Nurses Wild:

The Student Nurse in the Diploma School of Nursing George Psathas, 2013-12-14 Emergency! Richard Yokley, Rozane Sutherland, 2007-05 The hit television show that helped revolutionize emergency medical care in the streets is still a favorite with fans all over the world When the show premiered in 1972 fire department paramedic services were being piloted in just a handful of cities By 1977 over 50% of the US population was within 10 minutes of a paramedic unit The paramedics of Fire Station 51 showed viewers critical techniques such as CPR that saved lives both on screen and off Emergency Behind the Scene contains real life tales from the production crew from medical and fire technical advisors cast members and writer to paramedics and fire fighters Learn more about Johnny Gage Roy DeSoto Dixie McCall and the rest of the Station 51 Rampart General Hospital staff If you are a fire fighter paramedic or simply a fan you will enjoy this in depth look behind the scenes The House of the Mother Cynthia R. Chapman, 2016-10-25 A novel approach to Israelite kinship arguing that maternal kinship bonds played key social economic and political roles for a son who aspired to inherit his father's household Upending traditional scholarship on patrilineal genealogy Cynthia Chapman draws on twenty years of research to uncover an underappreciated yet socially significant kinship unit in the Bible the house of the mother In households where a man had two or more wives siblings born to the same mother worked to promote and protect one another's interests Revealing the hierarchies of the maternal houses and political divisions within the national house of Israel this book provides us with a nuanced understanding of domestic and political life in ancient Israel Genocide Perspectives VI Nikki Marczak, Kirril Shields, 2020-12-21 Genocide Perspectives VI grapples with two core themes the personal toll of genocide and processes that facilitate the crime From political choices governments and leaders make through to denialism and impunity the crime of genocide recurs again and again across the globe At what cost to individuals and communities What might the legacy of this criminality be This collection of essays examines the personal sacrifice genocide takes from those who live through the trauma and the generations that follow Contributors speak to the way visual art and literature attempt to represent genocide hoping to make sense of problematic histories while also offering a means of reflection after years of slow violence or silenced memories Some authors generously allow us into their own histories or contemplate how they may have experienced genocide had they been born in another time or place What facets contribute to the processes that lead to or enable the crime of genocide This collection explores those processes through a variety of case studies and lenses How do nurses whose role is inherently linked to care and compassion become mass killers How do restrictions on religious freedom play a role in advancing genocidal policies and why do perpetrators of genocide often target religious leaders Why is it so important for Australia and other nations with histories of colonial genocide to acknowledge their past Among the essays published in this volume we have the privilege and the sorrow of publishing the very last essay Professor Colin Tatz wrote before his passing in 2019 His contribution reveals yet again the enormous influence of both his research and his original ideas on genocide He reflects on continuing legacies for Indigenous Australian communities with whom he worked for many decades and adds nuance to contemporary understanding of the Armenian Genocide and the Holocaust two other cases to which he was deeply committed

The Sales Pit Chris Mustakas,2025-04-21 There was a time when it felt like the best job in the world The energy of game nights The thrill of the deal The behind the scenes access and the ego stroking perks You felt like a somebody Hell you were a somebody Drinks after work suite nights with clients inside jokes in the sales pit This was the life It was the ultimate dream job Until it wasn t The Sales Pit is a raw unapologetic dive into the underbelly of professional sports sales before mental health mattered before burnout had a name and long before cancel culture called bullshit on toxic behaviour It was an era where bravado was currency vulnerability was weakness and the grind never stopped Toughness wasn't just expected it was required Silence was survival and speaking up could cost you everything This book rips the mask off toxic masculinity burnout culture and the silent suffering of men told to tough it out at any cost It's about the high of the hustle and the crash that inevitably follows The hidden toll of always being on and what's left when the act finally breaks you Nobody warned us about the exhaustion The pressures The fractured relationships and the slow erosion of one's self But what kept most of us going wasn't the titles or the commissions It was each other The late night beers the dark humour and most importantly the found family in the sales pit Because in the end it was never about the deals It was always about the people Real strength wasn't faking it until you made it it was standing together allowing yourself to be vulnerable speaking up and knowing you were not alone anymore Content Warning This book discusses topics related to men's mental health including depression anxiety dark thoughts and suicidal ideation Some readers may find these themes distressing or triggering If you are struggling please consider seeking support from a trusted friend family member or mental health professional

Practical Wildlife Care Les Stocker, 2013-05-06 Wildlife care and rehabilitation is often on a one to one basis and involves a lot of time care and skill However for many years care of injured wildlife was regarded as a low priority and euthanasia was the recommended option A lot has changed over the past twenty years and now caring for wildlife casualties is part of everyday life in many veterinary practices Following on from the major success of the first edition this second edition provides even more useful information on wildlife care and rehabilitation As well as covering a whole range of species with sections on birds mammals reptiles and amphibians this edition now includes information on many alien species appearing in the British countryside such as wallabies wild boar and exotic reptiles In this edition Essential guidance on handling first aid feeding and releasing and many other disciplines not featured in veterinary or nursing training Full of helpful tips from an expert in wildlife rehabilitation who has unparalleled practical experience Expanded chapters on the care of all species particularly casualty badgers otters and hedgehogs and more comprehensive guidance on rearing orphaned mammals and birds Lots more colour pictures to aid in management and care techniques and the latest information on zoonotic diseases from around the world

Cassell's household guide Cassell, Ltd, 1877 To Love, Honor and Obey Joan Cox, 2004-12 After her alcoholic and abusive husband leaves her and their three children in 1889 a woman defies societal conventions by embarking upon a career taking a lover and refusing to bend in the face of personal and professional conflict

Planning and decision-making in human-wildlife conflict and coexistence Silvio Marchini, Alexandra Zimmermann, Katia Maria P. M. B. Ferraz, Jenny Anne Glikman, 2023-03-27 Into the White Two Steps, 2023-07-14 The big silver bird was mortally stricken both engines were out and one was on fire Even the right windshield had been breached The large cranes had flown with multiple impacts all over the jet Inside the pilot was struggling for control in the buffeting winds cold and feathers The copilot was fighting the surging of cold air trying to plug the hole in the windshield with his winter coat

The manager of the six Asian girls was yelling instructions in Chinese to them They had to protect their heads and necks with inflated life preservers and their pillows and blankets for a crash landing was soon to take place They might have maybe three minutes before impact The pilot scanned the terrain Mountains were everywhere save the half bowl But one set of eyes up on the mountain saw it all and he prayed out loud for God to help them and him The American Journal of Nursing, 1928
