well the triple promise of the title the inter connections of place people and heritage John Mulvaney brings to this work a deep knowledge of the history ethnography and archaeology of Tasmania He presents a comprehensive account of the areas history over the 200 years since French naval expeditions first charted its coastlines The important records the French officers and scientists left of encounters with Aboriginal groups are discussed in detail set in the wider ethnographic context and compared with those of later expeditions The topical issues of understanding the importance of Recherche Bay as a cultural landscape and its protection and future management inform the book Readers will be challenged to consider the connections between people and place and how these may constitute significant national heritage Histories of Transnational Crime Gerben Bruinsma,2015-05-13 Histories of Transnational Crime provides a broad historical framework for understanding the developments in research of transnational crime over the centuries This volume provides examples of transnational crime and places them in a broad historical context which has so far been missing from this field of study The contributions to this comprehensive volume explore the causes and historical precursors of six main types of transnational crime piracy human smuggling arms trafficking drug trafficking art and antique trafficking corporate crime The historical contributions demonstrate that transnational crime is not a novel phenomenon of recent globalization and that beyond organized crime groups powerful individuals governments and business corporations have been heavily involved Through a systematic historical and contextual analysis of these types of transnational crime the contributions to this volume provide a fundamental understanding of why and how various forms of transnational crime are still present in the contemporary world In the past two decades the study of transnational crime has developed from a subset of the study of organized crime to its own recognized field of study covering distinct societal threats and requiring a particular approach Library of Congress

Alexander tells the history of the men and women transported to what became one of Britain s most notorious convict colonies Following the lives of dozens of convicts and their families she uncovers stories of success failure and everything in between While some suffered harsh conditions most served their time and were freed becoming ordinary and peaceful citizens Yet over the decades a terrible stigma became associated with the convicts and they and the whole colony went to extraordinary lengths to hide it The majority of Tasmanians today have convict ancestry whether they know it or not While the public stigma of its convict past has given way to a contemporary fascination with colonial history Alison Alexander debates whether the convict past lingers deep in the psyche of white Tasmania The Pacific Historical Review Anna Marie Hager,1976 University of California Union Catalog of Monographs Cataloged by the Nine Campuses from 1963 Through 1967: Authors & titles University of California (System).
