Mind Games Annie Vernon,2019-03-21 WINNER OF THE TELEGRAPH SPORTS BOOK AWARDS 2020 GENERAL OUTSTANDING SPORTS WRITING A fascinating book about the psychology of elite sport Mind Games explores compelling territory Don McRae the Guardian An amazing book that I very much enjoyed Simon Mundie Don t Tell Me the Score BBC Podcast a fascinating book

Daily Mail It's well known that to reach the top in elite sport you need to have spent years honing and perfecting your physical ability. However, this is only part of the template required to win; the other half is about mind games. Throughout her career as one of the world's top athletes, Annie Vernon struggled with existential questions about the purpose of sport in our comfortable first world society. Why do we do it? What is it in our psyche that makes us push ourselves to the limit? What allows us to mentally overcome the physical pain? Now retired from competition, Olympic silver medallist and world champion rower Annie Vernon has decided to look for answers to these questions. Drawing on her personal experiences and interviews with some of the best coaches, athletes, and psychologists from across the world of sport, including Lucy Gossage, Katherine Grainger, Matthew Pinsent, Brian Moore, Brian Ching, and Dr Steve Peters, Annie discovers the secrets of how athletes train their brains in order to become world beaters. Annie debunks the myth that elite performers are universally cool, calm, and brimming with self-assurance. Through exploring the bits on the inside that nobody can see, Annie instead creates a new understanding of what it takes to be successful in sport and uncovers that, in fact, an elite athlete is not that different from you and me. It's simply a question of mind games.

Comes with a unique bonus: if readers actually solve the mystery, they have a chance to win a prize which will be promoted on wrox.com.

The Mind Game Norman Spinrad, 1985
Mind the Screen Jaap Kooijman, Patricia Pisters, Wanda Strauven, 2008
Mind the Screen pays tribute to the work of the pioneering European film scholar Thomas Elsaesser, author of several volumes on media studies and cinema culture. Covering a full scope of issues arising from the author's work, from melodrama and mediated memory to avant-garde practices, media archaeology, and the audiovisual archive, this collection elaborates and expands on Elsaesser's original ideas along the topical lines of cinephilia, the historical imaginary, the contemporary European cinematic experience, YouTube, and images of terrorism and double occupancy, among other topics. Contributions from well-known artists and scholars such as Mieke Bal and Warren Buckland explore a range of media concepts and provide a mirror for the multi-faceted types of screens active in Elsaesser's work, including the television set, video installation, the digital interface, the mobile phone display, and, of course, the hallowed silver screen of our contemporary film culture.
