Phenomenological Perspectives on Place, Lifeworlds, and Lived Emplacement David Seamon, 2023-03-17

Phenomenological Perspectives on Place, Lifeworlds, and Lived Emplacement is a compilation of seventeen previously published articles and chapters by David Seamon, one of the foremost researchers in environmental architectural and place phenomenology. These entries discuss such topics as body subject, the lived body, place, place-ballets, environmental serendipity, homeworlds, and the pedagogy of place and placemaking. The volume's chapters are broken into three parts. Part I includes four entries that consider what phenomenology offers studies of place and placemaking. These chapters illustrate the theoretical and practical value of phenomenological concepts like lifeworld, natural attitude, and bodily actions in place. Part II incorporates five chapters that aim to understand place and lived emplacement phenomenologically. Topics covered include environmental situatedness, architectural phenomenology, environmental serendipity, and the value of phenomenology for a pedagogy of place and placemaking. Part III presents a number of explications of real-world places and place experience, drawing on examples from photography (André Kertész's Meudon), television (Alan Ball's Six Feet Under), film (John Sayles' Limbo and Sunshine State), and imaginative literature (Doris Lessing's The Four-Gated City and Louis Bromfield's The World We Live In). Seamon is a major figure in environment-behavior research, particularly as that work has applied value for design professionals. This volume will be of interest to geographers, environmental psychologists, architects, planners, policymakers, and other researchers and practitioners concerned with place, place experience, place meaning, and place making.

Geopolitics, Northern Europe, and Nordic Noir Robert A. Saunders, 2020-12-30 With its focus on the popular television genre of Nordic noir, this book examines subtle and explicit manifestations of geopolitics in crime series from Scandinavia and Finland, as well as the impact of such programmes on how northern Europe is viewed around the world. Drawing on a diverse set of literature from screen studies to critical International Relations, Geopolitics, Northern Europe, and Nordic Noir addresses the fraught geopolitical content of Nordic television series, as well as how Nordic noir as a genre travels the globe. With empirical chapters focusing on the interlinked concepts of the body, the border, and the nation-state, this book interrogates the various ways in which northern European states grapple with challenges wrought by globalisation, neoliberalism, and climate change. Reflecting the current global fascination with all things Nordic, this text examines the light and dark sides of the region as seen through the television screen, demonstrating that series such as Occupied, Trapped, and The Bridge have much to teach us about world politics. This book will be of interest to those interested in geopolitics, national identity, and the politics of popular culture in Scandinavian studies, media screen studies, IR, political science, human cultural geography, sociology, anthropology, cultural studies, and communication.

Video Methods Charlotte Bates, 2014-09-04 This interdisciplinary collection provides a set of innovative and inventive approaches to the use of video as a research method. Building on the development of visual methods across the social sciences, it highlights a range of possibilities for making and working with video data. The collection showcases different video methods, including video diaries, video go-alongs, time-lapse video mobile devices multi angle video recording video ethnography and ethnographic documentary Each method is presented through a case study showing how it can be used in practice The authors offer pragmatic advice and discuss practical issues including equipment techniques and skills analysis and presentation They also show how video methods can be used in a range of different contexts at train stations on bicycles in schools outdoors and in museums to investigate worlds that are visible audible tangible and in motion In doing so they illuminate the theoretical possibilities that video methods offer for researching the body identity everyday life affect time and space China Forever Poshek Fu,2008 The transnational history and cultural politics of the Shaw Brothers movie empire Cinema and Popular Geo-politics Marcus Power,2013-09-13 With a detailed range of approaches this new collection investigates how cinematic narratives can and have been used to portray different political threats and dangers Including a range of chapters with a contemporary focus it studies issues such as how the geopolitical world has been constructed through film how cinema can provide explanatory narratives in periods of cultural and political anxiety uneasiness and uncertainty Examining the ways in which film impacts upon popular understandings of national identity and the changing geopolitical world the book looks at how audiences make sense of the geo political messages and meanings contained within a variety of films from the US productions of Hollywood to Palestinian Mexican British and German cinematic traditions This thought provoking book draws on an international range of contributions to discuss and fully investigate world cinema in light of key contemporary issues This book was previously published as a special issue of Geopolitics Popular Geopolitics and Nation Branding in the Post-Soviet Realm Robert A. Saunders,2016-07-07 This seminal book explores the complex relationship between popular geopolitics and nation branding among the Newly Independent States of Eurasia and their combined role in shaping contemporary national image and statecraft within and beyond the region It provides critical perspectives on international relations nationalism and national identity through the use of innovative approaches focusing on popular culture new media public diplomacy and alternative narrators of the nation By positing popular geopolitics and nation branding as contentious forces and complementary flows the study explores the tensions and elisions between national self image and external perceptions of the nation and how this complex interplay has become integral to contemporary global affairs Re-writing Spatiality Britta Kuhlenbeck,2010 The objective of this project is to encourage new ways of thinking about the meaning and significance of space It follows a desire that has been expressed and theorized by Henri Lefebvre and by extension Edward W Soja to remove Spatiality from the margin of the Trialectics of Being and to bring it into the Trialectics fold alongside with and of at least equal significance to Historicity and Sociality The thesis focuses on how space of the Pilbara region in Western Australia is produced in contemporary Australian writing film art and through lived experience The thesis argues for an understanding of space as essentially dynamic Representing Landscape Architecture Marc Treib,2008-02-19 Representing Landscape Architecture offers a broad investigation of how the designed landscape is and has been represented for design study for criticism and even for its realization It has been said that we can only realize what we can imagine But in order to realize we must convey ideas to others as well as to ourselves Representation is by no means neutral and the process of communication the process by which the imagination takes its first form itself necessarily limits the range of our design possibilities Computers further remove from cognitive processes and raise new questions about methods and limits Written by a team of renowned practitioners and academics this book is the best available reference to date on the many dimensions of landscape representation

Envisioning Media Power Brett Christophers, 2009-04-16 Envisioning Media Power develops an original geographical perspective on the nature and exercise of power in the international television economy It uses theories of political economy as the basis for a comparative empirical examination of the UK and New Zealand television markets while closely considering these markets respective relationships with the US market and its globally influential media corporations In fleshing out this geographical perspective the book critically addresses the power to produce reproduce and extract profit from territorialized media markets To understand such powers the book examines processes of creation and dissemination of industry knowledge structures of industry governance and the locational characteristics of television s operational economy Through its rigorous and creative combination of conceptual insights with empirical substance Envisioning Media Power both illuminates the fabric of television s international space economy and ultimately offers a unique theoretic argument suggesting that power knowledge and geography are inseparable not only from one another but from the process of accumulation of media capital
