economic sector in many regions along the historic Silk Road This book will appeal to scholars of economics international relations and tourism decision makers managers chambers of commerce and entrepreneurs with special interests in establishing collaboration with the Chinese market Goeconomics in International Relations Christian Pfeiffer,2023-11-03 This book provides a comprehensive and systematic analysis of the concept of goeconomics in International Relations IR It offers an accessible overview of the most important approaches including their history means and ends methodology ideological underpinnings normative aspects and practical relevance Exploring the forgotten history of goeconomics and revealing its different meanings and usages over time the author clearly differentiates goeconomics from geopolitics on a conceptual level This thorough examination of contemporary conceptions identifies shortcomings in the current understanding of goeconomics and proposes a reconceptualization of the concept within a neoliberal framework increasing its empirical usefulness and analytical value By contrasting neoliberal goeconomics with neorealist goeconomics the book highlights the normative implications of both approaches providing policy analysts and makers with valuable insights into the topic This volume will be an important reference guide for understanding the concept of goeconomics and a must read for students and researchers of international relations international political economy economics and political science as well as professionals such as policymakers and politicians Seeing China's Belt and Road Edward Schatz,Rachel Silvey,2024-12-02 In Seeing China's Belt and Road editors Edward Schatz and Rachel Silvey assemble the ground level fieldwork of leading scholars to examine the Belt and Road Initiative BRI from different downstream contexts ranging from Central and Southeast Asia to Europe and Africa Crucially this book uncovers views of the BRI from Chinese authorities local businesses state bureaucrats expatriated migrants ordinary citizens and environmental activists Through these case studies the book offers a timely analysis of the dynamic complexity of changes in the world order Global Perspectives on China's Belt and Road Initiative Florian Schneider,2025-10-01 The year 2013 saw the launch of the largest most influential investment initiative in recent memory China's Belt and Road Initiative BRI This globe spanning strategy has reshaped local economies and regional networks and it has become a contested subject for scholars and practitioners alike How should we make sense of the complex interactions that the BRI has enabled Understanding these processes requires truly global perspectives alongside careful attention to the role that local actors play in giving shape to individual BRI projects The contributions in Global Perspectives on China's Belt and Road Initiative Asserting Agency through Regional Connectivity provide both big picture assessments of China's role in regional and global interactions and detailed case studies that home in on the role agency plays in BRI dynamics Written by leading area studies scholars with diverse disciplinary expertise this book reveals how Chinese efforts to recalibrate the world are taken up challenged revamped and reworked in diverse contexts around the world Scientific Methodology in Nineteenth Century Britain Charles H. Pence,2025-09-25 This collection of primary sources examines scientific methodology in Britain during the long nineteenth century The nineteenth century begins with what was still a largely Newtonian perspective on the nature of matter and the physical world Newtonian bodies moving through space guided by a collection of forces with gravity foremost among them By the end of the century physical science had refocused itself around the concept of energy the first moves toward the understanding of atomic structure had been undertaken and electricity and magnetism were understood in terms of fields of force This volume examines primary sources related to the philosophy of the physical sciences and will be of great interest to students of the history of philosophy and the history of science Eurocentrism, Art and Art Education David

Gall,2025-09-24 In this book David Gall exposes Eurocentrism in higher art education in philosophy and aesthetic theory in art history and art criticism and in K 12 teacher training discourse Gall s book challenges tendencies in academe that would have scholars stay within their lane meaning that Art Education professors like him should stick to K 12 teacher training concerns For the multiracial multiethnic hybrid context that characterizes our postcolonial world ignoring the ethnocentrism and racism of higher levels of art education is not optional if as a global community we are to overcome resurgent fascism and realize our more comprehensive humanity Though not the only obstacle to that end Eurocentrism remains its biggest This book examines Eurocentric legacies in modernist formalism in the linguistic turn of postmodernist discourse and argues that a different understanding of the aesthetics is needed the current dominant understanding of aesthetics perpetuates an art science polarization that mischaracterizes both art and science Streams of thought outside and within Euro Western philosophies offer alternative ways of viewing aesthetics and aesthetic experience This text hopefully will help make them mainstream Ethics of Contemporary Collecting Jen Kavanagh, Ellie Miles, Rosamund Lily West, Susanna

Cordner,2024-10-09 Ethics of Contemporary Collecting addresses pressing and pertinent issues around ethical contemporary collecting reflecting on how practices are evolving or in flux Across three sections each containing live sector subjects from the climate crisis to digital collecting to centring communities this book collates a combination of case studies and in depth chapters by leading practitioners working in the field These pieces are instructive and provide practical transferable examples of how people have approached these challenges It highlights examples of leading practice in the field and illustrates ethical approaches to contemporary collecting as work in this area progresses and our conversations about it advance To reflect this ongoing growth the book closes with an Activations section of discussion prompts intended to keep the conversations and progress on individual institutional and societal levels going Ethics of Contemporary Collecting is an indispensable tool for informing training and educating the next generation of curators and collection professionals and inspiring future collecting projects Pamphlets and Reprints Alfred Henry Lloyd,1900 Brazil and China in Knowledge and Policy Transfer Osmany Porto de Oliveira, Giulia C. Romano,2022-10-01 This book examines knowledge and policy transfer from the perspectives of Brazil and China It assesses how these two nations have emerged as providers of ideas and models that contribute to the global offer of public policies With a variety of case studies in areas such as health food security and infrastructure the volume offers new insights into the distinct levels through which knowledge and policy transfers take place including the local regional national and supranational It develops a multidimensional framework of analysis that considers the agents objects and mechanisms for knowledge and policy transfer as well as the structures and timings within which they operate Unlike previous studies on policy transfer which largely focus on North North and North South learning processes this book offers an innovative approach to this area of study By reflecting on the experiences of these two rising powers it provides fresh insights on the future of knowledge and policy transfer as global power dynamics shift This interdisciplinary study will appeal to students and scholars of policy transfer development studies international relations and public policy
