this growing field Trompf's work is a complete listing of scholarly publications and provides readable and concise descriptions that will clearly guide the researcher toward the most relevant sources This survey covers 2188 entries organized topically and regionally Trompf covers such subjects as traditional and modern belief systems and the emergent indigenous Christianity that has taken root Regional coverage includes Irian Jaya Papua New Guinea Solomon Islands Vanuatu New Caledonia and Fiji

Heaven on Earth Richard Landes, 2011-08-04 Millennialists through the ages have looked forward to the apocalyptic moment that will radically transform society into heaven on earth They have delivered withering critiques of their own civilizations and promised both the impending annihilation of the forces of evil and the advent of a perfect society And all their promises have invariably failed We tend therefore to dismiss these prophets of doom and salvation as crackpots and madmen and not surprisingly historians of our secular era have tended to underestimate their impact on our modern world Now Richard Landes offers a lucid and ground breaking analysis of this widely misunderstood phenomenon This long awaited study shows that many events typically regarded as secular including the French Revolution Marxism Bolshevism Nazism not only contain key millennialist elements but follow the apocalyptic curve of enthusiastic launch disappointment and often catastrophic re entry into normal time Indeed as Landes examines the explicit millennialism behind such recent events as the emergence of Global Jihad since 1979 he challenges the common notion that modern history is largely driven by secular interests By focusing on ten widely different case studies none of which come from Judaism or Christianity he shows that millennialism is not only a cultural universal but also an extremely adaptive social phenomenon that persists across the modern and post modern divides At the same time he also offers valuable insight into the social and psychological factors that drive such beliefs Ranging from ancient Egypt to modern day UFO cults and global Jihad Heaven on Earth both delivers an eye opening revisionist argument for the significance of millennialism throughout history and alerts the reader to the alarming spread of these ideologies in our world today

Dream Travelers R. Lohmann,2003-11-13 In dreams part of the self seems to wander off to undertake both mundane tasks and marvellous adventures Anthropologists have found that many peoples take this experience of dreaming at face value assuming that their spirits literally leave the body to travel meet other spirits and acquire valuable knowledge with dramatic consequence for relationships social organization and religions Dream Travellers is about Melanesian Aboriginal Australian and Indonesian peoples who hold this assumption Several leading anthropologists contribute theoretically and ethnographically rich chapters showing that attention to these peoples dream lives deeply enhances our understanding of their cultures and waking lives as well

War in Heaven/Heaven on Earth Stephen D. O'Leary,Geln S. McGhee,2014-12-18 The apocalypse is a motif that lies behind many religious beliefs and practices War in Heaven Heaven on Earth theorizes the apocalyptic as it has arisen in a variety of religious traditions from Native American religion to Islam in Northern Nigeria and new terrorist movements Millennial theory and history are explored from the perspective of social psychology sociology and post modern philosophy The volume is unique in applying an analysis of millennial themes to a comparative study of religion

Kinship and Food in South East Asia Monica Janowski,Fiona Kerlogue,2007 There has been a growing acceptance that food has an important role in establishing and structuring social and kin relations in South East Asian societies This study looks at a wide variety of groups in the region and demonstrates that within all of them the feeding relationship is fundamental to the establishment and the nature of relations within generations and between generations Presenting material from ten societies in the region the papers included in this volume argue that the feeding of foods drink and meals based on the focal starch crop grown by these agricultural groups rice in eight of the groups covered here sago in one and cassava in one is used to manipulate biological kinship and to construct a kinship particular to humans which is nevertheless founded in a natural process the flow of life blessings and potency between generations
