Christ's grace plus his own conscious efforts. We all move from poverty to prosperity or the other way round. Jesus was born in the poorest place, manger, but in John 14 He announced to His disciples a city made of mansions. It's a journey you must undertake else you live and die poor. But this is not God's will for your life. He hates to see you stranded. He does not support those who desire to jump but He encourages those who are willing to play by the Kingdom rules and grow. Whoever jumps lacks a base and will fall by gravity but those who grow have a solid foundation and they shall abide. The will of God for every Christian is prosperity. 3 John 1:2-2 Corinthians 8:9 reveals that Christ was rich yet for our sakes He became poor that we through His poverty might become rich. So in simple sense He became poor so we might become rich. Remember that the scripture cannot be broken. John 10:35. So where do we now place poor Christians? Why are many Christians poor and beggarly? Is there something these folks are not doing well? Do you know that some ignorant people even feel that Christianity is a religion for the poor? No. The God we serve is the most successful individual in the whole universe. He owns everything in the whole wide world. Psalm 24:1. If your father God is rich and you are His heir then that poverty in your life is a terrible error that this book in your hand has come to eradicate. Read this book with a teachable heart and be prepared to apply the biblical principles therein. It will transport you from the realm of poverty to prosperity. If you are ready to grow into a financial warlord ride with me.
