Minetown Milltown Railtown Life In Canadian Communities Of A Single Industry:

Canadian History: Confederation to the present Martin Brook Taylor, Doug Owsram, 1994-01-01 In these two volumes which replace the Reader's Guide to Canadian History experts provide a select and critical guide to historical writing about pre and post Confederation Canada with an emphasis on the most recent scholarship Cover Capitalism and Colonialism: The Making of Modern Canada 1890-1960 Bryan D. Palmer, 2025-09-02 This second volume of Bryan Palmer's history of Canada covers 1890 to 1960 Weaving together themes that include business labour politics and social history this account brings the experiences of Indigenous peoples into the centre of the narrative Canada experienced extraordinary growth during these decades notably after the Second World War when many Canadians quickly became far better off Yet vast inequalities persisted Indigenous peoples experienced ongoing and often worsening deprivation and ordinary people saw little or no real improvement in their lives These realities set the stage for the interplay of reform resistance and reaction that followed after 1960 Palmer examines the continuing role of capitalism and colonialism in structuring Canada in the period between 1890 and 1960 from capital's conflicts and fragile ententes with labour to the struggles of Indigenous Peoples and francophone Canada and the changing role of Canadian capital internationally Relying on the work of scholars who have produced a vast academic literature on a wide range of topics in Canadian history Bryan Palmer offers a new history of Canada which reflects the knowledge and values of 21st century Canadians According to Baba Stacey Zembrzycki, 2014-03-05 As a child Stacey Zembrzycki listened to her baba's stories about Sudbury's small but polarized Ukrainian community and about what it was like growing up ethnic during the Depression According to Baba discloses with honesty and respect what happened when Stacey tried to capture the community's experiences through oral history research Baba looms large in the narrative wrestling authority in the interview process away from her granddaughter and then eventually coming to share it Together the two women lay the groundwork not only for an insightful and deeply personal social history of Sudbury's Ukrainian community but also for truly collaborative oral history research and writing

Encyclopedia of Social Networks George A. Barnett, 2011-09-07 This handbook systematically introduces readers to the key concepts substantive topics central methods and prime debates The Lights on the Tipple Are Going Out Thomas Langford, 2024-10-01 The Canadian postwar economic boom did not include one western coal mining region When the Canadian Pacific Railway switched to diesel power over 2 000 coal production jobs were lost in the Crowsnest Pass and Elk Valley The Lights on the Tipple Are Going Out tells the story of its fight for survival Underground mine closures began in 1950 prompting attempts by unions leftist parties municipal governments and business groups to save the local economy Efforts to reindustrialize in the mid 1960s brought unregulated growth unsafe working conditions and pollution Starting in 1968 new strip mines were built to produce metallurgical coal for Asia Pacific steelmakers Not only is this an interesting regional history but the consideration of the role of labour unions local communists and grassroots environmentalists makes it especially compelling Today with technological change in steel manufacturing on the horizon propelled by the climate crisis Langford argues that the Crowsnest Pass and Elk Valley must look toward ecosystem restoration sustainable economic activities and the inclusion of First Nations in decision making in order to embrace a future beyond coal

Challenge of Class Analysis Wallace Clement, 1988-10-15 Clement uses class analysis to explore the complexities of contemporary Canadian society in this revealing study He also explores the relationship between class and gender ethnicity and region comparing illustrations from Canada with those from countries such as Sweden and the U S An extensive review of material on class in Canada is provided

Workplace Democracy Donald V. Nightingale, 1982-12-15 This book begins with a historical review of how authority in the Canadian workplace has changed over the past century It proceeds to outline a theory of organization which provides a broad conceptual framework for the empirical analysis which follows This theory is based on five concepts the values of organizational members the administrative structure of the organization the interpersonal and intergroup processes the reactions and adjustments of organization members the social political economic and cultural environments of the organization A sample of 20 industrial organizations was selected to examine the effects of significant employee participation and to test the theory They are matched pairs ten permit some form of participation and ten similar in size location industry union non union status and work technology follow conventional hierarchical design The resulting data demonstrate that greater productivity results from employee participation in decisions relating to their work in productivity bonuses and in profit sharing and employee share ownership plans

Colonization and Community John Douglas Belshaw, 2002 Although immigrants from the United States China and elsewhere were part of the workforce brought in between 1850 and 1900 to man the mining industry of Vancouver Island the largest group of miners was born in Britain Belshaw philosophy history and politics U College of the Cariboo Canada explores the aspirations motivations and experiences of these British immigrants who formed the core of British Columbia s first industrial working class He attempts a holistic examination that details the group s demographic features its responses to day to day life under industrial capitalism and its cultural development and explores the lives of the miners their families and their communities Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Collaborative Resilience Bruce Evan Goldstein, 2012 Case studies and analyses investigate how collaborative response to crisis can enhance social ecological resilience and promote community reinvention

At the End of the Shift Matt Bray, Ashley Thomson, 1996-01-07 Mining has played a formative role in the history of Northern Ontario It has been one of the key generators of wealth in the area since the mid 19th century and is also responsible for much of the urban development of Ontario s northland The twelve papers published here came out of the second annual conference of Northern Ontario research and development held in 1990 The papers are grouped into four sections the early years the era of government intervention the present and finally the future and what can be done to maintain the communities

Canadian Natural Resource and Environmental Policy, 2nd edition, 2005 This expanded and updated edition of Canadian Natural Resource and Environmental Policy examines policy making in one of the most significant areas of activity in the Canadian economy natural resources and the environment It discusses the evolution of resource policies from the early era of exploitation to the present era of resource and environmental management including the Kyoto Protocol Using an integrated political economy and policy perspective the book provides an analytic framework through which ideological perspectives administrative structures and substantive issues are explored R sum de l diteur

Canadian Natural Resource and Environmental Policy, 2nd ed. Melody Hessing, Michael Howlett, Tracy Summerville, 2011-11-01 In this new and updated edition the authors once again examine policy making in one of the most significant areas of activity in the Canadian economy natural resources and the environment and discuss the evolution of resource policies from the early era of exploitation to the present era of resource and environmental management Using an integrated political economy and policy perspective the book provides an analytic framework from which the foundation of ideological perspectives administrative structures and substantive issues are explored Departing from traditional approaches that emphasize a single discipline or perspective it offers an interdisciplinary framework with which to think through ecological political economic and social issues It also provides a multi stage analysis of policy making from agenda setting through the evaluation process The integration of social science perspectives and the combination of theoretical and empirical work make this innovative book one of the most comprehensive analyses of Canadian natural resource and environmental policy to date Its illumination of the key elements of government policy making in this critical sector and its new outline of the evolution of the Kyoto Protocol makes it a useful textbook and resource for students of environmental and public policy policy makers and environmental organizations Social Transformation in Rural Canada John R.

Parkins, Maureen G. Reed, 2012-12-06 The rapidly changing nature of life in Canadian rural communities is more than a simple response to economic conditions People living in rural places are part of a new social agenda characterized by transformation of livelihoods landscapes and social relations these profound changes invite us to reconsider the meanings of community culture and citizenship Social Transformation in Rural Canada presents the work of researchers from a variety of fields who explore the dynamics of social transformation in rural settlements across several regions and sectors of the Canadian landscape This volume provides a nuanced portrait of how local forms of action adaptation identity and imagination are reshaping aboriginal and non aboriginal communities in rural Canada Unlike many previous studies this work looks at rural communities not simply as places affected by external forces but as incubators of change and social units with agency and purpose many of which provide exemplary models for other communities facing challenges of transition A Social Geography of Canada Guy M. Robinson, 1991-01-01 This collection of essays focus on subjects which formed the basis of his life s work the changing character of Canadian landscape and society and the urbanization of that society including aspects of its historical evolution its present spacial forms and current social issues Canada at a Crossroads Jeffrey

Denis, 2020-04-02 Winner of the John Porter Tradition of Excellence Book Award Canada at a Crossroads draws on group position theory settler colonial studies critical race theory and Indigenous theorizing Canada at a Crossroads emphasizes the social psychological barriers to transforming white settler ideologies and practices and working towards decolonization After tracing settlers sense of group superiority and entitlement to historical and ongoing colonial processes Denis illustrates how contemporary Indigenous and settler residents think about and relate to one another He highlights how despite often having close cross group relationships residents maintain conflicting perspectives on land culture history and treaties and Indigenous residents frequently experience interpersonal and systemic racism Denis then critically assesses the promise and pitfalls of commonly proposed solutions including intergroup contact education apologies and collective action and concludes that genuine reconciliation will require radically restructuring Canadian society and perpetually fulfilling treaty responsibilities

Changing Places Kerry Margaret Abel, 2006 Drawing from archival oral and newspaper sources Kerry Abel examines the process by which a relatively coherent community emerged in the sub region of northern Ontario bounded by Timmins Iroquois Falls and Matheson The Civil Sphere in Canada Jeffrey C. Alexander, Mervyn Horgan, 2025-05-15

When activists advocates victims of injustice and ordinary citizens seek to advance or block social justice and cohesion they draw on morally charged ideals But the wellsprings of solidarity in a society as diverse as Canada are complex and mutable The Civil Sphere in Canada analyzes the shifting meanings we attach to key social actors activities and institutions to reveal the dynamics of inclusion and exclusion that animate Canadian society Applying Jeffrey Alexander's groundbreaking civil sphere theory to Indigenous settler relations media scandals multiculturalism urban planning and personal relations contributors demonstrate that transformations in shared meaning must precede legislative and institutional change

Profoundly harmful behaviours such as cultural appropriation sexual misconduct and even genocide may pass as routine for years before the public decides they are unacceptable breaches of civil order This superb collection ushers Canadian voices into a burgeoning international debate about the role of the civil sphere in effecting social justice A Guide to the Study of Manitoba Local History Gerald Friesen, Barry Potyondi, 1981-01-01 Local history buffs students teachers and armchair historians will find a wealth of information and practical advice in this guide to the study of local history The authors explore some of the most fruitful areas of research in such themes as the environment population transportation and communication agriculture politics social and family life In five appendices they provide more detailed information for the determined researcher Specific advice is given on compiling a community archive or data base and on publishing a local history An extensive bibliography and a guide to local archives complete the book One Job Town Steven High, Green Gold

Patricia Marchak, 2011-11-01 A comprehensive analysis of the social political and economic role of forests as one of the principal single staple industries in British Columbia this book explores the history of forestry in the province legislation and governmental control labour unions community and industry structure employment conditions for men and women job security and boom or bust ideologies
