Place To Stand Essays For Educators In Troubled Times:

A Place to Stand Mark A. Clarke, 2003 Many teachers enter their profession with a dream of making the world a better place but they are soon overwhelmed with the realities of working in the educational system and distracted from the dream that inspired them in the first place In a series of eloquent and moving essays the author gives renewed hope to teachers who can still imagine a better world and are committed to working toward it This is a book for people who are dissatisfied with the status quo and discouraged by the pace of change Christian and Critical English Language Educators in Dialogue Mary Shepard Wong, Suresh Canagarajah, 2009-06-25 The legacy of English teaching and Christian missionaries is a flashpoint within the field of English language teaching This critical examination of the place of Christianity in the field is unique in presenting the voices of TESOL professionals from a wide range of religious and spiritual perspectives About half identify themselves as Christian while the others identify themselves as Buddhist atheist spiritualist and variations of these and other faiths What is common for all the authors is their belief that values have an important place in the classroom What they disagree on is whether and how spiritual values should find expression in learning and teaching This volume dramatizes how scholars in the profession wrestle with ideological pedagogical and spiritual dilemmas as they seek to understand the place of faith in education To sustain this conversation the book is structured dialogically Each section includes a set of position chapters in which authors explain their views of faith pedagogy integration a set of chapters by authors responding to these positions while articulating their own views on the subject and discussion questions to engage readers in comparing the positions of all the authors reflecting on their own experiences and values and advancing the dialogue in fresh and personal directions The Reflexive Teacher Educator in TESOL Julian Edge, 2011-02 Edge explores the construct of reflexivity in teacher education differentiating it from while locating it in reflective practice and introduces a framework Copying Applying Theorising Reflecting Acting to help teacher educators become reflexive professionals Interrogating Privilege Stephanie Vandrick, 2009-10-23 Interrogating Privilege is a welcome combination of personal essays and academic research blending theory analysis and narrative to explore the function and consequences of privilege in second language education While teachers focus on the learning process and class goals are quite important there is not enough attention paid to the types of privilege or lack thereof that individuals bring to the classroom Through chapters that can either stand alone or be read together with topics such as gender age and colonialism the author is the daughter of missionary parents in second language teaching this book seeks to address the experiences of teachers scholars and students as whole persons and to observe the workings of identity and privilege in the educational setting Techniques and Principles in Language Teaching 3rd edition - Oxford Handbooks for Language Teachers Diane Larsen-Freeman, Marti Anderson, 2013-01-18 Techniques and Principles in Language Teaching has influenced the way thousands of teachers have taught English This classic guide to developing the way you teach has been an essential resource to new and experienced teachers worldwide and is now in its third edition Each chapter focuses on a different teaching approach describing it being used in the classroom analyzing what happened and helping you think how you could apply it to your own teaching New features of the third edition include a new discussion on the political dimensions of language teaching a new digital technology chapter and extended coverage of content based and task based approaches On this site you will find additional resources including author videos in which Diane Larsen Freeman and Marti Anderson talk about the background to the book and new innovations in language teaching which are discussed in the third edition
