Mind Abuse Media Violence In An Information Age:

Mind Abuse Rose Dyson, 2020-02-11 Although rogue elements on the internet have spawned concerns about foreign interference in elections invasion of privacy and the impact of hate speech most people are still in denial about the harmful effects of media violence as entertainment This new edition of Mind Abuse covers developments in the last twenty years showing how the problem has grown with each new technological innovation and how relentless marketing victimizes countless young people around the world while the entertainment industry rakes in billions Rose A Dyson offers a wake up call to parents teachers health professionals and policy makers who deal with the aftermath of first person shooter video gaming and social media abuses such as cyberbullying that encourage errant behavior from an early age She shows that recent trends toward increased violence in popular culture are symptomatic of deeper social economic and ecological problems that require an urgent shift away from the status quo toward a more sustainable model for peaceful co existence For over 30 years Dyson has contributed to the debate over media violence Here she urges us to resist the corporate giants of the entertainment industries and reclaim the right to shape our own value systems and dreams Blind consumption of media violence as entertainment she argues is not inconsistent with vital policies for a greener healthier future Media, Sex, Violence, and Drugs in the Global Village Yahya R. Kamalipour, Kuldip R. Rampal, 2001 Providing a multicultural analysis of the impact of globalized Western media this guide specifically deals with sex violence and drugs The text proposes a framework for understanding the political social and economic problems that face media policy makers in an age of globalization Mind Abuse Rose Anne Dyson, 2000 Violence translates into any language and sells well in a global market profit is almost always the overriding motive Violence And The Media Carter, Cynthia, 2003-01-01 Why is there so much violence portrayed in the media What meanings are attached to representations of violence in the media Can media violence encourage violent behaviour and desensitize audiences to real violence Does the everydayness of media violence lead to the normalization of violence in society Violence and the Media is a lively and indispensable introduction to current thinking about media violence and its potential influence on audiences Adopting a fresh perspective on the media effects debate Carter and Weaver engage with a host of pressing issues around violence in different media contexts including news film television pornography advertising and cyberspace The book offers a compelling argument that the daily repetition of media violence helps to normalize and legitimize the acts being portrayed Most crucially the influence of media violence needs to be understood in relation to the structural inequalities of everyday life Using a wide range of examples of media violence primarily drawn from the American and British media to illustrate these points Violence and the Media is a distinctive and revealing exploration of one of the most important and controversial subjects in cultural and media studies today Peace Issues in the 21st Century Global Context John Duncan, Shreesh Juyal, 2017-08-21 Since the two Hague Netherlands multilateral peace conferences of 1899 and 1907 the fundamental issue of world peace and its long term realization has engaged scholars diplomats statesmen and students of international relations This book presents a new endeavor in this direction through a collection of papers selected from the recent conferences of the Canadian Peace Research Association and independent scholars Descriptive analytical constructive and balanced ideas and solutions in this text represent alternatives for the global community to be collectively secure and peaceful This volume examines world peace in its foundational descriptive conceptual and prescriptive aspects and as a social and human concept in positive and negative contexts including the nonviolent perspective of peace women theorists on peace and war empowerment of women as peacemakers and peace research and education under siege On violence and war the topics included are the theory of violence the new faces of war including military robots electromagnetic and information weapons the cyber warfare and the militarization of neuroscience In the area of case studies Iran and nuclear deterrence the Baha i faith and Iran the Western Sahara Sudan and South Sudan and the challenges of a Palestinian Nation are analysed In addition there is focus on the need to establish a Department of Peace in Canada and an attempt to seek establishment of world peace through direct democracy This book will advance an understanding of the historic struggle and failures as well as the accomplishments and shortcomings for peaceful change and a just world order It will be of direct interest to students of political science diplomacy history social science international law human rights and other cognate disciplines

Children's Emotional Lives Sandra Leanne Bosacki, 2008 Drawing on evidence from a longitudinal study of Canadian children s emotional experiences within the grade school classroom this book considers the nature and significance of such experiences for children s development and well being Within the learning context of the classroom the girls and boys share their experiences of self emotional understandings and social relations through interviews and social cognitive tasks The chapters provide scholarly analysis and practical information for those who agree that emotions are paramount to children s comprehensive development The book concludes by describing the practical implications and applications of its findings for parents teachers and caretakers of children including how to help children learn about and negotiate emotions in themselves and in their interactions with others      Peace Magazine ,2000      Haunting Inquiry Robert Nellis,2009-01-01 The NFB s mandate is to make and distribute films designed to help Canadians in all parts of Canada to understand the ways of living and the problems of Canadians in other parts NFB Founding Commissioner John Grierson It s only by our lack of ghosts we re haunted Canadian poet Earle Birney Haunting Inquiry Classic NFB Documentary Jacques Derrida and the Curricular Otherwise reintroduces significant if sometimes forgotten National Film Board of Canada documentaries into contemporary curriculum conversation Author Robert Christopher Nellis employs an inflection of Derridean deconstruction to mobilize historical political and intellectual themes emerging from the films as elliptical curricular opportunities The work explores hauntings in and around the documentaries to open toward Others neither fully present nor absent within the Canadian imagination They remain troublingly illicit as is the character of haunting This book s contribution to the literature of curriculum is a unique and innovative conceptual framework reintroduction of many classic NFB documentaries and the use of a productive language and outlook to mobilize fresh perspectives and hopeful possibilities      The Supranational Corporation Laura Westra,2013-05-16 The growth of corporate power has kept pace with and even exceeded the rapid rise of globalization in the past two decades With it has come the weakening of a nation s ability to hold corporate power in check and the increasing inability of states to protect the rights of individuals within their national boundaries as a result of the growing number of international legal instruments This work lays bare corporate actions both domestic and international under the guise of legal personhood and shows how corporations flaunt laws and act as controlling powers beyond the constraints imposed on legal state citizens Corporations are now embedded within domestic legal regimes and insinuate themselves to subvert the very systems designed to restrain corporate power and protect the public weal Using international vehicles like the WTO and NAFTA corporate collective power effectively supersedes the constitutional mandate of nation states      Child Law Laura Westra,2014-06-17 Child Law starts with the question Who is the Child In direct contrast to the CRC which calls for putting the interests of the child first in all policies dealing with children it appears that the interests of others are the major consideration de facto In law children s right to protection is severely limited by the presence of a maximum age limit with no consideration of the starting point current and ongoing scientific research has demonstrated the effects of this non consideration in a number of abnormalities and diseases not only in children but in adults and the elderly The WHO has published a number of studies to that effect and the 2012 Report on Endocrine Disruptors more than confirms this claim This and other scientific insights that have largely been ignored show the flaws and inadequacies of the legal regimes intended to protect children in a number of areas from the basic public health to the right to normal development child labor law conventions in conflict situations as a result of climate and other events children as illegal migrants and as inmates in prison camps      Our Faith in Evil Gregory Desilet,2005-12-02 Is violence in American cinema a reflection of life Or does life imitate the violence people see in cinema One of the pressing questions in today s society is whether fictional portrayals of violence have social or psychological consequences Studies have concluded with both yes and no verdicts Is America a culture of violence Why does violence horror and melodrama appeal to people This book explores these issues with primary focus on entertainment especially film through lenses of the media the consumer and the cultural backdrop The film A Clockwork Orange allegedly spawned so much violence in the United Kingdom that director Stanley Kubrick was rumored to have fled with his family to avoid a death threat From that classic case the author takes readers through a study of media and violence that examines the structure of horror the origin and nature of evil the Greek mythic tradition melodrama and catharsis fairy tales comic books video games and real horror In part two the author offers case studies in several genres westerns multi melodrama The Silence of the Lambs slasher films psycho drama serials such as Star Wars and Harry Potter apocalyptic melodrama modern and postmodern noir creature features and religious melodrama In text citations are included and two notes expand on a couple of issues in the text the perspectives of Plato and Aristotle on the effects of tragic drama and discussion of differences of opinion relating to methodological approach     Three Plays of Maureen Hunter Hunter, Maureen, 2003 Book is clean and tight No writing in text Like New     Canadian Books in Print.
