St. Nicholas ,1905 How to Study Pictures by Means of a Series of Comparisons of Paintings and Painters from Cimabue to Monet Charles Henry Caffin,1906 Manual Work and Mental Work Christoph Strosetzki,2023-03-10 Information Text In the early modern period numerous texts deal with professions by presenting the knowledge required in each case individual fields of activity purpose origin and prestige The course of argumentation is humanistic insofar as it mostly starts from the human being The ancient idea of the primacy of mental work over manual work is formative here The importance of Spain results from the fact that the Spanish king Charles V was both emperor and ruler of the colonies in America i e he ruled a world empire by the standards of the time After discussing some central categories overall representations of knowledge professions and prominent professional representatives are presented Here the hierarchization and its relativization by satire is revealing The mechanical arts and the artes liberales are then presented on the basis of individual professions selected as characteristic examples each with its own specific knowledge The higher faculties of medicine theology and jurisprudence with their representatives form the conclusion How to Study the Old Masters by Means of a Series of Comparisons of Paintings and Painters from Cimabue to Lorrain Charles Henry Caffin, 1914 Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
