Pioneer Catholic Victoria Walter A. Ebsworth, 1973-01-01     Imperial spaces Lindsay Proudfoot, Dianne Hall, 2013-07-19 Imperial spaces takes two of the most influential minority groups of white settlers in the British Empire the Irish and the Scots and explores how they imagined themselves within the landscapes of its farthest reaches the Australian colonies of Victoria and New South Wales Using letters and diaries as well as records of collective activities such as committee meetings parades and dinners the book examines how the Irish and Scots built new identities as settlers in the unknown spaces of Empire Utilizing critical geographical theories of place as the site of memory and agency it considers how Irish and Scots settlers grounded their sense of belonging in the imagined landscapes of south east Australia Imperial spaces is relevant to academics and students interested in the history and geography of the British Empire Australia Ireland and Scotland

From the Ruins of Colonialism Chris Healy, 1997-03-27 This book throws fresh light on the history of memory forgetting and colonialism It considers key moments of historical imagination and analyses the strange ensemble of elements that constitute Australian History It is an innovative and stimulating investigation of historical cultures and narratives

Pioneer Women in Victoria's Reign Edwin A. Pratt, 1897 These essays represent the writings of some of Victorian England's most prominent women including Drs Elizabeth Blackwell Sophia Jex Blake and Florence Nightingale They cover topics ranging from poor law reform to employment for women     Pioneer Churches of Vancouver Island and the Salish Sea Liz Bryan, 2020-06-23 A concise full colour visitor's guide to dozens of historical churches scattered throughout Vancouver Island from humble country chapels to soaring urban cathedrals For many European settlers who arrived on Vancouver Island in the late nineteenth century building a church was as important as establishing a homestead or erecting a school The church was the heart of the community Today although demographics have shifted and church attendance has waned many of those early structures are still standing Pioneer Churches of Vancouver Island and the Salish Sea features more than forty surviving churches whose construction dates back to the 1800s It explores the architecture the local history of the area and the stories of the builders worshippers clergy members those who are buried in the adjoining graveyards Divided into geographical sections Victoria Esquimalt and the Saanich Peninsula the Cowichan Valley Salt Spring Island Central Vancouver Island and the North Island this book is a beautifully photographed easy to follow guide for anyone interested in exploring these architectural treasures and learning more about the history surrounding them

Oceans of Consolation David Fitzpatrick, 2019-06-30 An ocean of consolation was what one young Irish emigrant in rural Australia called a letter from his father in County Clare in 1855 Similar strength of feeling is often found in the intriguing letters that David Fitzpatrick has unearthed for this extraordinary collection Oceans of Consolation offers historians and family researchers novel and sophisticated ways of reading old letters It opens to us the daily preoccupations of ordinary women and men with little education and fewer material possessions as they try to overcome the separation from family and friends created by emigration Fitzpatrick includes the personal correspondence of fourteen families of Irish emigrants in the Australian colonies giving equal attention to letters to and from Australia He reproduces in full more than one hundred letters dating from 1843 to 1906 and includes a generous selection of contemporary engravings and photographs Fitzpatrick s detailed commentaries offer biographical narratives for all of these emigrants tracing their Irish backgrounds and Australian careers Parting company with editors of comparable collections he pays special attention to the words and idiom by which letterwriters expressed their everyday concerns and sought or offered reassurance and advice He believes that personal letters provide not only unique evidence of the hopes and fears of emigrants but also an important avenue for exploring popular Irish culture

Loreto in Australia Mary Ryllis Clark,2009 When a small group of Irish nuns arrived in Ballarat in 1875 who could have imagined the influence they would have on Catholic education in Australia Since then Loreto nuns have not only founded their own schools but run parish schools worked in indigenous communities taught in universities and held prominent positions in public life South Melbourne Susan Priestley,2013-04-01 South Melbourne is a state of mind Once you live there you don t want to shift Doris Condon South Melbourne resident from 1942 until her death in 1979 Mayor 1969 to 1970 The first of Melbourne s suburbs to adopt full municipal status South Melbourne has also been at the forefront of many of the forces that have shaped both the local and national landscapes Having seen its Aboriginal inhabitants displaced by European settlers what became of one of Melbourne s first industrial suburbs then underwent a shift from manufacturing to commercial industry after the Second World War before experiencing the recent push for inner city heritage conservation and urban renewal South Melbourne s people have participated in the national dramas of immigration federation booms busts and world war Not surprisingly in a suburb that boasts some of Melbourne s most popular beaches and sporting grounds the residents have contributed significantly to the national passions for beach culture and sport producing cricket heroes football legends and playing host most controversially to motor racing As the home of the National Gallery of Victoria the Victorian Arts Centre and other cultural institutions South Melbourne has a unique place in Australia s cultural life Part of an amalgamated City of Port Phillip since June 1994 the suburb now looks to draw strength from what Jessie Kennelly long time resident and widow of Senator Pat Kennelly calls it good past Ned Kelly John Neylon Molony,2001 The Kelly clan had hoped for a better lot in Australia than in Ireland In the new colony however they found themselves once again destined to lives of poverty rejection and powerlessness With their dream of dignity freedom and land denied them some succumbed others rebelled Since his death in the old Melbourne Gaol on 11 November 1880 Ned Kelly has become a part of the land and its memories In this evocative imaginative recreation of the Kelly story John Molony unravels the tangled skein of a life over which legend has cast a spell Eureka John Molony,2013-05-24 Before dawn on 3 December 1854 colonial troopers at Ballarat attacked a group of gold miners who had thrown up a stockade in defiance and defence Some diggers had guns but many were unarmed some twenty of them were killed along with four troopers In the decades that followed the truth of what happened that morning became obscured by partisans on both sides For many years the Eureka Stockade was regarded as a shameful event and almost forgotten more recently it has been celebrated as a righteous stand against injustice John Molony's Eureka vividly recreates the story of Eureka and unravels the myths that have come to surround it This new edition of Molony's classic work now beautifully illustrated with historic Eureka images will be welcomed by everyone with an interest in the history of Australian democracy

Ireland and Irish-Australia Oliver MacDonagh, W. F. Mandle, 2024-09-02 The Irish contribution to Australian history goes both deep and wide Originally published in 1986 the essays in this collection contribute both to the understanding of Ireland's place in Australian history and to the interpretation of the Irish scene in the nineteenth century Ranging from law to W B Yeats and from monumental sculpture to violence and crime the papers reflect the diversity of the Irish Australian experience and the persistence of a distinctively Irish culture even when transported across the world

Croatians in Australia Ilija Šutalo, 2004 Ilija Sutalo has given us a detailed and fascinating insight into Croatian settlers from the 1800s to the present the likes of which has never before been attempted Yet Croatians have been here for 150 years and by the 1930s were well organised and conscious of their heritage A people without whom Australia could not have developed and grown

Victorian History and Politics Joanna Monie, 1982

Architecture of Devotion Jaynie Anderson, Max Vodola, Shane Carmody, 2021-11-30 The Architecture of Devotion James Goold and His Legacies in Colonial Melbourne honours the life and cultural contribution of Archbishop James Alipius Goold 1812 1886 Goold arrived in 1848 as the first Catholic bishop of the newly created diocese of Melbourne and quickly adapted to Australian colonial conditions setting about establishing an extraordinary network of schools churches and welfare institutions across Victoria Beyond the immediate task of building bluestone bricks and mortar Goold carried a grand vision sensing that Melbourne was on its way to becoming a grand international metropolis A collector and man of refined taste Goold not only adorned religious institutions with quality Baroque artwork but he also amassed a unique book collection and private library that showcased his European cultural sensibilities A companion to The Invention of Melbourne A Baroque Archbishop and a Gothic Architect 2019 The Architecture of Devotion brings Goold to life as we follow him around the colony and witness how he shaped the fabric of Victorian suburbs and towns These volumes have been supported by the Australian Research Council which has recognised them as among the best research projects in Australia The Invention of Melbourne was commended in the Victorian Community History Award History Publication Award 2020

The Enterprising Life of Dr Henry Backhaus Malachy John Nolan, 2008 The life of Rev Dr Henry Backhaus 1812 1882 Pioneer Priest in Bendigo Provided by publisher

Australian National Bibliography, 1978

The Australian People James Jupp, 2001-10 Australia is one of the most ethnically diverse societies in the world today From its ancient indigenous origins to British colonisation followed by waves of European then international migration in the twentieth century the island continent is home to people from all over the globe Each new wave of settlers has had a profound impact on Australian society and culture The Australian People documents the dramatic history of Australian settlement and describes the rich ethnic and cultural inheritance of the nation through the contributions of its people It is one of the largest reference works of its kind with approximately 250 expert contributors and almost one million words Illustrated in colour and black and white the book is both a comprehensive encyclopedia and a survey of the controversial debates about citizenship and multiculturalism now that Australia has attained the centenary of its federation Brother P.A. Treacy and the Christian Brothers in Australia and New Zealand Kenneth K. O'Donoghue,1983

A World Turned Upside Down Kerry Cardell,Cliff Cumming,2001

Queen Victoria Michael Ledger-Lomas,2021-04-08

This biography evokes the pervasive importance of religion to Queen Victoria s life but also that life s centrality to the religion of Victorians around the globe The first comprehensive exploration of Victoria s religiosity it shows how moments in her life from her accession to her marriage and her successive bereavements enlarged how she defined and lived her faith It portrays a woman who had simple convictions but a complex identity that suited her multinational Kingdom a determined Anglican who preferred Presbyterian Scotland an ardent Protestant who revered her husband s Lutheran homeland but became sympathetic towards Roman Catholicism and Islam a moralizing believer in the religion of the home who scorned Sabbatarianism Drawing on a systematic reading of her journals and a rich selection of manuscripts from British and German archives Michael Ledger Lomas sheds new light not just on Victoria s private beliefs but also on her activity as a monarch who wielded her powers energetically in questions of church and state Unlike a conventional biography this book interweaves its account of Victoria s life with a panoramic survey of what religious communities made of it It shows how different churches and world religions expressed an emotional identification with their Queen and Empress turning her into an embodiment of their different and often rival conceptions of what her Empire ought to be The result is a fresh vision of a familiar life which also explains why monarchy and religion remained close allies in the nineteenth century British world
