

Lessons learnt from animals

The remarkable skills that animals possess, which make them survive and thrive in the wild, offer great lessons for us. Animals have been our companions since time immemorial. The biological and ecological role of biodiversity is immense and indispensable to keep the natural balance. Apart from this, these creatures also have characteristics and symbolic meanings which provide essential lessons in life for us through observation and interaction.

Simply put, if you have a pet animal, such as cat, dog, parrot, etc., in your home, you might have observed certain traits in them that carry various lessons for us which are highlighted in this write up. Adopting and practicing those qualities in our daily life, it would certainly add up to our personality grooming.

Here are some of the traits and characteristics that some birds, animals and insects have which provide an opportunity of learning to all of us.

FOCUS

Watchfulness and observation are useful skills

Be watchful and focused

Many birds and animals are very watchful and good observers like monkeys, crows, dolphins, eagles, kites, etc. They are very curious but cautious too, so they scan situations and act accordingly, moving closer or away, as the situation demands.

Eagles and kites have very sharp vision which allows them to find their prey on ground even when they are
