Objections to Humanism

Objections to Humanism is in all respects a companion volume to Objections to Christian Belief, which appears simultaneously in Pelicans. Here four prominent humanists take up the challenge of Philip Toynbee, who wrote in his review of Objections to Christian Belief: 'The next step . . . would be for a group of intellectual non-believers to write with equal harshness about the contradictions or inadequacies of their own beliefs.'

Blackham, Professor Ronald Hepburn, Kingsley Martin, Kathleen Nott. Edited by H.J. Blackham Harold John BLACKHAM,1963 Objections to Humanism [by] H. J. Blackham [and Others]. Harold John Blackham, Rethinking Race, Politics, and Poetics Brett St Louis,2007-12-12 This book assesses the oeuvre of Trinidadian activist intellectual C L R James in its entire polymath range analyzing his writings across disciplines and genres as well as his varied political and cultural concerns Phenomenology of the Object and Human Positioning Calley A. Hornbuckle,Jadwiga S. Smith,William S. Smith,2021-06-01 This edited volume explores the intersections of the human nonhuman transhuman and posthuman from a phenomenological perspective Representing perspectives from several disciplines these investigations take a closer look at the relationship between the phenomenology of life creative ontopoiesis and otherness technology and the human art and the question of humanity nonhumans animals and intentionality and transhumanism Ontological positioning of the human is reconsidered with regard to the nonhuman transhuman and posthuman within the cosmos Further examination of the artificial and object in the lifeworld is also explored This volume also pays tribute to Anna Teresa Tymieniecka and her methodical contributions to phenomenology This text appeals to students and researchers of phenomenology worldwide Teachers and the New Theology William Strawson,2017-06-29 If God is dead what s the good of keeping R E on the timetable Sir have you read this book about secular Christianity worship and prayer are finished aren t they Don t you think it would be better for our children to be taught morals instead of religion After all religious people don t seem to know what they believe nowadays and we don t bother with religion at home so why should children be forced into it at school Many people will recognize their own bewilderment in these questions In this confusing world of new theology teachers parents and scholars seem equally baffled The old guidelines have been rubbed out but no new ones seem to replace them The book tackles these problems from the point of view of a theologian who himself is deeply immersed in these issues and is looking for new light on these old questions which religion has always dealt with and which are as vital today as ever Its aim is to explain what the new theologians are saying and to show that beyond the initial skepticism about the old ideas there is the beginning of a new and hopeful attitude to religion which can be of the utmost value to contemporary life Book jacket Humanism and its Discontents Paul Jorion,2022-02-12 This book explains that while posthumanism rose in opposition to the biblical contention that Man was created in the image of God transhumanism ascertained the complementary view that Man has been assigned dominion over all creatures further exploring a path that had been opened up by the Enlightenment's notion of human perfectibility. It explains also how posthumanism and transhumanism relate to deconstruction theory and on a broader level to capitalism, libertarianism and the fight against human extinction which may involve trespassing the boundary of the skin, achieving individual immortality or dematerialization of the Self and colonisation of distant planets and stars. Two authors debate about truth and reason in today's world: the notion of personhood and the legacy of the Nietzschean Superhuman in the current varieties of anti-humanism. Humanism After Colonialism Claudia Alvares, 2006. This book is the result of a doctoral thesis defended at Goldsmith's College University of London.

Posthumanism in the Age of Humanism Edgar Landgraf, Gabriel Trop, Leif Weatherby, 2018-10-04. The literary and scientific renaissance that struck Germany around 1800 is usually taken to be the cradle of contemporary humanism. Posthumanism in the Age of Humanism shows how figures like Immanuel Kant and Johann Wolfgang Goethe as well as scientists specializing in the emerging modern life and cognitive sciences not only established but also transgressed the boundaries of the human. This period so broadly painted as humanist by proponents and detractors alike also grappled with ways of challenging some of humanism's most cherished assumptions: the dualisms for example between freedom and nature, science and art, matter and spirit, mind and body and thereby also between the human and the nonhuman. Posthumanism is older than we think and the so-called humanists of the late Enlightenment have much to offer our contemporary rethinking of the human. Karl Rahner's Theological Aesthetics Peter Joseph Fritz, 2014. Rahner's aesthetics: Rahner's sublime, Rahner and the spirit of the age, Rahner refounding theological language, Rahner's apocalypse. Antiquities Beyond Humanism Emanuela Bianchi, Sara Brill, Brooke Holmes, 2019-03-21. Greco-Roman antiquity is often presumed to provide the very paradigm of humanism from the Renaissance to the present. This paradigm has been increasingly challenged by new theoretical currents such as posthumanism and the new materialisms which point toward entities, forces and systems that pass through and beyond the human and dislodge it from its primacy as the measure of things. Antiquities beyond Humanism seeks to explode the presumed dichotomy between the ancient tradition and the twenty-first century turn by exploring the myriad ways in which Greek and Roman philosophy and literature can be understood as foregrounding the non-human. Greek philosophy in particular is filled with metaphysical explanations of the cosmos grounded in observations of the natural world while other areas of ancient humanistic inquiry: poetry, political theory, medicine extend into the realms of plant animal and even stone life continually throwing into question the ontological status of living and non living beings By casting the ancient non human or more than human in a new light in relation to contemporary questions of gender ecological networks and non human communities voice eros and the ethics and the politics of posthumanism the volume demonstrates that encounters with ancient texts experienced as both familiar and strange can help forge new understandings of life whether understood as physical psychical divine or cosmic

Posthumanism and Phenomenology Calley A.

Hornbuckle,Jadwiga S. Smith,William S. Smith,2022-11-24 This volume investigates the intersection of phenomenology and posthumanism by rethinking the human and nonhuman specifically with regard to boredom isolation loneliness and solitude By closely examining these concepts from phenomenological philosophical and literary perspectives this diverse collection of essays offers insights into the human and nonhuman in the absence of the Other and within the postapocalyptic Topics of interest include modalities of presence and absence with regard to body time beast and things the phenomenology of corporeity onto poiesis and the sublime alienation absurdity and phenomenology of existence memory posthistoricity posthuman nihilism and posthumanity speculative cosmology cosmic holism and consciousness ecophenomenology and the philosophy of the aesthetic These essays parse and probe distinct aspects of the posthuman condition and what it means to exist in a posthuman world thereby furthering the vast rich scope of phenomenological research and study This text appeals to students and researchers working in these topics and fields
