Clinical Ethics Consultation John-Stewart Gordon,2016-05-23 This volume brings together researchers from different

European countries and disciplines who are involved in Clinical Ethics Consultation CEC The work provides an analysis of the theories and methods underlying CEC as well a discussion of practical issues regarding the implementation and evaluation of CEC The first section deals with different possible approaches in CEC The authors explore the question of how we should decide complex cases in clinical ethics that is which ethical theory approach or method is most suitable in order to make an informed ethical decision It also discusses whether clinical ethicists should be ethicists by education or rather well trained facilitators with some ethical knowledge The second chapter of this book focuses on practical aspects of the implementation of CEC structures The analysis of experienced clinical ethicists refers to macro and micro levels in both developed and transitional countries Research on the evaluation of CEC is at the centre of the final chapter of this volume In this context conceptual as well as empirical challenges with respect to a sound approach to judgements about the quality of the work of CECs are described and suggestion for further research in this area are made In summary this volumes brings together theorists and healthcare practitioners with expertise in CEC In this respect the volume serves as good example for a multi and interdisciplinary approach to clinical ethics which combines philosophical reasoning and empirical research Special Care Units for People with Alzheimer's and Other Dementias ,1992 New Challenges in Communication with Cancer Patients Antonella Surbone,Matjaž Zwitter,Mirjana Rajer,Richard Stiefel,2012-08-23 The relationship between oncologists and their cancer patients is rapidly evolving Oncologists and other cancer professionals master new anticancer and supportive treatment options while working under increasing economic pressure and time constraints and are often unprepared to deal with all the challenges of their new position in a therapeutic relationship with cancer patients and families Good communication is as essential as are modern laboratory tests and sophisticated diagnostics to achieve the best clinical results This book updates the evolution of truth telling and communication patterns worldwide and offers insights into the recent trends and emerging challenges in communication with cancer patients and families New Challenges in Communication with Cancer Patients is an invaluable resource to medical professionals educators and patients in establishing a strong and effective partnership built on trust and mutual understanding Cumulated Index Medicus ,1987 Mutuality Roger Sanjek,2015 Why do people do social cultural anthropology Beyond professional career motivations what values underpin anthropologists commitments to lengthy training fieldwork writing and publication Mutuality explores the values that anthropologists bring from their wider social worlds including the value placed on relationships with the people they study work with write about and for and communicate with more broadly In this volume seventeen distinguished anthropologists draw on personal and professional histories to describe avenues to mutuality through collaborative fieldwork community based projects and consultations advocacy and museum exhibits including the American Anthropological Association s largest public outreach ever the RACE Are We So Different project Looking critically at obstacles to reciprocally beneficial engagement the contributors trace the discipline s past and current relations with Native Americans indigenous peoples exhibited in early twentieth century world's fairs and racialized populations. The chapters range widely across the Punjabi, craft, caste, Filipino, Igorot, and Somali Bantu global diasporas to the Darfur crisis and conciliation efforts in Sudan and Qatar to applied work in Panama, Micronesia, China, and Peru. In the United States, contributors discuss their work as academic, practicing, and public anthropologists in such diverse contexts as Alaskan Yup'ik communities, multiethnic New Mexico, San Francisco's Japan Town, Oakland's Intertribal Friendship House, Southern California's produce markets, a children's ward in a Los Angeles hospital, a New England nursing home, and Washington, D.C.'s National Mall. Deeply personal as well as professionally astute, Mutuality sheds new light on the issues closest to the present and future of contemporary anthropology.
