Bogdan,2003-08-11 Drawing on philosophical psychological and evolutionary perspectives Bogdan analyzes how primates create the resources for metamentation the ability of the mind to think about its own thoughts Mental reflexivity or metamentation a mind thinking about its own thoughts underpins reflexive consciousness deliberation self evaluation moral judgment the ability to think ahead and much more Yet relatively little in philosophy or psychology has been written about what metamentation actually is or about why and how it came about In this book Radu Bogdan proposes that humans think reflexively because they interpret each other s minds in social contexts of cooperation communication education politics and so forth As naive psychology interpretation was naturally selected among primates as a battery of practical skills that preceded language and advanced thinking Metamentation began as interpretation mentally rehearsed through mental sharing of attitudes and information about items of common interest interpretation conspired with mental rehearsal to develop metamentation Drawing on philosophical psychological and evolutionary perspectives Bogdan analyzes the main phylogenetic and ontogenetic stages through which primates abilities to interpret other minds evolve and gradually create the opportunities and resources for metamentation Contrary to prevailing views he concludes that metamentation benefits from but is not a predetermined outcome of logical abilities language and consciousness
