Pisma Iz Robii:

The Balkans and the West Andrew Hammond, 2017-03-02 This collection of essays locates, investigates and challenges the manner in which the Balkans and the West have constructed each other since 1945. Scholars from the two sections of the continent explore a wide range of fiction, film, journalism, travel writing and diplomatic records both to analyse Western European balkanism and to study Balkan representations of the West over the last fifty years. The first section looks back to the Cold War, examining the divergent, often favourable images of the Balkans that existed in Western culture as well as the variety of responses that appeared in South East European writings on the West. The second section analyses the transitions that took place in representation during the 1990s. Here contributors explore both the harsh denigration of the Balkans which came to dominate western discourse after the initial euphoria of 1989 and the emerging tradition of contesting Western balkanism in South East European cultural production. Through this dual emphasis, the volume exposes the representational practices that help to maintain a deeply divided Europe and challenges the economic and political injustices that result. Despite the rise to prominence of postcolonial theory with its awareness of global inequality, the current crises in many parts of South East Europe have received scant attention in literary and cultural studies. The Balkans and the West addresses this deficiency. Ranging in focus from Serbian cinema to Romanian travel literature, from Western economic writings to Yugoslav fiction and from public discourse in Albania to NATO's vast propaganda machine, the essays offer wide insight into representation and power in the contemporary European context.

Surgeon-General's Office, United States Army National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1915 Index-catalogue of the Library of the Surgeon-General's Office, United States Army Library of the Surgeon-General's Office (U.S.), 1915 The Impact of War Experiences in Europe Nina Janz, Denis Scuto, 2024-12-30 During World War II over half a million men and women under Nazi occupation who lacked German citizenship were forcibly conscripted into the German Reichsarbeitsdienst and the Wehrmacht. The Nazis sought to legitimize this conscription by labeling these individuals as deutsche Volkszugehörige or Deutschstämmige despite it being a clear violation of international law. This collection explores the lives of these non-German conscripts, focusing on individuals from Slovenia, Poland, Silesia, Luxembourg, Belgium and France. Each chapter adopts an actor-centered approach, examining their daily lives, social dynamics, recruitment, military deployment and experiences in German uniform under coercion. The authors cover cases of desertion and escapes to neutral countries along with the repercussions for families tracing the capture of conscripts as POWs and the complex processes of redeployment by the Allies against the Germans and the re conscription by national governments Through a rich collection of ego documents and personal records this work vividly captures their complex realities offering nuanced insights into the dynamics of occupation coercion and the shifting allegiances that defined wartime and post war Europe Rockets and People: The moon race Boris Evseevich Chertok,2005 Dziennik narodowy.
