Pioneers Of The British Film:

Pioneers of the British Film John Barnes, 1983 Empire and Film Lee Grieveson, Colin MacCabe, 2019-07-25 This important new volume reconstructs the forms of production distribution and exhibition of films made in and about the colonies It then ties them to wider theoretical issues about film and liberalism spectacle and political economy representation and rule The result is one of the first volumes to examine how imperial rule is intimately tied to the emergence of documentary as a form and indeed how the history of cinema is at the same time the history of Empire BRIAN LARKIN Barnard College This superb collection of new scholarship shows how cinema both communicated and aided the imperialist agenda throughout the twentieth century In doing so it shows film can be understood as one of the tools of empire as much as the technology of weaponry or modes of administration a means of education and indoctrination in the colonies and at home TOM GUNNING University of Chicago At its height in 1919 the British Empire claimed 58 countries 400 million subjects and 14 million square miles of ground Empire and Film brings together leading international scholars to examine the integral role cinema played in the control organisation and governance of this diverse geopolitical space The essays reveal the complex interplay between the political and economic control essential to imperialism and the emergence and development of cinema in the late nineteenth and first half of the twentieth century Contributors address how the production distribution and exhibition of film were utilised by state and industrial and philanthropic institutions to shape the subject positions of coloniser and colonised to demarcate between civilised and primitive and codify difference and to foster a political economy of imperialism that was predicated on distinctions between core and periphery The generic forms of colonial cinema were consequently varied travelogues mapped colonial spaces actuality films re presented spectacles of royal authority and imperial conquest and conflict home movies rendered colonial self representation state financed newsreels and documentaries fostered political and economic control and the education of British and colonial subjects philanthropic and industrial organisations sponsored films to expand Western models of capitalism British and American film companies made films of imperial adventure These films circulated widely in Britain and the empire and were sustained through the establishment of imperial networks of distribution and exhibition including in particular innovative mobile exhibition circuits and non theatrical spaces like schools museums and civic centres Empire and Film is a significant revision to the historical and conceptual frameworks of British cinema history and is a major contribution to the history of cinema as a global form that emerged amid and in dialogue with the global flows of imperialism The book is produced in conjunction with a major website housing freely available digitised archival films and materials relating to British colonial cinema www.colonialfilm.org.uk and a companion volume entitled Film and the End of Empire The Beginnings of the Cinema in England John Barnes, 1983 "They Thought it was a Marvel" Tjitte de Vries, Ati Mul, 2009 Was 1906 the year of birth of animation pictures Or 1908 Was France the place of birth or was it the United States The Beginnings of the Cinema in England:

Pioneers of the British film : 1898 : Rise of the photoplay John Barnes,1976 Silent Film Donna

Kornhaber,2020-09-01 Encompassing the thirty five year span between the initial development of film technology in the mid 1890s and the adoption of synchronized sound in the late 1920s the cinema s silent era is both one of the most important epochs of film history and one of the most misunderstood within the popular imagination In this brief and readable account these formative decades come vividly to life Covering the full scope of the silent era from the invention of motion pictures to the rise of the Hollywood studios and touching on films and filmmakers from every corner of the globe Silent Film A Very Short Introduction offers a window into film s first years as a worldwide entertainment phenomenon From groundbreaking early shorts to the masterpieces of the cinema s classical era from street corner nickelodeons to grand movie palaces from slapstick to the avant garde the silent era s artistic abundance and global variety are here put on full display In the story of silent film we see not just the origins of a new culture industry but also a legacy of imagination and innovation that continues to profoundly influence the cinema even to this day ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable Encyclopedia of Early Cinema Richard Abel,2005 One volume reference work on the first twenty five years of the cinema s international emergence from the early 1890s to the mid 1910s

Sport and Film Seán Crosson,2013-07-18 The sports film has become one of commercial cinema s most recognizable genres From classic boxing films such as Raging Bull 1980 to soccer themed box office successes like Bend it Like Beckham 2002 the sports film stands at the interface of two of our most important cultural forms This book examines the social historical and ideological significance of representations of sport in film internationally an essential guide for all students and enthusiasts of sport film media and culture Sport and Film traces the history of the sports film from the beginnings of cinema in the 1890s its consolidation as a distinct fiction genre in the mid 1920s in Hollywood films such as Harold Lloyd s The Freshman 1925 to its contemporary manifestation in Oscar winning films such as Million Dollar Baby 2004 and The Fighter 2010 Drawing on an extensive range of films as source material the book explores key issues in the study of sport film and wider society including race social class gender and the legacy of 9 11 It also offers an invaluable guide to reading a film to help students fully engage with their source material Comprehensive authoritative and accessible this book is an important addition to the literature in both film and media studies sport studies and cultural studies more generally Pioneers of the British Film John Barnes,1983 Film - An International Bibliography Malte Hagener,Michael Töteberg,2016-12-16 Kommentierte Bibliografie Sie gibt Wissenschaftlern Studierenden und Journalisten zuverlässig Auskunft über rund 6000 internationale Veröffentlichungen zum Thema Film und Medien Die vorgestellten Rubriken reichen von Nachschlagewerk über Filmgeschichte bis hin zu Fernsehen Video Multimedia The Parliamentarian ,1927 The Story of Victorian Film

Bryony Dixon,2023-08-10 In this vivid and accessible new account of the dawn of film in Britain internationally respected film historian and curator Bryony Dixon introduces us to Britain's first cinematic pioneers an eclectic mix of chemists engineers photography enthusiasts fairground showmen and magicians who in a few short years built a vibrant new industry As she chronicles the emergence of the first embryonic film forms and genres she reveals often surprising innovations from cutting edge science to ingeniously witty tricks and comedies with filmmakers reflecting existing entertainment forms as well as advancing editing and cinematography in ways that shaped the art of film for many decades after Dixon offers fresh insights by focusing on the films themselves many of them only recently available to view while building on the work of generations of scholars In the process Dixon makes a compelling case for the British filmmakers of the era as inventive and creative figures every bit as influential as their more celebrated contemporaries in France and the US

The Pioneer Mail and Indian Weekly News,1919 Transnational Trailblazers of Early Cinema Victoria Duckett,2023-05-30 At the forefront of the entertainment industries of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries were singular actors Sarah Bernhardt Gabrielle Rjane and Mistinguett Talented women with global ambitions these performers pioneered the use of film and theatrics to gain international renown Transnational Trailblazers of Early Cinema traces how these women emerged from the Parisian periphery to become world famous stars Through intrepid business prowess and the cultivation of celebrity images these three artists strengthened ties among countries continents and cultures during pivotal years of change

Visions of Yesterday Jeffrey Richards,2014-01-21 Film is an important source of social history as well as having been a popular art form from the early twentieth century This study shows how a society consciously or unconsciously is mirrored in its cinema It considers the role of the cinema in dramatizing popular beliefs and myths and takes three case studies American populism British imperialism German Nazism to explain how a nation's pressures tensions and hopes come through in its films Examining the American cinema is accomplished by analysing the careers of three great directors John Ford Frank Capra and Leo McCarey while the British and German cinemas are studied by theme The analysis of the British Empire as seen in film broke exciting new ground with a pioneering account of the cinema of Empire when it was first published in 1973 With full filmographies and a carefully selected bibliography it is an outstanding work of reference and its lively approach makes it a delight to read Reviews of the original edition A work of considerable force and considerable wit Clive James Observer a work that is original mentally stimulating and most pleasurable to read Focus on Film

Reel Men Chelsea Barnett,2019-02-19 Set against the shifting social and political backdrop of a nation throwing off the shackles of one war yet faced with the instability of the new world order Reel Men probes the concept of 1950s masculinity itself asking what it meant to be an Australian man at this time Offering a compelling exploration of the Australian fifties the book challenges the common belief that the fifties was a dead era for Australian filmmaking Reel Men engages with fourteen Australian feature films made and released between 1949 and 1962 and examines the multiple masculinities in circulation at this time Dealing with beloved Australian films like Jedda 1955 Smiley 1956 and The Shiralee 1957 and national icons of the silver screen including Chips Rafferty Charles Bud Tingwell and Peter Finch Reel Men delves into our cultural past to dismantle powerful assumptions about film the fifties and masculinity in Australia Introduction to Film Nick Lacey, 2016-04-28 This core textbook offers a concise yet complete introduction to film responding to shifts in the medium while addressing all of the main approaches that inform film studies The rise of on demand internet based video has transformed the way films are distributed and exhibited with many previously unobtainable and obscure films becoming available for global audiences to view instantly Interweaving historical and current theoretical approaches Nick Lacey presents a tightly focused and coherent overview of a discipline in transition which can be read cover to cover or in distinct chapters With its original narrative line and student oriented philosophy the text greatly enriches student s appreciation of cinema while equipping them with the essential skills and vocabulary to succeed in film studies This is an ideal foundational text for all lecturers undergraduate or A level students of film and cinema studies as well as enthusiasts of film and cinema looking for a comprehensive guide New to this Edition Content reflecting the increasing importance of production contexts in chapters focusing exclusively on the film business distribution and exhibition A more detailed chapter on representation and greater emphasis on audience Updated content addressing the significance of transnational cinema drawing on a more global non Hollywood range of film examples and case studies from Europe Asia and Latin America Text is broken up by a wider variety of film stills representing world cinema from the classics to the latest in contemporary cinema Young and Innocent? Andrew Higson, 2002 In depth study of the development of British cinema in the early years of the twentieth century Pink-Slipped Jane M Gaines, 2018-02-23 Women held more positions of power in the silent film era than at any other time in American motion picture history Marion Leonard broke from acting to cofound a feature film company Gene Gauntier the face of Kalem Films also wrote the first script of Ben Hur Helen Holmes choreographed her own breathtaking on camera stunt work Yet they and the other pioneering filmmaking women vanished from memory Using individual careers as a point of departure Jane M Gaines charts how women first fell out of the limelight and then out of the film history itself A more perplexing event cemented their obscurity the failure of 1970s feminist historiography to rediscover them Gaines examines how it happened against a backdrop of feminist theory and her own meditation on the limits that historiography imposes on scholars Pondering how silent era women have become absent in the abstract while present in reality Gaines sees a need for a theory of these artists pasts that relates their aspirations to those of contemporary women A bold journey through history and memory Pink Slipped pursues the still elusive fate of the influential women in the early years of film Motion Picture Studio , 1922
