Mind Of South Africa:

The Mind of South Africa Allister Sparks, 1990 A new interpretation of Afrikaner nationalism and apartheid and an analysis of the country's social economic and political problems      Politics Is about Relationship H. Saunders, 2005-12-22 In this straightforward exploration of core problems facing humanity Harold Saunders outlines how concerned citizens can bring about social and political change Using examples from the U S to South Africa Tajikistan to China this book is full of real stories of how building relationship among people can empower citizens outside government      The Mind of Africa Abraham, W.E., 2015-06-12 William Abraham studied Philosophy at the University of Ghana and even more Philosophy at Oxford University Thereafter he gained permission to take part in the competitive examination and interview for a fellowship at All Souls College The examination was once described with some exaggeration as the hardest exam in the world It included a three hour essay Following his success in becoming the first African fellow of All Souls his interest in African politics quickly developed into a Pan African perspective The Mind of Africa written while he was still at All Souls was a fruit of that enlarged perspective After several years as a Fellow he had occasion to visit Ghana in 1962 There Kwame Nkrumah then President of Ghana successfully persuaded him to return to Ghana to teach at the University of Ghana Legon and he subsequently resigned from All Souls In 1968 he went to the United States as a visiting professor This was followed by invitations to teach at various academic institutions there including Berkeley and Stanford He subsequently settled in California where he continued to teach and research philosophy in the University of California at Santa Cruz until his retirement The Mind of Africa appeared at a time when a number of African countries were obtaining or fighting for their political freedom from their colonial rulers and becoming independent nations and expecting to build new societies in accordance with their own visions and conceptions though not necessarily jettisoning all the features of their colonial heritage Building new societies requires appropriate ideologies and philosophies fashioned within the crucible of their cultural and historical experiences Thus the relation between ideology and society is taken up at the very outset of the book The Mind of Africa is important for Africa's future and identity      The Mind of Black Africa Dickson Mungazi, 1996-02-28 The violent colonization of Africa by European nations toward the end of the 19th century a colonization justified by theories about the African Mind promulgated in the Age of Reason had a profound impact upon the mind of Black Africa After World War II the mind of Black Africa rebelled this rebellion led to a struggle for the self After Africans achieved political independence the new African leaders betrayed their own people Africans now have the responsibility of restoring and reaffirming their true inheritance the mind of Black Africa      The Opening of the Apartheid Mind Heribert Adam, Kogila Moodley, 2023-12-22 Refusing to be governed by what is fashionable or inoffensive Heribert Adam and Kogila Moodley frankly address the passions and rationalities that drive politics in post apartheid South Africa They argue that the country's quest for democracy is widely misunderstood and that public opinion abroad relies on stereotypes of violent tribalism and false colonial analogies Adam and Moodley criticize the personality cult surrounding Nelson Mandela and the accolades accorded F W de Klerk They reject the black versus white conflict and substitute sober analysis and strategic pragmatism for the moral outrage that typifies so much writing about South Africa Believing that the best expression of solidarity emanates from sympathetic but candid criticism they pose challenging questions for the African National Congress and Nelson Mandela They give in depth coverage to political violence the ANC South African Communist Party alliance Inkatha and other controversial topics as well The authors do not propose a solution that will guarantee a genuinely democratic South Africa What they offer is an understanding of the country s social conditions and political constraints and they sketch options for both a new South Africa and a new post Cold War foreign policy for the whole of southern Africa The importance of this book is as immediate as today s headlines Refusing to be governed by what is fashionable or inoffensive Heribert Adam and Kogila Moodley frankly address the passions and rationalities that drive politics in post apartheid South Africa They argue that the country s quest for democracy is widely

Out of My Mind W. J. de Kock, 2014-03-25 We need a whole new mind to thrive in the twenty first century says Daniel Pink As theologians we cannot escape the transition from the information age to the conceptual age of the twenty first century In the information age the theologian could give answers based on the best information but in the twenty first century information is on hand Empathy and understanding however are in scant supply today In the information age there was no room for doubt certainty was the hallmark of a successful information worker But today uncertainty is a certainty thanks to globalization the information revolution and even quantum mechanics Uncertainty has been grafted into our collective consciousness It therefore cannot be theological business as usual It cannot be about giving answers it is more about finding the best questions to be answered It cannot be about winning theological arguments it is more about living in God's regenerative story while we find ourselves in the liminal space of uncertainty It cannot be about holding strong opinions it is more about creating space for life to allow God's generosity to flow through us Out of My Mind tells the story of such a transition
