

The background of the slide is a vibrant photograph of a Canadian landscape. In the foreground, a Canadian flag is flying on a tall pole. The flag is partially obscured by the large white text. Behind the flag, a dense forest of evergreen trees covers the lower slopes of a mountain. In the distance, rugged, rocky mountain peaks rise against a clear blue sky. The overall scene is bright and scenic, typical of the Canadian Rockies.

white women stood out clearly against backgrounds of unfamiliar landscapes peopled with strange nations savage tribes dangerous beasts or wonderful birds These books would again and again illustrate the first coming of the white race into regions inhabited by people of a different type with brown black or yellow skins how the European was received and how he treated these races of the soil which gradually came under his rule owing to his superior knowledge weapons wealth or powers of persuasion The books were to tell the plain truth even if here and there they showed the white man to have behaved badly or if they revealed the fact that the American Indian the Negro the Malay the black Australian was sometimes cruel and treacherous About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
