Pioneering in Penology Thorsten Sellin, 1946 Pioneering in Penology Marvin E. Wolfgang, Thorsten Sellin, 2016-11-11 No detailed description available for Pioneering in Penology Pioneering in Penology J. Thorsten Sellin, 1944 Prosecution and Punishment Robert B. Shoemaker, 1991-08-30 This book offers an assessment of the social significance of the law in pre industrial England S. Ilse, 1998 The Embarrassment of Riches Simon Schama, 1988 In a brilliantly inventive work bestselling author Simon Schama explores the enigma of 17th century Holland a nation that attained an unprecedented level of affluence yet lived in constant dread of being corrupted by prosperity Drawing on a vast array of period documents and sumptuously reproduced art THE EMBARRASSMENT OF RICHES throbs with life on every page 314 photos illustrations Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved The Prison Before the Panopticon Jacob Abolafia, 2024-07-09 A groundbreaking history of philosophy and punishment The Prison before the Panopticon traces the influence of ancient political philosophy on the modern institution of the prison showing how prevailing theories of carceral rehabilitation and common justifications for the denial of liberty developed in classical and early modern thought Spaces of Modernity Miles Ogborn, 1998-07-11 From the civility of Westminster's newly paved streets to the dangerous pleasures of Vauxhall Gardens and the grand designs of the Universal Register Office this book examines the identities practices and power relations of the modern city as they emerged within and transformed the geographies of eighteenth century London Ogborn draws upon a wide variety of textual and visual sources to illuminate processes of commodification individualization state formation and the transformation of the public sphere within the new spaces of the metropolis Beyond These Walls Tony Platt, 2019-01-08 You should definitely read this book What really struck me in reading Beyond These Walls was that Tony Platt had very seriously and carefully considered the contributions of social movements feminist queer disability and labor Angela Davis Beyond These Walls is an ambitious and far ranging exploration that tracks the legacy of crime and imprisonment in the United States from the historical roots of the American criminal justice system to our modern state of over incarceration and offers a bold vision for a new future Author Tony Platt a recognized authority in the field of criminal justice challenges the way we think about how and why millions of people are tracked arrested incarcerated catalogued and regulated in the United States Beyond These Walls traces the disturbing history of punishment and social control revealing how the criminal justice system attempts to enforce and justify inequalities associated with class race gender and sexuality Prisons and police departments are central to this process but other institutions from immigration and welfare to educational and public health agencies are equally complicit Platt argues that international and national politics shape perceptions of danger and determine the policies of local criminal justice agencies while private policing and global corporations are deeply and undemocratically involved in the business of homeland security Finally Beyond These Walls demonstrates why efforts to reform criminal justice agencies have often expanded rather than contracted the net of social control Drawing upon a long tradition of popular resistance Platt concludes with a strategic vision of what it will take to achieve justice for all in this era of authoritarian disorder      The Birth of the Penitentiary in Latin America Ricardo D. Salvatore, Carlos Aguirre, 2010-07-05

Opening a new area in Latin American studies The Birth of the Penitentiary in Latin America showcases the most recent historical outlooks on prison reform and criminology in the Latin American context The essays in this collection shed new light on the discourse and practice of prison reform the interpretive shifts induced by the spread of criminological science and the links between them and competing discourses about class race nation and gender The book shows how the seemingly clear redemptive purpose of the penitentiary project was eventually contradicted by conflicting views about imprisonment the pervasiveness of traditional forms of repression and control and resistance from the lower classes The essays are unified by their attempt to view the penitentiary as well as the variety of representations conveyed by the different reform movements favoring its adoption as an interpretive moment revealing of the ideology class fractures and contradictory nature of modernity in Latin America As such the book should be of interest not only to scholars concerned with criminal justice history but also to a wide range of readers interested in modernization social identities and the discursive articulation of social conflict The collection also offers an up to date sampling of new historical approaches to the study of criminal justice history illuminates crucial aspects of the Latin American modernization process and contrasts the Latin American cases with the better known European and North American experiences with prison reform      Punishment and Power in the Making of Modern Japan Daniel V. Botsman, 2013-10-24

The kinds of punishment used in a society have long been considered an important criterion in judging whether a society is civilized or barbaric advanced or backward modern or premodern Focusing on Japan and the dramatic revolution in punishments that occurred after the Meiji Restoration Daniel Botsman asks how such distinctions have affected our understanding of the past and contributed in turn to the proliferation of new kinds of barbarity in the modern world While there is no denying the ferocity of many of the penal practices in use during the Tokugawa period 1600 1868 this book begins by showing that these formed part of a sophisticated system of order that did have its limits Botsman then demonstrates that although significant innovations occurred later in the period they did not fit smoothly into the modernization process Instead he argues the Western powers forced a break with the past by using the specter of Oriental barbarism to justify their own aggressive expansion into East Asia The ensuing changes were not simply imposed from outside however The Meiji regime soon realized that the modern prison could serve not only as a symbol of Japan's international progress but also as a powerful domestic tool The first English language study of the history of punishment in Japan the book concludes by examining how modern ideas about progress and civilization shaped penal practices in Japan's own colonial empire      The Oxford Handbook of Criminal Law Markus D Dubber, Tatjana

Hörnle, 2014-11-27 The Oxford Handbook of Criminal Law reflects the continued transformation of criminal law into a global discipline providing scholars with a comprehensive international resource a common point of entry into cutting edge contemporary research and a snapshot of the state and scope of the field To this end the Handbook takes a broad approach to its subject matter disciplinarily geographically and systematically Its contributors include current and future research leaders representing a variety of legal systems methodologies areas of expertise and research agendas The Handbook is divided into four parts Approaches Methods I Systems Methods II Aspects Issues III and Contexts Comparisons IV Part I includes essays exploring various methodological approaches to criminal law such as criminology feminist studies and history Part II provides an overview of systems or models of criminal law laying the foundation for further inquiry into specific conceptions of criminal law as well as for comparative analysis such as Islamic Marxist and military law Part III covers the three aspects of the penal process the definition of norms and principles of liability substantive criminal law along with a less detailed treatment of the imposition of norms criminal procedure and the infliction of sanctions prison law Contributors consider the basic topics traditionally addressed in scholarship on the general and special parts of the substantive criminal law such as jurisdiction mens rea justifications and excuses Part IV places criminal law in context both domestically and transnationally by exploring the contrasts between criminal law and other species of law and state power and by investigating criminal law's place in the projects of comparative law transnational and international law

The Treatment of Criminal Offenders Michael Dow Burkhead, 2014-12-09 From drilling holes into the skulls of prisoners to solitary confinement to deploying a range of psychological therapies society has attempted to deal with the problem of criminals in myriad ways over the last few centuries This analytical history explores the ever changing approaches to punishing wrongdoers and preventing further offenses the philosophical beliefs underlying them and their relative effects It discusses such core issues as the role of free will and determination the root causes of crime and the effects of studying crimes versus studying criminals It highlights the continuous debate regarding rehabilitation and punishment the history of biologically and psychologically based treatments and the principles of effective intervention concluding with discussion of what lies ahead

Patriots and Paupers Mary Lindemann, 1990-10-04 Patriots and Paupers carefully analyzes a crucial juncture in the history of a great city Hamburg's passage from the pre modern into the modern world Despite the relative wealth of historical literature on Reformation Germany and on Germany after unification few English language histories have addressed the events of the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries Mary Lindemann here details issues associated with poor relief indigency mendicancy public health labor regulation social control and disciplining then uses these as springboards to broader historical debates She draws out the subtle yet decisive political shift from the paternalistic dirigism of a government of fathers and uncles to the socio economic laissez faire of early liberalism and locates this political metamorphosis firmly within the framework of Hamburg's dynamic economic development and dramatic demographic growth She links these political and social changes to the intellectual cultural and prosopographical contexts of the German Enlightenment Far more than a history of poverty and social welfare policies Patriots and Paupers explores the critical interconnections between economics demographics social change and government in the closing years of the European Old Regime      The Transferring of America's Youth Sheri Jenkins Keenan,2021-09-23 A separate juvenile justice system was established in the United States in 1899 with a goal of diverting juvenile offenders from the harsh punishments of the adult criminal court and encouraging rehabilitation based on the individual needs of the offender This new juvenile court was set up as a civil or chancery court with informal proceedings and discretion left to the juvenile court judge Furthermore juvenile court proceedings were closed to the public and juvenile records were to remain confidential However as the decades progressed juveniles became increasingly involved in more serious crimes This generated a growing fear among lawmakers educators and the public which resulted in a number of get tough policies and strategies By the 1990s the most popular approach in dealing with violent juvenile crime was for states to make it easier or to require the prosecution of juveniles as adults in criminal court Research demonstrates that such policies may be counter productive increase rather than decrease recidivism and cause harm to offenders their families and the community This volume provides a comprehensive historical review of knowledge surrounding the transfer of American s youth from the rehabilitative individualized treatment of the juvenile justice system to the adult criminal justice system      The Colonial Bastille Peter Zinoman,2001-03-04 Peter Zinoman s original and insightful study focuses on the colonial prison system in French Indochina and its role in fostering modern political consciousness among the Vietnamese Using prison memoirs newspaper articles and extensive archival records Zinoman presents a wealth of significant new information to document how colonial prisons rather than quelling political dissent and maintaining order instead became institutions that promoted nationalism and revolutionary education

Crime and Empire 1840 - 1940 Barry Godfrey,Graeme Dunstall,2013-06-17 This book is a major contribution to the comparative histories of crime and criminal justice focusing on the legal regimes of the British empire during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Its overarching theme is the transformation and convergence of criminal justice systems during a period that saw a broad shift from legal pluralism to the hegemony of state law in the European world and beyond

Inward Conquest Ben W. Ansell,Johannes Lindvall,2020-11-11 Examining schools libraries prisons asylums and vaccines this study is the first comprehensive look at the origins of public services      Unlocking Learning Justin McDevitt,Mneesha

Gellman,2024-01-18 How can people involved in carceral interventions learn from work in carceral settings outside the United States This volume addresses this question by gathering international perspectives to the field of education in prison that could inform carceral interventions elsewhere including in the United States      Geography and Enlightenment David N. Livingstone,Charles W. J. Withers,1999-12-15 Geography and Enlightenment explores both the Enlightenment as a geographical phenomenon and the place of geography in the Enlightenment From wide ranging disciplinary and topical perspectives contributors consider the many ways in which the world of the long eighteenth century was brought to view and shaped through map and text exploration and argument within and across spatial and intellectual borders The first set of chapters charts the intellectual and geographical contexts in which Enlightenment ideas began to form including both the sites in which knowledge was created and discussed and the different means used to investigate the globe Detailed explorations of maps created during this period show how these new ways of representing the world and its peoples influenced conceptions of the nature and progress of human societies while studies of the travels of people and ideas reveal the influence of far flung places on Enlightenment science and scientific credibility The final set of chapters emphasizes the role of particular local contexts in Enlightenment thought Contributors are Michael T Bravo Paul Carter Denis Cosgrove Stephen Daniels Matthew Edney Anne Marie Claire Godlewska Peter Gould Michael Heffernan David N Livingstone Dorinda Outram Chris Philo Roy Porter Nicolaas Rupke Susanne Seymour Charles Watkins and Charles W J Withers
