Milton My Fathers Dog:

Milton, My Father's Dog Eric Copeland, 1994 A father's hilarious love for a dog and a boy's slow appreciation of that same dog Fraser has always wanted a dog but when Dad brings home a large sheepdog named Milton it is not the gentle puppy Fraser wanted far from it The new dog is a menace to Fraser knocking him down jumping all over him and dragging him along on their walks All the while Frasers dad thinks Milton can do no wrong He even builds a doghouse for Milton which the dog promptly destroys Could Milton ever be a pet for Fraser It is not many fathers who can see themselves through their children's eyes but Eric Copeland succeeds in recreating how ridiculous and funny he looked to his son The World

Hands of My Father Myron Uhlberg, 2009-02-03 By turns heart tugging and hilarious Myron Uhlberg's memoir tells the story of growing up as the hearing son of deaf parents and his life in a world that he found unaccountably beautiful even as he longed to escape it Does sound have rhythm my father asked Does it rise and fall like the ocean Does it come and go like the wind Such were the kinds of questions that Myron Uhlberg's deaf father asked him from earliest childhood in his eternal quest to decipher and to understand the elusive nature of sound Quite a challenge for a young boy and one of many he would face Uhlberg's first language was American Sign Language the first sign he learned I love you But his second language was spoken English and no sooner did he learn it than he was called upon to act as his father's ears and mouth in the stores and streets of the neighborhood beyond their silent apartment in Brooklyn Resentful as he sometimes was of the heavy burdens heaped on his small shoulders he nonetheless adored his parents who passed on to him their own passionate engagement with life These two remarkable people married and had children at the absolute bottom of the Great Depression an expression of extraordinary optimism and typical of the joy and resilience they were able to summon at even the darkest of times From the beaches of Coney Island to Ebbets Field where he watches his father's hero Jackie Robinson play ball from the branch library above the local Chinese restaurant where the odor of chow mein rose from the pages of the books he devoured to the hospital ward where he visits his polio afflicted friend this is a memoir filled with stories about growing up not just as the child of two deaf people but as a book loving mischief making tree climbing kid during the remarkably eventful period that spanned the Depression the War and the early fifties From the Hardcover edition A Time for Silence Philippa Carr, 2013-02-26 DIV While the world teeters on the brink of World War I a young woman's indiscretion leads to a seething viper's nest of blackmail and murder divDIV In 1912 with war looming on the horizon thirteen year old Lucinda Greenham is sent to an exclusive boarding school in Belgium Her joy in sharing this adventure with her best friend

Annabelinda is cut short when Annabelinda has a clandestine affair leading to pregnancy Annabelinda s family arranges a rest cure and when the girl returns to school she seems to have forgotten the incident Then in the wake of Germany s invasion of Belgium Lucinda and Annabelinda are forced to flee across Europe and find a welcome savior in the dashing Major Marcus Merrivale divDIV divDIVSafely back in England Lucinda vows to keep her friend s secret But someone in the household has uncovered the truth about Annabelinda and the lively baby called Edward Now Lucinda who has lost her heart to a decorated soldier is faced with keeping another secret As a blackmail plot erupts in murder and war eradicates a way of life forever Lucinda discovers that there is a time for love and a time for silence div Marlene Henry Rex
