Place Art And Self:

Place, Art, and Self Yi-fu Tuan, 2004 What do place art and self have in common To what extent do place and art define who we are In Place Art and Self the renowned humanistic geographer Yi Fu Tuan tackles this large question in a small accessible beautifully illustrated book Through memoir and the insights gained from a peripatetic life as an international scholar Tuan explores the idea of attachment through place and art and the role of attachment in shaping defining and expanding the self Inasmuch as a place contains sources of nurture and identity Tuan writes so too does a painting photograph poem novel motion picture dance or piece of music The arts are likewise emblematic and revelatory The ones I strongly like and dislike expose me make me feel naked before the public eye which is why I am guarded in my confessions Drawing from a lifetime spent thinking and writing about the connection between geography and our spiritual needs Tuan presents a compelling and meditative foray into how place home and homelessness condition us as humans Complementing his essay is a gallery of fine art black and white and color plates by four emerging contemporary photographers whose work accords with Tuan's message

The Stain of Errors on the Self Carl Olson, 2024-09-02 Using an interdisciplinary approach to the problem of the self this study focuses on a gap left by previous philosophers This shortcoming is related to the nature of the self to commit errors that become part of the identity of the self These errors stain the self and make I what it is This study shines light on the self that will give the reader a more balanced understanding of it Fictional literature will be invoked to illustrate features of the self associated with errors The book is divided into two parts a review of selected theories of the self and a reconsideration of the self and errors producing being

Placemaking and the Arts Jennifer Allen Craft, 2018-10-30 What role does place play in the Christian life In this STA volume Jennifer Allen Craft gives a practical theology of the arts contending that the arts place us in time space and community in ways that encourage us to be fully and imaginatively present in a variety of contexts the natural world our homes our worshiping communities and society

Shrines and Miraculous Images William B. Taylor, 2019-02-15 The vast literature on Our Lady of Guadalupe dominates the study of shrines and religious practices in Mexico But there is much more to the story of shrines and images in Mexico's religious history than Guadalupe and Marian devotion In this book a distinguished historian brings together his new and recent essays on previously unstudied or reconsidered places themes patterns and episodes in Mexican religious history during the seventeenth eighteenth and nineteenth centuries William Taylor explores the use of local and regional shrines as well as devotion to images of Christ and Mary including Our Lady of Guadalupe to get to the heart of the politics and practices of faith in Mexico before the Reforma Each of these essays touches on methodological and conceptual matters that open out to processes and paradoxes of change and continuity exposing the symbolic complexity behind the material representations

Art, Self and Knowledge Keith Lehrer, 2012 This book argues that a special value of art is the way in which it uses conscious experience the exemplars of aesthetic experience to autonomously reconfigure how we conceive of our world and ourselves ourselves in our world and our world in ourselves Exemplar representation ties art and science mind and body self and world together in a dynamic loop reconfiguring them all as it reconfigures itself Geography and Memory Owain Jones, Joanne Garde-Hansen, 2012-10-10 This collection shifts the focus from collective memory to individual memory by incorporating new performative approaches to identity place and becoming Drawing upon cultural geography the book provides an accessible framework to approach key aspects of memory remembering archives commemoration and forgetting in modern societies On Civil Liberty and Self-government Francis Lieber, 1853 Proselytization and

Communal Self-Determination in Africa Abdullahi Ahmed An-Na'im, 2009-05-01 This probing collection of essays bring together a stellar group of Muslim and Christian African and Western scholars Together they explore the question Where does one community's right to commend itself to others leave off and another community's right to be left alone begin creativity found in artworks      The Sovereign Self Grant H. Kester, 2023-06-13 In The Sovereign Self Grant H Kester examines the evolving discourse of aesthetic autonomy from its origins in the Enlightenment through avant garde projects and movements in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Kester traces the idea of aesthetic autonomy the sense that art should be autonomous from social forces while retaining the ability to reflect back critically on society through Kant Schiller Hegel Marx and Adorno Kester critiques the use of aesthetic autonomy as the basis for understanding the nature of art and the shifting relationship between art and revolutionary praxis He shows that dominant discourses of aesthetic autonomy reproduce the very forms of bourgeois liberalism that autonomy discourse itself claims to challenge Analyzing avant garde art and political movements in Russia India Latin America and elsewhere Kester retheorizes the aesthetic beyond autonomy Ultimately Kester demonstrates that the question of aesthetic autonomy has ramifications that extend beyond art to encompass the nature of political transformation and forms of anticolonial resistance that challenge the Eurocentric concept of Man upon which the aesthetic itself often depends      Flannery O'Connor, Walker Percy, and the Aesthetic of

Revelation John Sykes, 2007 Examining the writings of Flannery O Connor and Walker Percy against the background of the Southern Renaissance from which they emerged Sykes explores how the writers shared a distinctly Christian notion of art that led them to see fiction as revelatory but adopted different theological emphases and rhetorical strategies Provided by publisher      The Cultural Psychology of Self Ciaran Benson, 2002-01-04 Philosophers and psychologists both investigate the self but often in isolation from one another this book brings together studies by philosophers and psychologists in an exploration of the self and its function It will be of interest to all those involved in philosophy psychology and sociology offer new perspectives on Kandinsky and other familiar names such as Kazimir Malevich Mikhail Larionov and Natalia Goncharova and introduce less well known figures such as the Georgian artists Ucha Japaridze and Lado Gudiashvili and the craftswoman and art promoter Aleksandra Pogosskaia Prefaced by a lively and informative introduction by Louise Hardiman and Nicola Kozicharow that sets these perspectives in their historical and critical context Modernism and the Spiritual in Russian Art New Perspectives enriches our understanding of the modernist period and breaks new ground in its re examination of the role of religion and spirituality in the visual arts in late Imperial Russia Of interest to historians and enthusiasts of Russian art culture and religion and those of international modernism and the avant garde it offers innovative readings of a history only partially explored revealing uncharted corners and challenging long held assumptions

Self-analysis in Literary Study Daniel Rancour-Laferriere, 1994-10 What makes one reader look for issues of social conformity in Kafka's Metamorphosis while another concentrates on the relationship between Gregor Samsa and his father Self Analysis in Literary Study investigates how the psychoanalytic self analysis enables readers to gain a deeper understanding of literature as well as themselves In the past scholars have largely ignored self analysis as an aid to approaching literature The contributors in Self Analysis in Literary Study boldly explore how the psyche affects intellectual intellectual discovery in the realm of applied psychoanalysis Jeffrey Berman confronts a close friend's suicide through Camus and his student's diaries kept for an English class Language family history and an attachment to Kafka are addressed in David Bleich's essay Barbara Ann Schapiro writes of her attraction to Virginia Woolf during her emotional senior year of college Other essayists include Daniel Rancour Laferriere Norman N Holland Bernard J Paris Steven Rosen and Michael Steig Written for both scholars in the fields of psychology and literature and for a general audience intrigued by self analysis as a tool for gaining insight Self Analysis in Literary Study answers traditional questions about literature and raises challenging new ones

The NAEP 1997 Arts Report Card Hilary R. Persky, Brent A. Sandene, Janice M. Askew, 1998 The last several years have seen a growing resolve among educators and policymakers to assure the place of a solid arts education in U S schools In 1997 the National Assessment of Educational Progress NAEP conducted a national assessment in the arts at grade 8 The assessment included the areas of music theater and visual arts For each of these arts areas this Report Card describes the achievement of eighth graders within the general population and in various subgroups Taken with the information provided about instructional and institutional variables this report gives a context for evaluating the status of students learning in the arts The arts assessment was designed to measure the content specifications described in the arts framework for NAEP The arts have a unique capacity to integrate intellect emotions and physical skills in the creation of meaning Meaningful arts assessments need to be built around three arts processes creating performing and responding To capture these processes the arts assessment exercises included authentic tasks that assessed students knowledge and skills and constructed response and multiple choice questions that explore students abilities to describe analyze interpret and evaluate works of art in written form Data are reported in overall summaries for creating performing and responding in terms of student and school reported background variables Student results for theater are discussed in terms of teacher reported background variables as well The major findings of the assessment are that a large percentage of grade 8 students attend schools in which music and visual arts were taught usually by specialists most students attended schools in which instruction following district or state curricula was offered in music and visual arts but not in theater or dance and most visual arts and music instruction took place in school facilities that were dedicated to that subject JH

Self-defence in International Law D. W. Bowett, 2009 Self defense and the right to go to war Originally published New York Praeger 1958 xv 294 pp Bowett observes that the use or threat of force by any state can be a delict an approved sanction or a measure taken in self defense He examines the evolution of self defense doctrine in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries with the assumption of the existence of a state s unlimited right to go to war He then attempts to outline the limited and provisional effects of this right under the U N Charter This book was written after Bowett s term as a United Nations legal officer from 1957 1959 Throughout the work there is a refusal to dogmatize or to state in absolute terms any aspect of the privilege of self defence in its present context Bowett is to be congratulated on producing a timely and scholarly survey of one of the most fundamental and often abused sovereign rights known to international law K R Simmonds British Year Book of International Law 34 1958 432 SIR DEREK WILLIAM BOWETT 1927 2009 an international lawyer was President of Queens College Cambridge from 1969 1982 and Whewell Professor of International Law Cambridge from 1981 1991 He was awarded a CBE in 1983 and a knighthood in 1998 He is the author of The Law of International Institutions 1963 United Nations Forces A Legal Study 1964 The Law of the Sea 1967 The Search for Peace 1972 and The International Court of Justice 1996 Arts & Decoration ,1924 Urban Events, Place Branding and Promotion Waldemar Cudny, 2019-10-01 Urban Events Place Branding and Promotion explores the phenomenon of place event marketing examining the ways in which events are used to brand and disseminate information about a place It provides a novel contribution to the literature capturing the growing interest in place promotion and offers in depth insights on the role of events With a focus on urban locations this book defines the scope and concept of place event marketing It demonstrates that different kinds of events for leisure and business can be used to successfully develop promote and brand different types of places Individual chapters written by a variety of leading academics explore how various public and non governmental institutions that deal with promotion and marketing communications of places can implement event marketing activities and how such institutions organize co organize and sponsor different events The effects of event marketing activities on urban place promotion and branding are thoroughly explored through a variety of international empirical case studies This will be of great interest to upper level students and researchers in events marketing and management tourism and the broader field of urban geography The concluding chapter also proposes future research directions
