Here's just a small sample of what's inside: The 22nd and 24th presidents of the United States had the same mother and the same father but were not brothers. How could this be so? Stumped? That's because it's one man: Grover Cleveland, who was reelected after skipping a term. And that's just an easy warm up. Brain Baffle Robert Steinwachs, 1993. Get ready for more than 400 conundrums to baffle and befuddle your mind. A young lady looked at a picture and said: This person's mother was my mother's mother in law. Who was in the picture? Answer: Her father. Romantic

Generations Lene Østermark-Johansen, 2003 Unlike the first two volumes of ANGLES on the English Speaking World this special issue does not originate in a set of conference papers The idea of compiling a collection of essays on Romanticism emerged from the unusually strong concentration on Romantic studies among the graduate students of the English Department a couple of years ago This volume places their work in the context of distinguished international scholars of greater seniority scholars who have become academic contacts through conferences and assessment committees and whose contributions I am very pleased to be able to include alongside the works of local contributors The Romantic generations of the title of this volume thus strike a number of different chords generations of scholars in Romantic studies conventional divisions of Romantic poets into first second and possibly third generations the self generative aspect of Romanticism the awareness of poetic reputation and the image and afterlife of the poet The collection spans just over a hundred years from the 1780s to the 1890s and while not in any way attempting to define Romanticism or raise issues of periodization the volume allows for the continued existence of Romantic features right until the end of the nineteenth century Poetry looms large in this issue of ANGLES apart from Ian Duncan's essay on Hume Scott and the Rise of Fiction all the other essays are in some way concerned with the Romantic poet and his poetry The Romantic poet is thus represented as a collector and editor of ballads as a political radical and printmaker as other to himself essentially ignorant of the process of poetic composition as a rival and collaborator with other poets or as a poet long dead the subject of successive generations of poetic lament The boundaries between poetry and the visual arts is explored in a couple of the essays indeed the rivalry between portraiture and literature pervades no less than three of the contributions and no matter whether the subject of inquiry is the image of the poet or the image of the poet's mother the Romantic poet displays a high degree of self consciousness with respect to both literary and visual media Romantic generations generate both selves and others in poetry and portraiture More Puzzles Shakuntala Devi, 2006-10 Here are over 300 tantalizing puzzles brain teasers and riddles by one of the greatest mathematical geniuses of the twentieth century Shakuntala Devi popularly known as the human computer The puzzles include every possible type of mathematical recreation time and distance problems age and money riddles puzzles involving geometry and elementary algebra and just plain straight thinking Often entertaining but always stimulating the puzzles included in the book offer hours of fun and relaxation Classic Brain Teasers Karen C. Richards, Bernardo Recaman Santos, Alan Stillson, Bernardo Recamán Santos, 2003-12-31 There's nothing better than a tricky brainteaser to test the intellect and satisfy a quest for mental challenges The search ends with this colossal assortment of classics filled with word and geometric puzzles visual challenges and others that dare you to venture into the tricky realm of lateral thinking There is something here to appeal to every kind of mind and exercises to build brainpower on every page from bafflers that present their questions as a story or riddle to bogglers that can be solved within 60 seconds Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, 2008
