Bibliographie D'histoire Ontarienne, 1976-1986 Gaétan Gervais, Gwenda Hallsworth, Ashley Thomson, 1989 Canada and the British World Phillip Buckner, R. Douglas Francis, 2011-11-01 In the decades following the Second World War a revolutionary change took place in the Canadian national identity The English Canadian majority entered this period identifying themselves as British and emerged from it with a new independent sense of themselves as purely Canadian Assured of their unique place in the world Canadians can now reflect on the legacies and lessons of their British colonial past Canada and the British World surveys Canada's national history through a British lens In a series of essays focusing on the social cultural and intellectual aspects of Canadian identity over more than a century the complex and evolving relationship between Canada and the larger British World is revealed Examining the transition from the strong belief of nineteenth century Canadians in the British character of their country to the realities of modern multicultural Canada this book eschews nostalgia in its endeavour to understand the dynamic and complicated society in which Canadians did and do live Candid and ambitious Canada and the British World is recommended reading for historians and scholars of colonialism and nationalism as well as anyone interested in what it really means to be Canadian Stokes' Complete One Volume Encyclopædia Herbert Charles O'Neill,1914 Canadian Reference Sources Mary E. Bond, Martine M. Caron, 1996 This bibliography cites those Canadian and foreign reference sourcesthat describe Canadian people institutions organizations publications art literature languages and history It lists booksof a general nature as well as works in the disciplines of history and the humanities These large divisions are then broken down by subject genre type of document and province or territory Titles of national provincial territorial or regional interest are included in everysubject area when available The contents of the book are indexed fourways by name title French subject and English subject And tofacilitate browsing the major reference books those dealing with morethan one subject or a large geographical region are alsocross referenced Two entries have been created for each bilingual document in orderto provide access and bibliographical descriptions in both of Canada's official languages Entries for unilingual works include acitation in the language of the publication and a bilingual annotation The annotations are descriptive and provide information on the content arrangements and indexing of works the availability of non printformats previous editions and title changes and related works Canadian Reference Sources will be an invaluable reference tool for future scholars and researchers International Books in Print .1987 Canadian Books in Print .1995 Facts about

Canada, Its Provinces and Territories Jean Weihs, 1995 A reference of information on the ten provinces and two territories of Canada compiled from federal and provincial sources Entries discuss the geography population climate government politics history and culture of each region list political leaders from the 19th century to the present and contain chronologies of key events Includes a bibliography of fiction and nonfiction works for each province and territory plus an introductory chapter on Canada No index Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Dad's Best Memories and Recollections Charles J. Humber, 2016-01-19 DAD S BEST MEMORIES AND RECOLLECTIONS is Chazzz Humber s epithaph casting a very long and sentimental shadow across North America and beyond This 230 page volume is his granite monument well polished It lavishly records 125 of his best memories over a life span of nearly eighty years. The vignettes are serenaded with more than 400 illustrations Those discovering this volume likely will find themselves wanting to record in their own sunset years their personal memories and recollections And when they do they are apt to recall what it was like to live in their fluctuating world dominated by a variety of personalities and cascading events Mr Humber vividly describes what it was like in 1945 to travel in a 1930 Model A Ford from Toronto to Boston With lively enthusiasm he reports what it was like to live in post World War II Boston to cook a lobster for a former President of the United States or to sell a pair of elevator shoes to one of Hollywood's shortest celebrities or to shine the shoes of a Derby hatted father of a future President of the United States It is not a remarkable achievement to reflect to recall or to have memories that are treasured But to tell them with literary aplomb to recall the events that happened nearly seventy five years ago with utmost clarity is definitely an admirable achievement and should be cherished not only by the kin who follow Mr Humber but by those who might like to imitate what he has monumentally achieved in Dad's Best Memories and Recollections Canadian Poultry Digest ,1891 The Encyclopedia Americana Frederick Converse Beach, Forrest Morgan, George Edwin Rines, E. T. Review ,1926 Roe, Nathan Haskell Dole, Edward Thomas Roe, Thomas Campbell Copeland, 1903 Culinary Landmarks Elizabeth Driver, 2008-04-05 Culinary Landmarks is a definitive history and bibliography of Canadian cookbooks from the beginning when La cuisini re bourgeoise was published in Quebec City in 1825 to the mid twentieth century Over the course of more than ten years Elizabeth Driver researched every cookbook published within the borders of present day Canada whether a locally authored text or a Canadian edition of a foreign work Every type of recipe collection is included from trade publishers bestsellers and advertising cookbooks to home economics textbooks and fund raisers from church women s groups The entries for over 2 200 individual titles are arranged chronologically by their province or territory of publication revealing cooking and dining customs in each part of the country over 125 years Full bibliographical descriptions of first and subsequent editions are augmented by author biographies and corporate histories of the food producers and kitchen equipment manufacturers who often published the books Driver's excellent general introduction sets out the evolution of the cookbook genre in Canada while brief introductions for each province identify regional differences in developments and trends Four indexes and a Chronology of Canadian Cookbook History provide other points of access to the wealth of material in this impressive reference book Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists, 1996-05 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin's iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world The Literary Gazette Genealogy, Geography, and Maps Althea Douglas, Ontario Genealogical Society, 2006 Popular Science ,1988-12 Popular Science gives our readers the information and tools to improve their technology and their world The core belief that Popular Science and our readers share The future is going to be better and science and technology are the driving An Annotated Catalogue of the Edward C.
