Pioneer Tobacco Merchant In The Orient:

A Pioneer Tobacco Merchant in the Orient James A. Thomas, 1928 A Pioneer Tobacco Merchant in the Orient James A. Thomas, 1928 Chinese Business Enterprise Rajeswary Ampalavanar Brown, 1996 Cigarettes, Inc. Nan Enstad, 2018-12-10 Traditional narratives of capitalist change often rely on the myth of the willful entrepreneur from the global North who transforms the economy and delivers modernity for good or ill to the rest of the world With Cigarettes Inc Nan Enstad upends this story revealing the myriad cross cultural encounters that produced corporate life before World War II In this startling account of innovation and expansion Enstad uncovers a corporate network rooted in Jim Crow segregation that stretched between the United States and China and beyond Cigarettes Inc teems with a global cast from Egyptian American and Chinese entrepreneurs to a multiracial set of farmers merchants factory workers marketers and even baseball players jazz musicians and sex workers Through their stories Cigarettes Inc accounts for the cigarette s spectacular rise in popularity and in the process offers nothing less than a sweeping reinterpretation of corporate power itself Big Business in China Sherman Cochran, 1980 This is the first major study in Chinese business history based largely on business s own records It focuses on the battle for the cigarette market in early twentieth century China between the British American Tobacco Company based in New York and London and its leading Chinese rival Nanyang Brothers Tobacco Company whose headquarters were in Hong Kong and Shanghai From its founding in 1902 the British American Tobacco Company maintained a lucrative monopoly of the market until 1915 when Nanyang entered China and extended tis operations into the country s major markets despite the use of aggressive tactics against it Both companies grew rapidly during the 1920s and competition between them reached its peak but by 1930 Nanyang weakened bringing an end to serious commercial rivalry Though less competitive both companies continued to trade in China until their Sino foreign rivalry ended altogether with the founding of the People s Republic in 1949 Debate over international commercial rivalries has often been conducted broadly in terms of imperialist exploitation and economic nationalism This study shows the usefulness and limitations of these terms for historical purposes and contributes to the separate but related debate over the significance of entrepreneurial innovation in Chinese economic history By analyzing the foreign Chinese companies business practices and by describing their involvement in diplomatic incidents boycotts strikes student protests relations with peasant tobacco growers dealings with the Kuomintang and Chinese Communist Party and a host of other activities the author brings to light the roles that big businesses played not only in China s economy but also in its politics society and foreign affairs The Publishers Weekly ,1929 The Launching of Duke University, 1924-1949 Robert Franklin Durden, 1993 In this rich and authoritative history distinguished historian Robert F Durden tells the story of the formation of Duke University beginning with its creation in 1924 as a new institution organized around Trinity College As Durden reveals this narrative belongs first and foremost to Duke University s original President William Preston Few whose visionary leadership successfully launched the building of the first voluntarily supported research university in the South In focusing on Duke University s most formative and critical years its first quarter century Durden commemorates Few s remarkable successes while recognizing the painful realities and uncertainties of a young institution Made possible by a gift from James B Duke the wealthiest member of the family that had underwritten Trinity College since 1890 Duke University was organized with Few as president Few s goal was to turn Duke into a world class institution of higher education and these early years saw the development of much of what we know as Duke University today Drawing on extensive archival material culled over a ten year period Durden discusses the building of the Medical Center the rebuilding of the School of Law the acquisition of the Duke Forest and development of the School of Forestry the nurturing of the Divinity School and the enrichment of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences It was also during this period as Durden details that such treasures as the Sarah P Duke Gardens were created as well as some near treasures as seen by the failed attempt to start an art museum Although the story of the birth of this University belongs largely to William Preston Few other people figure prominently and are discussed at length Alice Baldwin who led in the establishment of the Woman s College emerges as a fascinating figure as do William H Wannamaker James B Duke William Hanes Ackland Robert L Flowers Justin Miller and Wilburt Cornell Davison among others Although impressive growth occurred in Duke s formative years tensions also arose The need to strike an institutional balance between the twin demands of teaching and research of regional versus national status combined with continual shortages of funds created occasional obstacles The problem of two sets of trustees one for the university and another for the Duke Endowment loomed largest of all As Few himself said during these early years Duke successfully embarked on a long journey for it was not until after World War II that Duke University consolidated the growth begun in the inter war years An important contribution to the history of Southern higher education as well as to Duke University this book will be of great interest to historians alumni and friends of Duke University alike Palmers' Index to the Times Newspaper ,1929 Bandits in Republican China Phil Billingsley,1988 A study of banditry in Republican China describing the cycles whereby banditry spread from the impoverished margins geographically and socially of late Qing society into entire provinces by the 1920s The Cambridge History of America and the World: Volume 3, 1900-1945 Brooke L. Blower,Andrew Preston,2022-03-03 The third volume of The Cambridge History of America and the World covers the volatile period between 1900 and 1945 when the United States emerged as a world power and American engagements abroad flourished in new and consequential ways Showcasing the most innovative approaches to both traditional topics and emerging themes leading scholars chart the complex ways in which Americans projected their growing influence across the globe how others interpreted and constrained those efforts how Americans disagreed with each other often fiercely about foreign relations and how race religion gender and other factors shaped their worldviews During the early twentieth century accelerating forces of global interdependence presented Americans like others with a set of urgent challenges from managing borders humanitarian crises economic depression and modern warfare to confronting the radical new political movements of communism fascism and anticolonial nationalism This volume will set the standard for new understandings of this pivotal moment in the history of America and the world Korea's Occupied Cinemas, 1893-1948 Brian Yecies,Ae-Gyung Shim,2012-05-23 Korea s Occupied Cinemas 1893 1948 compares and contrasts the development of cinema in Korea during the Japanese occupation 1910 1945 and US Army Military 1945 1948 periods within the larger context of cinemas in occupied territories It differs from previous studies by drawing links between the arrival in Korea of modern technology and ideas and the cultural political and social environment as it follows the development of exhibition film policy and filmmaking from 1893 to 1948 During this time Korean filmmakers seized every opportunity to learn production techniques and practice their skills contributing to the growth of a national cinema despite the conditions produced by their occupation by colonial and military powers At the same time Korea served as an important territory for the global expansion of the American and Japanese film industries and after the late 1930s Koreans functioned as key figures in the co production of propaganda films that were designed to glorify loyalty to the Japanese Empire For these reasons and as a result of the tensions created by divided loyalties the history of cinema in Korea is a far more dynamic story than simply that of a national cinema struggling to develop its own narrative content and aesthetics under colonial conditions Tobacco in Global Perspective, 1780-1960 Alexander van Wickeren,Jean Stubbs,William Gervase Clarence-Smith,2024-12-24 This edited collection provides an in depth analysis of the imperial colonial and postcolonial history of tobacco from 1780 to 1960 which was one of the major periods of change in the global tobacco economy It brings together case studies from known and lesser known tobacco regions of the world to interrogate tobacco s second globalisation a concept little employed by historians thus far but one which encapsulates tobacco s central role in Europe s imperial expansion beyond the Atlantic and the social political and cultural transformations of global capitalism taking place during the period The collection fills a gap in the study of commodities of empire which has examined tobacco primarily for the early modern Atlantic world or for single empires during the later period It invites comparison across borders encompassing political economic and sociocultural history and with a particular emphasis on trade knowledge and labour juxtaposes micro histories with a macro historical perspective Together the studies in the volume testify to the importance of tobacco in new places and among new players challenging the confines of national and imperial historiographical frameworks They demonstrate the rising dominance of new powerful forces including transnational corporations but also a wide range of actors in conflict and negotiation within territorial and imperial confines By systematically taking into account the agency in Europe s apparent peripheries and the Global South they critique a simple assumption of the dominance of the West Chapter 11 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link springer.com Saturday Review of Literature ,1928 The China Weekly Review ,1928 Catalog of Copyright Entries.
