Pioneer Pottery Michael Cardew, 1971 Pioneer Pottery Michael Cardew, 1977 Global Clay John A. Burrison, 2017-12-04 For over 25 000 years humans across the globe have shaped decorated and fired clay Despite great differences in location and time universal themes appear in the world s ceramic traditions including religious influences human and animal representations and mortuary pottery In Global Clay Themes in World Ceramic Traditions noted pottery scholar John A Burrison explores the recurring artistic themes that tie humanity together explaining how and why those themes appear again and again in worldwide ceramic traditions The book is richly illustrated with over 200 full color cross cultural illustrations of ceramics from prehistory to the present Providing an introduction to different styles of folk pottery extensive suggestions for further reading and reflections on the future of traditional pottery around the world Global Clay is sure to become a classic for all who love art and pottery and all who are intrigued by the human commonalities revealed through art Marks of American Potters Edwin Atlee Barber, 1904 The Hohokam Emil W. Haury, 2016-10-18 For a calculated 1 400 years Snaketown was a viable village but unlike so many tells in the Near East the people remained the same while their culture changed The smoothly graded typological sequences for most attributes suggest to me that the ethnic identity of the inhabitants was not interrupted that they were one and the same people experiencing normal internal evolutionary cultural modifications with occasional boosts of features and ideas newly arrived from the outside Emil W Haury

Historical Archaeology Through a Western Lens Mark S. Warner, Margaret Sermons Purser, 2017 A 2017 Choice Outstanding Academic Title The mythic American West with its perilous frontiers big skies and vast resources is frequently perceived as unchanging and timeless The work of many western based historical archaeologists over the past decade however has revealed narratives that often sharply challenge that timelessness Historical Archaeology Through a Western Lens reveals an archaeological past that is distinct to the region but not in ways that popular imagination might suggest Instead this volume highlights a western past characterized by rapid and ever changing interactions between diverse groups of people across a wide range of environmental and economic situations The dynamic and unpredictable lives of western communities have prompted a constant challenging and reimagining of both individual identities and collective understandings of their position within a broader national experience Indeed the archaeological West is one clearly characterized by mobility rather than stasis The archaeologies presented in this volume explore the impact of that pervasive human mobility on the West a world of transience impermanence seasonal migration and accelerated trade and technology at scales ranging from the local to the global By documenting the challenges of both local community building and global networking they provide an archaeology of the West that is ultimately from the West Crockery and Glass Journal , 1913 Brick , 1894 Engineering Experiment Station Series University of Washington.
