Object Of Literature:

The Object of Literature Pierre Macherey, 1995-03-16 At once a theoretical meditation of great originality and a historical work of scrupulous scholarship this new book by Pierre Macherey is his first dealing with literature and theory since his seminal A Theory of Literary Production Continuing the project of Althusserian theory Macherey engages in a series of close exegeses of classical texts in French literature and philosophy from the late eighteenth century down to the 1970s that explore the historically variable but thematically similar ways in which literary texts represent philosophical ideas Throughout the book Macherey shows the conceptual sophistication and broad intellectual influence that literary art has displayed in the modern period

Angel Walks Through the Stage and Other Essays Jon Fosse, 2015-09-25 Winner of the Nobel Prize in Literature for 2023 Jon Fosse said farewell to theory early in his career choosing poetry fiction and drama as his mediums of choice Here however in a selection from his two books of essays we see just how incisive a critic and memoirist he can be Not only including a generous portion of Fosse's writing on literature and theater including the irresistible Thomas Bernhard and His Grandfather this collection also includes such personal essays such as My Dear New Norwegian Old Houses and He Who Didn't Want to Become a Teacher

Objects of Liberty Pamela Buck, 2024-03-15

Objects of Liberty explores the prevalence of souvenirs in British women's writing during the French Revolution and Napoleonic era It argues that women writers employed the material and memorial object of the souvenir to circulate revolutionary ideas and engage in the masculine realm of political debate While souvenir collecting was a standard practice of privileged men on the eighteenth century Grand Tour women began to partake in this endeavor as political events in France heightened interest in travel to the Continent Looking at travel accounts by Helen Maria Williams Mary Wollstonecraft Catherine and Martha Wilmot Charlotte Eaton and Mary Shelley this study reveals how they used souvenirs to affect political thought in Britain and contribute to conversations about individual and national identity At a time when gendered beliefs precluded women from full citizenship they used souvenirs to redefine themselves as legitimate political actors Objects of Liberty is a story about the ways that women established political power and agency through material culture

Chinese Experimental Architecture Or French Poststructuralist Theory Ruo

Jia,2025-11-18 Chinese Experimental Architecture Or French Poststructuralist Theory Different Patches of the Concrete starts with a paradox how the Chinese Cultural Revolution through its adaptation by French Theory and French Theory s subsequent adaptation by Chinese Experimental Architecture shaped the Chinese reformative effort to redefine itself amidst its struggle against colonial dynamics and against the Cultural Revolution Through French Poststructuralist Theory the project creates a critical narrative to access the Chinese Experimental Architecture movement of the late 1990s and early 2000s and its legacy in contemporary Chinese architecture At the same time it provides in retrospect an opportunity to approach French Theory in its rich global materiality as a production of Chinese Experimental Architecture This study thus overcomes simplistic dichotomies of dominant and subjugated reductive labels of orientalism self orientalism and nationalism as well as architectural stylistic or operative canons It opens such borders and enclosed entities in a positive way exploring collaborative inquiries where new possibilities of different materialist architectural design and socio eco political epistemological structure emerge in a field of events encounters and connections around the probl matique and signifier of the concrete

Literary Revisionism and the Burden of Modernity Jean-Pierre Mileur,2023-11-10 Literary Revisionism places Bloom his ally Geoffrey Hartman and their contemporary literary situation in a borad historical and theoretical context by exploring the provenance of the revisionist stance in the origins of the New Testament canon in the works of the Sensibility Poets and the great Romantics and in the emergence of our own secular modernity The results is an uncanny sense of the wholeness of the tradition ironically coupled with an awareness that we are cut off from the past by the very insistence with which we employ criticism to maintain the fiction of an isolate modernity This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1985
