Nationalism and Internationalism in the Post-Cold War Era Kjell Goldmann, Ulf Hannerz, Charles Westin, 2012-12-06 The tension between nationalism and internationalism has been a major feature of world politics since the end of the Cold War Based on a Nobel symposium this collection brings together an international selection of acclaimed authors from a wide variety of academic disciplines The book combines focused case studies and more theoretically based material to examine critically the post Cold War political landscape Subjects covered include changing interpretation of the nation state and nationalism the growing prominence of transnational organisations technological changes in information communication and transport multiculturalism and citizenship ethnicity and religious identity in African Indian Bosnian and Polish nationalism the growing global significance of

Islam      Kurdistan: The Quest for Representation and Self-Determination Mr Lungthuiyang Riamei, 2017-08-15
 Kurdistan the name given to the Kurds historical homeland is a landlocked region that lies at the crossroads of Turkey Syria Iraq and Iran After the fall of Ottoman Empire the Kurdish people were promised independence by the treaty of Sevres in 1920 The Kurds are known as a nation without borders and consider as a stateless people Aftermath of the Arab Spring in 2010 Kurdistan has witnessed an increase in nationalism and a shift in geo politics The book examines the various models which could be acceptable solution to the Kurdish problem in West Asian region It also evaluates the role of the Kurdish diaspora placing Kurdish issue in the international forum The Kurdish Peshmerga and YPG militia maintains one of the strongest forces confronting against the ISIS in West Asian region      Policymaking and Democracy Stuart S. Nagel, 2003-01-01 Policymaking and Democracy is the first volume of a three volume set that examines the multi dimensional role of policy in the development and promotion of democracy prosperity and peace The democracy volume brings together international contributions on the policy challenges faced by national and multinational bodies to promote a democratic political culture and encourage the growth and development of civil society The work includes chapters on integration and representation within the European Union the expanding role of NGOs and IGOs international parliamentary organs the future of the nation state in a pluralistic world and the mportance of global consensus building      Self-Determination & Constitution Making in Nepal Surendra Bhandari, 2014-04-28 This book systematically analyzes why constitutions do not survive in Nepal despite sixty years of constitutional history The author discusses the epistemology of ethnic federalism in Nepal and examines the challenges of nation building and post nation constitutionalism The work addresses the connection between ethnic identity right to self determination constitution making and state restructuring offering possible ways forward for Nepal Chapters consider lessons to be drawn from the past and examine reasons for the abolition of monarchy in Nepal The book highlights the major problems that the first elected Constituent Assembly CA faced in promulgating a new constitution before it was dissolved in 2012 The concept of right to self determination and its complexities at the domestic level are all explored along with ways forward to address the problem of constitutionalism ethnic federalism and democracy The author offers solutions as to how the second CA could address problems to promulgate a new constitution The book elaborates on the role that constitutionalism plays in constitution making and the survival of a constitution Scholars of politics and international studies policy makers and those with an interest in law and constitution in Asia will all find this work of interest      Studies in Colonial Nationalism Richard Jebb, 1905 FROST copy 2 From the John Holmes Library collection      Rethinking International Relations Theory Martin Griffiths, 2011-03-02 International Relations IR theory has seen a proliferation of competing and increasingly trenchant worldviews with no consensus on how to evaluate their relative strengths and weakness This innovative new text provides an original interpretation of how best to navigate the clash of perspectives in contemporary IR theory The book provides a systematic overview of the main worldviews such as realism liberalism and constructivism and their associated theoretical underpinnings Placing liberal internationalism at the heart of the debate it argues that the main division in IR theory is between liberal internationalism and its critics Griffiths examines both the strengths and weaknesses of liberal internationalism as a worldview and also explores the competing worldviews that have been generated by the perceived flaws of this perspective Examination of crucial policy issues is incorporated throughout the text restoring the relevance of theory for those who wish to understand those policy issues Moreover this book revitalises the raison d'être of contemporary IR theory and shows the role it can play in making sense of the twenty first century

Self-Determination and Collective Responsibility in the Secessionist Struggle Costas

Laoutides,2016-03-03 The often violent emergence of new independent states following the end of the Cold War generated discussion about the normative grounds of territorial separatism A number of opposing approaches surfaced debating whether and under which circumstances there is a right for a community to secede from its host country Overwhelmingly these studies placed emphasis on the right to secession and neglected the moral stance of secessionist movements as agents in international relations In this book Costas Laoutides explores the collective moral agency involved in secessionist struggles offering a theoretical model for the collective responsibility of secessionist groups Case studies on the Kurds and the people of Moldova Transdniestria illustrate the author's theoretical arguments as he seeks to establish how although the principle of self determination was envisaged as a means of gradually bestowing political power upon the people it never managed to realize its full potential because it was interpreted strictly within a framework of exclusionary politics of identity

Peace Research Abstracts Journal ,2004 Anti-genocide Activists and the Responsibility to Protect Annette Jansen,2017-05-08

Although the Genocide Convention was already adopted by the UN General Assembly in 1948 it was only in the late 1990s that groups of activists emerged calling for military interventions to halt mass atrocities The question of who these anti genocide activists are and what motivates them to call for the use of violence to end violence is undoubtedly worthy of exploration Based on extensive field research Anti genocide Activists and the Responsibility to Protect analyses the ideological convictions that motivate two groups of anti genocide activists East Timor solidarity activists and Responsibility to Protect R2P advocates The book argues that there is an existential undercurrent to the call for mass atrocity interventions that mass atrocities shock the activists belief in a humanity that they hold to be sacred The book argues that the ensuing rise of anti genocide activism signals a shift in humanitarian sensibilities to human suffering and violence which may have substantial implications for moral judgements on human lives at peril in the humanitarian and human rights community This book provides a fascinating insight into the worldviews of activists which will be of interest to practitioners and researchers of human rights activism humanitarian advocacy and peace building

Ethnonationalism in the Contemporary World

Daniele Conversi,2003-08-29 In Ethnonationalism in the Contemporary World world renowned scholars employ various aspects of Connor's work to explicate the recent upsurge of nationalism on a global scale In keeping with the growing awareness that the study of ethnonationalism requires an interdisciplinary approach the contributors represent a number of academic disciplines including anthropology geography history linguistics social psychology sociology and world politics The book discusses issues such as identity ethnicity and nationalism primordialism social constructionism ethnic conflict separatism and federalism It also features case studies on the Basque country South Africa and Canada     Socio-Legal Struggles for Indigenous Self-Determination in Latin America Roger Merino,2021-05-16 This book is an interdisciplinary study of struggles for indigenous self determination and the recognition of indigenous territorial rights in Latin America Studies of indigenous peoples opposition to extractive industries have tended to focus on its economic political or social aspects as if these were discrete dimensions of the conflict In contrast this book offers a comprehensive and interdisciplinary understanding of the tensions between indigenous peoples territorial rights and the governance of extractive industries and related state developmental policies Analysing the contentious process pushed by indigenous peoples for implementing pluri nationality against extractive projects and pro extractive policies the book compares the struggle for territorial rights in Bolivia Ecuador and Peru Centrally it argues that indigenous territorial defenses against the extractive industries articulate a politics of self determination that challenges coloniality as the foundation of the nation state The resource governance of the nation state assumes that indigenous peoples must be integrated or assimilated within multicultural arrangements as ethnic minorities with proprietary entitlements so they can participate in the benefits of development As the struggle for indigenous self determination in Latin America maintains that indigenous peoples must not be considered as ethnic communities with property rights but as nations with territorial rights this book argues that it offers a radical re imagination of politics development and constitutional arrangements Drawing on detailed case studies this book s multidisciplinary account of indigenous movements in Latin America will appeal to those with relevant interests in politics law sociology and development studies     Jewish Self-Determination Beyond Zionism Jonathan Graubart,2023-03-04 Seeks to develop a new Jewish vision of dissent by reconceiving Jewish self determination to feature social justice inclusiveness internationalism and reconciliation with Palestinians synthesizing and adapting the ideas of Martin Buber and Hannah Arendt and putting them in dialogue with a range of contemporary Jewish and Palestinian critical perspectives     Populist Authoritarianism Wenfang Tang,2016-01-04 Populist Authoritarianism attempts to explain why protests and regime support coexist in China It proposes a theoretical framework of Populist Authoritarianism as the explanation of regime sustainability The book draws empirical evidence from multiple public opinion surveys conducted from 1987 to 2014     Nationalism and Ethnicity Terminologies Thomas Spira,1999     Minorities, Peoples And Self-determination Nazila Ghanea-Hercock,Alexandra Xanthaki,Patrick Thornberry,2005 This volume presents new thinking on minority and indigenous rights in international law Debates that receive attention in this volume include self determination definitional issues collective rights and rights to natural resources Other chapters unravel challenges that have not attracted sufficient attention to date such as multiculturalism integration

colour as a ground for discrimination and the economic and social rights of minorities The volume also looks critically at the work of the World Bank the African Union the Council of Europe and the OSCE in this arena Finally case studies highlight the regrettable similarities in the suffering of groups in different parts of the world as well as the stark contrast between state claims and their actual practice

Peoples and International Law James Summers, 2014-04-09 Peoples and International Law is a detailed survey of the law of self determination with a focus on the concept of nations and peoples It engages with different aspects of this law with particular emphasis on the drafting and implementation of international instruments The second edition includes new coverage of the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples and the African and Arab charters It considers recent practice by the Human Rights Committee Committee on Economic Social and Cultural Rights and African Commission on Human and Peoples Rights dealing with the emerging political economic and environmental aspects of the right The book looks at the interaction of international law nationalism and liberalism in theories of nationhood and self determination as well as the historical development of the right and the decisions of international bodies Lastly it examines practice in this area including new developments in remedial independence and international territorial administration Also available in hardback
