Place Of Healing Working With Suffering In Living And Dying:

Place of Healing Michael Kearney, 2009 In this companion volume to Mortally Wounded Stories of Soul Pain Death and Healing palliative care specialist Dr Michael Kearney demonstrates that while the medical model has undoubted strengths in easing pain it is limited in its ability to alleviate the psychological and spiritual suffering that often accompanies terminal illness Complementing physical treatment with such depth approaches as dream work poetry divination and a revitalised connection with nature Kearney allows us to begin to integrate scientific and psychological metaphors Through research and imaginative reconstructions of the mythology and rites of ancient Greek Asklepian healing Kearney helps us envision a way of recognising and caring for the soul in its most critical moments He offers suggestions for workshop activities along with case histories from his own experience He concludes by proposing a new model for the healing of suffering which draws on the best practices of both the medical and Asklepian traditions Caregiver Stress and Staff Support in Illness, Dying and Bereavement Irene Renzenbrink, 2011-03-25 The need for renewal and support for those who care for seriously ill dying and bereaved people has been acknowledged from the very beginning of the hospice and palliative care movement While often referring to the rewards and satisfactions of the work Dame Cicely Saunders was the first to acknowledge that helping encounters with dying patients and distressed relatives could be a source of anguish and grief for dedicated and compassionate carers Caregiver Stress and Staff Support in Illness Dying and Bereavement discusses the challenge of finding a balance between the support needs of patients families and staff and the resources available With contributions from practitioners and researchers from around the world this book recognizes that palliative care today is being provided in many different settings and that there may be wide variations in the way individuals and organizations identify and manage the stressors that arise through the work This unique collection of international perspectives on the complexities and management of caregiver stress and staff support builds on the firm foundation Mary Vachon built over thirty years ago in her studies yet broadens the scope to include significant social political and cultural variations on the theme Dying to Live Carter Marian, 2015-04-21 This is a key resource for reflective practitioners who want to explore subjects such as death dving bereavement and funerals from a theological perspective The book engages readers to reflect theologically on issues of loss grief healing the search for meaning and joy Such theological reflection is vital for the development of good and grounded pastoral practice Music at the End of Life Jennifer L. Hollis, 2010-04-15 A practicing music than atologist provides an insider s history of this remarkable profession which combines music medicine and spirituality to help the terminally ill and their families face the end of life Reflecting on the author's experiences as a music thanatologist Jennifer Hollis's Music at the End of Life Easing the Pain and Preparing the Passage is an enlightening and emotional examination of the ways in which the experience of dying can be transformed with music Music at the End of Life highlights the unique role music has come to play in hospice and palliative medicine Jennifer Hollis interweaves narrative memoir the personal experiences of fellow music thanatologists and caregivers and extensive research to demonstrate the transformative power of music when curing is no longer an option Through story after unforgettable story Hollis offers a new vision of end of life care in which music creates a beautiful space for the work of letting go grieving and saving goodbye Oxford Textbook of Palliative Social Work Terry Altilio MSW, ACSW, LCSW, Shirley Otis-Green MSW, ACSW, LCSW, OSW, 2011-03-23 The Oxford Textbook of Palliative Social Work is a comprehensive evidence informed text that addresses the needs of professionals who provide interdisciplinary culturally sensitive biopsychosocial spiritual care for patients and families living with life threatening illness Social workers from diverse settings will benefit from its international scope and wealth of patient and family narratives Unique to this scholarly text is its emphasis on the collaborative nature inherent in palliative care This definitive resource is edited by two leading palliative social work pioneers who bring together an array of international authors who provide clinicians researchers policy makers and academics with a broad range of content to enrich the guidelines recommended by the National Consensus Project for Quality Palliative Care Psychotherapy Joy Schaverien, 2020-04-16 The Dying Patient in Psychotherapy is a powerful account of love and death within a psychotherapeutic relationship The narrative traces one man's journey in psychotherapy and that of the analyst who accompanies him The full length description of an analysis demonstrates the developmental path of an erotic transference from its origins in infancy through fantasies of sex and violence to mature erotic intimacy. The countertransference is considered with exceptional honesty as the analysis intensifies following the diagnosis of a life threatening illness A series of dreams rich in symbolic imagery traces the psychological situation as death approaches A precursor to Schaverien s acclaimed book Boarding School Syndrome the single case study demonstrates the enduring impact of early boarding This second edition also includes an updated literature review and new material regarding training and supervision making it a valuable resource for training institutions The Dying Patient in Psychotherapy will be essential reading for psychoanalysts psychotherapists counsellors arts therapists and all professionals working with the dying The poignant story will also engage the general reader curious about the process of psychotherapy In the Face of Death Danai Papadatou, 2009-04-06 Occasionally I read a book and say to myself that this is a book that I wished I had written This is such a book It is a delightful practical interesting and inspiring book Danai has written a soon to be classic in the field Her writing is excellent Her use of theories concepts history and models are wonderful Illness Crisis and Loss Danai Papadatou presents an approach of Relational Care care based on an understanding of relationships that should be essential reading S he writes in an engaging and non technical language and manages to convey complex ideas in a manner that is accessible to all Colin Murray Parkes OBE MD FRCPsych President Cruse Bereavement Care From the Foreword A wonderful contribution to the literature on caregiving and her well thought out ideas about relational caregiving are on the cutting edge Congratulations Lynne Ann DeSpelder CoAuthor The Last Dance Encountering Death and Dying 8th edition This is no ordinary academic textbook It is nothing short of a masterpiece in which Papadatou provides the field of death dying and bereavement with invaluable and constructive insights into the world of caring for the dying and bereaved Grief Matters This is a fascinating book applying important theoretical models in order to describe and speculate about how professionals manage to work in an environment where suffering and grief are constantly present This is an important and substantial addition to the mostly self help literature about self care for caregivers Doody's Medical Reviews In the Face of Death explores the experiences of health care professionals who care for the seriously ill the dying and the bereaved In this book Danai Papadatou offers a practical approach to caregiving as well as a breadth and depth of insight into both the patient's and the caregiver's responses to death The author discusses the issues and challenges health care professionals face when treating dying and bereaved patients Topics include compassion fatigue the inevitability of suffering and the potential for growth suffering in the workplace team functioning in death situations and team resilience The main themes are The Caring Relationship focuses on the relationship between the care provider and the person who is dying or grieving and proposes a new relationship based model of care The Care Provider in Death Situations addresses the health professional s personal responses to death using a model that illustrates the grieving process of the health professional The Team in the Face of Death provides recommendations for effective interdisciplinary care services that support dying or bereaved patients as well as the health Palliative Care in Neurological Disease Judi Byrne, Penny McNamara, Jane Seymour, Pam care provider McClinton, 2021-12-16 The particular needs of people with progressive long term neurological conditions including Parkinson s Disease Motor Neurone Disease MND Multiple Sclerosis MS and Huntington s disease may make care delivery and planning the last stages of life ethically practically and clinically challenging Death and Dying John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term than atology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill Mortally Wounded Michael Kearney, 1996 Kearney shows readers that they can learn to die well whole healed and accepting Sharing his own case studies Kearney examines how many patients overcome their soul pain He shows the importance of inner or depth work and explains how he has helped or failed to help the dying Ultimately readers learn that there are no easy answers diagrams EBOOK: Death's Dominion: Ethics at the End of Life Simon Woods, 2006-12-16 I enjoyed reading this book very much It is very readable and well argued using real life cases and thought experiments as well The book provides the reader with a short history of and an overview of the most important issues in modern palliative care Various theoretical discussions are clearly set out such as the relationship between the hospice movement and modern palliative care between palliative care and health care in general between palliative sedation and euthanasia and the question whether euthanasia can be part of palliative care The author starts with exploring the existing debates and then develops his own arguments in a balanced and well structured way Medicine Health Care and Philosophy The text of this book is accessible the philosophical and ethical arguments are clearly articulated and relevant ethical principles are integrated into the critique of the issues making this a very useful book for nurses working in palliative as well as in general care Nursing Ethics It is crucially important for any student or researcher who is seriously considering thical and policy matters at the end of life to embrace and tackle intellectually the issues that Woods raises in this book I would happily recommend it Journal of Medical Ethics What constitutes a good death Is it possible to arrange a good death Is killing compatible with caring This book looks at death and the issues and ethical dilemmas faced at the end of life It addresses the central issues in the field such as Withholding and withdrawing treatment Euthanasia and assisted suicide Terminal sedation The role of autonomy Palliative care Drawing on a philosophical framework the author explores end of life issues in order to reflect on the nature of the good death and how this may be achieved The book considers whether it is permissible or desirable to influence the quality of dying offering palliative sedation as a possible alternative to terminal sedation the argument is extended to examine why some forms of assisted dying can be shown to be compatible with the ideas of palliative care Consideration is also given to future developments such as life extension techniques and the ethical questions that that these techniques might raise As such the book follows in the ongoing philosophical tradition to critique and analyse current thought on the topic of death encouraging self reflection in the reader and offering suggestions for practice in end of life care Death's Dominion is key reading for students and professionals involved in care of the dying as well as those with an interest in the philosophical Whole Person Care Tom A. Hutchinson, 2017-09-01 This book argues persuasively issues surrounding end of life care and passionately that patient care is best when the patient s healing journey is as good as it can possibly be That means the patient as a Whole Person the self in all its physiological emotional social and even spiritual dimensions should receive truly comprehensive patient centered care In Whole Person Care Transforming Healthcare the author an expert in whole person care theory and practice outlines the background of whole person care explains and illustrates the key ideas puts the growing movement of whole person care in the context of other recent developments in healthcare and explores the implications of whole person care for individual practitioners healthcare teams and the organization of healthcare at the institutional and systems level In addition the author provides a compelling coherent narrative rich with clinical examples and vignettes that clarifies for physicians medical students and healthcare administrators the meaning of whole person care and its implications for the future of medical practice An invaluable resource for all clinicians and personnel concerned with managing patients with acute and chronic illness Whole Person Care Transforming Healthcare is a major addition to the literature and a must read for health practitioners and health administrators at every level Compassion Philip Joseph Larkin,2015-10-15 Presentaci n editorial The most eminent international experts critically reflect upon the role of compassion in the practice and delivery of palliative and hospice care From a range of backgrounds they provide insight into the practice of compassionate palliative care and explore the fundamental historical discourse surrounding this crucial concept

Anaesthesia, Pain, Intensive Care and Emergency Medicine — A.P.I.C.E. A. Gullo, 2012-12-06 Continuous update in critical care medicine is a real challenge due to the growing dimensions of its contents these elements are the result of new research acquisitions and of those clinical situations where the physician is able to intervene at a given moment with the use of effective prevention techniques. They are also the result of new technologies able to define complex sub-clinical diagnostic aspects lastly they are the result of effective therapeutic techniques available and of treatment strategies able to influence radically and positively the patient's clinical course Critical care medicine is playing a key role in the most advanced environments as it represents a cross sectional field of action involving several specialties such as anesthesiology general medicine surgery pediatrics Oxford Textbook of Palliative Medicine Geoffrey W.
