Place Between Aldergrove And Communities:

The Place Between: 1860-1939 Alder Grove Heritage Society,1993      A Mount Lehman Native Son Gordon Taylor,2023-09-28 This book is a biography of my father who died in 1998 He has left many notes in anticipation of writing a book or books himself primarily to highlight his heritage upbringing and the history of the area in BC in which he lived namely Mount Lehman Due to his death I had to step up try to marshal all his notes and attempt to write his story as I perceive it In the process I had to conduct my own genealogical research as well as historical research of my relatives to confirm Dad s notes and to ensure my account is accurate I also researched the various organizations in Mount Lehman which were prominent in Dad s and my ancestor s lives as I believed that the book will also be important to the history of this area There is a dearth of comprehensive writing about the history of Mount Lehman The book is intended to tell the story of my father and our ancestors to those who had never met them or knew Dad and don t know all his stories I am especially proud of our family s heritage and ancestry and want to encourage my children and grandchildren to be aware of their ancestry and add to this story if they feel inclined to do so      The Grieve Saga Jocene Swan Hall,2005      From Family History to Community History W. T. R. Pryce,1994-05-27 The second volume in a major new initiative in the study of local history From Family History to Community History explores population movements spatial divisions and social structures in town and countryside and gives pointers as to the meaning of community Regional settings the idea of place and changes over time are also examined with special attention being paid to the patterns and the processes of all forms of migration These themes give rise to new research ideas in family and community history      The Promise of Paradise Andrew Scott,2017-03-25 The West has long attracted visionaries and schemers from around the world And no other region in North America can outstrip British Columbia for the number of utopian or intentional settlement attempts in the past 150 years Andrew Scott delves into the dramatic stories of these fascinating but often doomed communities From Doukhobor farmers to Finnish coal miners Quakers and hippies many groups have struggled to build idealistic colonies in BC s inspiring landscape While most discovered hardship disillusionment and failure new groups sprang up and continue to spring up to take their place Meet the quick tempered slave driving Madame Zee partner of the infamous Brother XII who reportedly beat followers with a riding crop Hear from Richard The Troll Schaller who founded the Legal Front Commune General Store and Funny Food Farm on the Sunshine Coast setting off a storm of hostility from locals Congregate with Jerry LeBourdais and fellow members of the Ochiltree Organic Commune who rebelled from hippie communes by embracing meat eating and coffee drinking With careful research and engaging first person accounts Scott sifts through the wreckage of the utopia seekers dreams and delves into the practices and philosophies of contemporary intentional communities This book is a compendium of astounding misadventures as well as an intriguing analysis of what moves people to search for paradise      A Fine View of the Show Hector Jackson,Andrew Jackson,2009 A first hand glimpse into daily life on the Western Front that is riveting informative and poignant Hector Jackson left his family's British Columbia farm in 1915 to fight in World War I. Recounted through 130 descriptive letters, Jackson's idealistic adventure descended into the gritty reality of trench warfare when, as a newly commissioned officer, he was catapulted into the Battle of the Somme. Against the odds, Jackson survived many of the great battles of the Western Front to be awarded the Military Cross for gallantry under fire at Passchendaele and rise to the rank of captain. Gassed just ten days before the war ended, he joined the river of wounded flowing from the battlefield. Photographs illustrate the unique story told in these letters, from Jackson's farm life through military training to the grim existence of the Western Front. Andrew Jackson's introduction and historical narrative, along with helpful notes, weave these letters into a dramatic chronicle. Our Sylvan Heritage Susan M. Murray, 2004. Our Sylvan Heritage: Trees of S Fraser is published by Fitzhenry and Whiteside. Pacific Northwest Major Industrial Plant Sites: The Puget Sound area of Washington, 1967. Unsettling Native Art Histories on the Northwest Coast Kathryn Bunn-Marcuse, Aldona Jonaitis, 2020-07-20. Inseparable from its communities, Northwest Coast art functions aesthetically and performatively beyond the scope of non-Indigenous scholarship, from demonstrating kinship connections to manifesting spiritual power. Contributors to this volume foreground Indigenous understandings in recognition of this rich context and its historical erasure within the discipline of art history. By centering voices that uphold Indigenous priorities, integrating the expertise of Indigenous knowledge holders about their artistic heritage, and questioning current institutional practices, these new essays unsettle Northwest Coast art studies. Key themes include discussions of cultural heritage protections and Native sovereignty, recentering women and their critical role in transmitting cultural knowledge, reflecting on decolonization work in museums, and examining how artworks function as living documents. The volume exemplifies respectful and relational engagement with Indigenous art and advocates for more accountable scholarship and practices. Sacramento Renaissance William Burg, 2013-08-27. Touted as progress, postwar redevelopment spawned a new age in Sacramento, California. As city planners designated areas of urban blight and directed bulldozers to make way for commercial districts and pedestrian malls, the churches, jazz clubs, and family homes of the West End and Japantown were upended, and residents scattered. Displaced families and businesses reestablished themselves and redefined their communities around new cultural centers. Historian William Burg weaves oral histories with previously unpublished photographs to chronicle the resurgence of Sacramento's art, music, and activism in the wake of redevelopment. Celebrate the individuals and organizations that defined an era: the beatniks and Black Panthers of Oak Park, Southside Park's League of Nations, George Raya of Lavender Heights, and the Royal Chicano Air Force in Alkali Flat. Theatre for Living David Diamond, 2007. Theatre for Living is an essential resource for anyone interested in healthy communities. Community Relations and the Troubles in Northern Ireland Joana Etchart, 2024-11-19. Community relations policy has been an almost permanent feature in Northern Ireland since 1969, yet it has rarely been considered as an object of study. This book provides historical depth to its analysis by documenting the various manifestations of the notion of community relations in public policy during the Troubles period Drawing on a variety of written and oral primary and secondary sources it offers a unique rich perspective on the meaning and intent behind community relations policy at certain critical junctures In addition by examining this period through the lens of one policy the book sheds light on important questions such as who intervened in policy making during the conflict who sought to influence the process and eventually who took the decisions It also considers the varied roles played by community workers This meticulous analysis reveals previously unknown aspects of the evolution of community relations policy and presents a compelling micro history of policy making and governance during the Troubles in Northern Ireland The West

Tennessee Historical Society Papers West Tennessee Historical Society,1947 Report of the Commission of Inquiry Into Fraser Valley Petroleum Exploration Commission of Inquiry into Fraser Valley Petroleum Exploration (B.C.),David Anderson,1991 This Commission of Inquiry under section two of the Inquiry Act of British Columbia was established on 2 May 1990 in accordance with Order in Council No 695 of the same date The purpose of the inquiry was to look into matters of concern relating to the proposed three well exploratory drilling program in the Fraser Valley of the Fraser Valley Gas Project consortium and what that program might lead to Among these concerns were the threat to health and safety to residents of possible future underground natural gas storage and production of natural gas Introduction Going Places

Ann Bergman,Rosemary Williamson,Nancy Thalia Reynolds,2000 Whether they prefer to sleep outdoors in the high desert of Oregon or take a boat to a remote getaway this fourth edition of Going Places tells families all they need to know about planning a weekend away Included is detailed information on Washington Oregon Idaho and British Columbia All of the 150 places and 250 restaurants recommended in this book have been reviewed by parents This detailed travel guide also recommends roadside attractions and what to see and do once you reach your destination A Critical Ethnography of an Outdoor School Tristan Gleason,2021-09-30 By using critical ethnographic research to explore the practices and policies that sustain a residential outdoor school in the United States this book problematizes the relationship between science education and climate change politics in the United States Weaving together empirical data from fieldwork with theoretical resources spanning the sciences and humanities this book demonstrates how community activism political alliances and policy changes have guaranteed the survival of an outdoor school in Oregon This example enables artful reexamination of the relationship between science education politics and policy more broadly as well as the relation of science education to climate change politics in particular Gleason ultimately reconstructs science education towards epistemic and ontological pluralism and illustrates how critical ethnographic research can instigate a reimagining of the relationship between curriculum and how we relate to the world This book will benefit researchers academics and educators in higher education with an interest in the philosophical underpinnings and implications of science education environmental education and educational policy more broadly Those specifically interested in critical ethnographic research will also benefit from this book The Forgotten

Artist William "Bill" Alexander Jörg-Michael Müller, 2024-03-26 Well you really don't know the painter William Bill Alexander His biography reads like a novel and is for this book extensively probably researched for the first time He was a charming fox who survived two world wars and lived years in North America with his VW bus as a traveling artist He wanted to do something good for people His life was a big adventure his end was dramatic Born in Berlin 1915 and later emigrated to North America he became famous as a TV painter with own television show Only 30 minutes Alexander needed for a complete oil painting and he also taught his students Thanks to the brilliant Alexander painting technique that he developed himself anyone can paint like this And his method is still used and taught by teachers around the globe today But the worldwide fame for this absolutely ingenious technique went to another His student Bob Ross Urgently overdue to remember this warmhearted artist Let's accompany William Bill Alexander on his exciting journey     Preslia ,1928     Canadian
