Millet And His Barbizon Contemporaries:

Millet and His Barbizon Contemporaries, 1985 Millet and His Barbizon Contemporaries, 1985 Millet and His Barbizon Contemporaries Jean-François Millet (französischer Maler), 1985 Artists in Residence Dana Micucci, 2001 This illustrated guide to the homes and studios of eight 19th century painters provides intimate insights into their work and personalities as well as day long itineraries in and around Paris Henry James and the Art of Impressions John Scholar, 2020 Henry James criticized the impressionism which was revolutionizing French painting and French fiction and satirized the British aesthetic movement which championed impressionist criticism Yet time and again he used the word impression to represent the most intense moments of consciousness of his characters as well as the work of the literary artist Henry James and the Art of Impressions argues that the literary art of the impression as James practised it places his work within the wider cultural history of impressionism Henry James and the Art of Impressions offers an unprecedentedly detailed cultural and intellectual history of the impression It draws on philosophy psychology literature critical theory intellectual influences and aesthetics to study James s early art criticism literary criticism travel writing prefaces and the three great novels of his major phase The Ambassadors The Wings of the Dove and The Golden Bowl It argues that the coherent philosophical meanings of the Jamesian impression emerge when they are comprehended as a family of related ideas about perception imagination and aesthetics bound together by James s attempt to reconcile the novel s value as a mimetic form and its value as a transformative creative activity Henry James and the Art of Impressions traces the development of the impression across a range of disciplines to show how James s use of the word owes them cultural and intellectual debt It offers a more philosophical account of James to complement the more historicist work of recent decades

Nationalism in Contemporary Western European Cinema James Harvey, 2018-06-21 This book investigates screen representations of 21st century nationalism arguably the most urgent and apparent phenomenon in the Western world today The chapters explore recurrent thematic and stylistic features of 21st century western European cinema and analyse the ways in which film responds to contemporary developments of mounting tensions and increasing hostilities to difference The collection blends incisive sociological and historical engagement with close textual analysis of many types of screen media including popular cinema art house productions low budget independent work documentary and video installation Identifying motifs of nationhood and indigeneity throughout the contributors of this volume present important perspectives and a timely cultural response to the contemporary moment of nationalism Max Liebermann and International Modernism Marion Deshmukh, Françoise Forster-Hahn, Barbara Gaehtgens, 2011-05 Although Max Liebermann 1847 1935 began his career as a realist painter depicting scenes of rural labor Dutch village life and the countryside by the turn of the century his paintings had evolved into colorful images of bourgeois life and leisure that critics associated with French impressionism During a time of increasing German nationalism his paintings and cultural politics sparked numerous aesthetic and political controversies

His eminent career and his reputation intersected with the dramatic and violent events of modern German history from the Empire to the Third Reich The Nazis persecution of modern and Jewish artists led to the obliteration of Liebermann from the narratives of modern art but this volume contributes to the recent wave of scholarly literature that works to recover his role and his oeuvre from an international perspective
