Places In Political Time Voices From The Black Diaspora:

Places in Political Time Earnest N. Bracey, 2005 Places in Political Time approaches the black African Diaspora phenomenon from a new perspective considering cultural myths history allegories and other stories which present the human condition from a black American perspective The essays describe and evaluate tough questions on racism and uncomfortable truths about people within the Black Diaspora exploring how people of color interact with themselves and dominate cultures

Petrified Life and Other Short Stories Earnest N. Bracey, 2007-07 This provocative book tries to give a modern day voice to the Black American experience as it vividly painstakingly and accurately depicts the sad and continuing struggles of the descendants of Black African slaves in the United States This mesmerizing work further weaves the human tragedy social boundaries pathetic comedy jubilation alienation and racial conflicts Black Americans face with whites or the dominant group every day particularly in the Southern States The fateful tales in this collection also realistically portray Black Americans in contemporary settings in the New South especially in regards to their coping mechanisms and survival techniques The background for most of these captivating stories centers or focuses primarily in the Deep South This remarkable book finally touches all the raw nerves as it presents the observable truth of black life and living without restraint cautious detachment false candor or disingenuousness

An Evening with Frederick Douglass Earnest N. Bracey, 2019-02-12 Frederick Douglass was a runaway slave who fled north and overcame incredible adversity and extreme hardships to become one of the greatest abolitionists of his time Douglass who was best known for his writings and oratorical career was passionate about fighting the horrors of white supremacy and liberating former black slaves in the United States In this two act play Dr Earnest Bracey a professor of African American history not only allows others to learn about American slavery and the universal truths of race and the humanity of all people but also shares tantalizing facts about Douglass's celebrated life that highlight his best traits like self control dignity and grace under pressure Additionally Bracey invites others into a world that emphasizes the contributions and accomplishments African Americans made in shaping our divisive culture while vividly describing how black people managed to survive their enslavement despite obstacles such as lynchings Black Codes Jim Crow laws and legal segregation An Evening with Frederick Douglass provides a glimpse into the life of a much admired orator and abolitionist who accomplished great feats during an ugly time in American history

Black Judas John David Smith, 2019-11-15 William Hannibal Thomas 1843 1935 served with distinction in the U S Colored Troops in the Civil War in which he lost an arm and was a preacher teacher lawyer state legislator and journalist following Appomattox In many publications up through the 1890s Thomas espoused a critical though optimistic black nationalist ideology After his mid twenties however Thomas began exhibiting a self destructive personality one that kept him in constant trouble with authorities and always on the run His book The American Negro 1901 was his final self destructive act Attacking African Americans in gross and insulting language in this utterly pessimistic book Thomas blamed them for the contemporary Negro problem and argued that the race required radical redemption based on improved character not changed color Vague in his recommendations Thomas implied that blacks should model themselves after certain mulattoes most notably William Hannibal Thomas Black Judas is a biography of Thomas a publishing history of The American Negro and an analysis of that book s significance to American racial thought The book is based on fifteen years of research including research in postamputation trauma and psychoanalytic theory on selfhatred to assess Thomas s metamorphosis from a constructive race critic to a black Negrophobe John David Smith argues that his radical shift resulted from key emotional and physical traumas that mirrored Thomas s life history of exposure to white racism and intense physical pain Encyclopedia of the Sixties Abbe A. Debolt,James S. Baugess,2011-12-12

Comedian Robin Williams said that if you remember the 60s you weren t there This encyclopedia documents the people places movements and culture of that memorable decade for those who lived it and those who came after Encyclopedia of the Sixties A Decade of Culture and Counterculture surveys the 1960s from January 1960 to December 1969 Nearly 500 entries cover everything from the British television cult classic The Avengers to the Vietnam War and the civil rights movement The two volume work also includes biographies of artists architects authors statesmen military leaders and cinematic stars concentrating on what each individual accomplished during the 1960s with brief postscripts of their lives beyond the period There was much more to the Sixties than flower power and LSD and the entries in this encyclopedia were compiled with an eye to providing a balanced view of the decade Thus unlike works that emphasize only the radical and revolutionary aspects of the period to the exclusion of everything else these volumes include the political and cultural Right taking a more academic than nostalgic approach and helping to fill a gap in the popular understanding of the era Diverse Pathways

Kevin J. A. Thomas,2014-06-01 Africans are among the fastest growing immigrant groups in the United States Although they are racially and ethnically diverse few studies have examined how these differences affect their patterns of incorporation into society This book is the first to highlight the role of race and ethnicity Arab ethnicity in particular in shaping the experiences of African immigrants It demonstrates that American conceptions of race result in significant inequalities in the ways in which African immigrants are socially integrated Thomas argues that suggestions that Black Africans are model minorities who have overcome the barriers of race are misleading showing that Black and Arab ethnicity Africans systematically experience less favorable socioeconomic outcomes than their White African counterparts Overall the book makes three critical arguments First historical and contemporary constructions of race have important implications for understanding the dynamics of African immigration and settlement in the United States Second there are significant racial inequalities in the social and economic incorporation of contemporary African immigrants Finally Arab ethnicity has additional implications for understanding intra racial disparities in incorporation among contemporary African immigrants In general these arguments are foundational for understanding the diversity of African immigrant experiences Bibliographic Index ,2008 The Comedy of War Earnest N. Bracey,2006-10-30 The Comedy of War is an overview of military politics strategy and the causes of war utilizing books and films as source texts The Art of War by Sun Tzu on War by Prussian General Carl von Clausewitz and The Butter Battle by Dr Seuss the films Antz and A Bug's Life This work offers systematic interpretations of what goes on before and after war and the political and strategic implications of warfare It provides interesting and plausible explanations for the contentious relationship of military officers and civilian leaders ultimately questioning what happens when the definitions of military and civilian activities become blurred Slavery and the Politics of Place Elizabeth A.

Bohls,2014-10-23 This book analyzes representations of the places of British slavery Africa the Caribbean and Britain in writings by planters slaves and travellers Becoming African Americans Clare Corbould,2009-03-31 In 2000 the United States census allowed respondents for the first time to tick a box marked African American in the race category The new option marked official recognition of a term that had been gaining currency for some decades Africa has always played a role in black identity but it was in the tumultuous period between the two world wars that black Americans first began to embrace a modern African American identity Following the great migration of black southerners to northern cities after World War I the search for roots and for meaningful affiliations became subjects of debate and display in a growing black public sphere Throwing off the legacy of slavery and segregation black intellectuals activists and organizations sought a prouder past in ancient Egypt and forged links to contemporary Africa In plays pageants dance music film literature and the visual arts they aimed to give stature and solidity to the American black community through a new awareness of the African past and the international black world Their consciousness of a dual identity anticipated the hyphenated identities of new immigrants in the years after World War II and an emerging sense of what it means to be a modern American Voices and Places Lene Asp,2024-09-24 This dissertation challenges the conventional narrative of Danish colonial history by critiquing the predominant reliance on textual records and archives as primary carriers of historical knowledge Through case studies focused on landscape and landscaping practices it offers an alternative approach to understanding the past by actively engaging with material heritage in what is conceptualized as a vibrant archive Utilizing interdisciplinary and practice led methodologies from cultural and memory studies to ecocriticism the research examines and engages with colonial history through case studies in dialog with contemporary interlocutors Emphasizing the dynamic nature of landscapes as vibrant archives in the making building on Jane Bennett's concept of vibrant matter the dissertation underscores their capacity to both shape and be shaped by diverse actors and forces This perspective prioritizes ethical considerations in preserving and interpreting cultural heritage aiming to foster inclusivity and resilience in shaping future landscapes As landscapes embody multiple pasts that transcend national borders they reveal a global network of interconnected material heritage However prevailing historical understandings often prioritize certain discursive national formations limiting a comprehensive grasp of global connectivity By exploring contemporary investments in constructing new relational pasts the dissertation seeks to broaden the analytical scope and challenge such dominant narratives Through an exploration of colonial trauma and the enduring impacts of historical violence the research delves into the entangled relationships between past present and future Additionally the dissertation investigates the role of sound recordings in creating immersive narratives and enhancing the communication of findings offering insights into preservation efforts cultural revitalization projects and community led initiatives in a contemporary context Throughout the research there is a consistent advocacy for a more just and inclusive approach to caring for the colonial archive within the context of colonial exploitation and ecological crisis This emphasis on interconnectedness across social environmental and cultural dynamics highlights the urgent need to reckon with colonial legacies to promote social and environmental justice Denna avhandling utmanar den konventionella berättelsen om dansk kolonialhistoria genom att kritisera den rådande skrivningen som skrivna dokument och arkiv har i förmedlingen av historisk kunskap Via fallstudier som fokuserar på landskap och landskapspraktiker erbjuder den ett alternativt tillvägagångssätt för att förstå det förflutna genom att aktivt engagera sig med materiellt arv i det som konceptualiseras som ett vibrerande arkiv Med hjälp av tvärvetenskapliga och praxisbaserade metoder från kultur och minnesstudier till ekokritik undersöks kolonialhistorien i fallstudier i dialog med samtida samtalspartner Genom att betona landskapens dynamiska natur som vibrerande arkiv under uppbyggnad med utgångspunkt i Jane Bennetts begrepp vibrerande materia framhåller avhandlingen deras förmåga att bilda form och formas av olika aktörer och krafter Detta perspektiv lyfter fram etiska överväganden i bevarandet och tolkningen av kulturellt arv med målet att främja inkludering och resiliens i utformningen av framtida landskap Eftersom landskap förkroppsligar flera skepnader av det förflutna som verskrider nationsgränser vittnar de om ett globalt nätverk av sammanlänkade materiellt arv Emellertid betonar den rådande historiska skrivelsen ofta vissa diskursiva nationella formationer vilket begränsar en heltäckande förståelse av en global sammanlänkning Genom att utforska samtida ansatser att konstruera det förflutna som multipelt och relationellt strävar avhandlingen efter att bredda den analytiska ramen och utmana sådana dominerande berättelser Koloniala trauman och de bestående effekterna av historiskt våld utforskas vilket leder till en fördjupad förståelse av de sammanflätade relationerna mellan förflutet nutid och framtid Dessutom undersöker avhandlingen ljudinspelningars roll i att skapa immersiva berättelser och förbättra kommunikationen av forskningsresultat och erbjuder insikter i bevarandeinsatser kulturella revitaliseringsprojekt och samhällsledda initiativ i en samtida kontext Genomgående förstås i avhandlingen ett mer rättvist och inkluderande tillvägagångssätt när det gäller omsorgen om det koloniala arkivet inom ramen för kolonial exploatering och ekologisk kris Denna betoning på sammanlänkning av sociala miljömässiga och kulturella dynamiker framhåller det akuta behovet av att hantera det koloniala arvet för att främja social och miljömässigt rättvisa

Nations Unbound Linda Basch, Nina Glick Schiller, Christina Szanton Blanc, 2005-09-26 Nations Unbound is a pioneering study of an increasing trend in migration transnationalism Immigrants are no longer rooted in one location By building transnational social networks economic alliances and political ideologies they are able to cross the geographic and cultural boundaries of both their countries of origin and of settlement Through ethnographic studies of immigrant populations the authors demonstrate that transnationalism is something other than expanded nationalism By placing immigrants in a limbo between settler and visitor transnationalism challenges the concepts of citizenship and of nationhood itself

Critical Pedagogy, Race, and Media Susan Flynn, Melanie A. Marotta, 2021-12-30 Critical Pedagogy Race and Media investigates how popular media offers the potential to radicalise what and how we teach for inclusivity Bringing together established scholars in the areas of race and pedagogy this collection offers a unique approach to critical pedagogy by analysing current and historical iterations of race onscreen The book forms theoretical and methodological bridges between the disciplinary fields of pedagogy equality studies and screen studies to explore how we might engage in and critique screen culture for teaching about race It employs Critical Race Theory and paradigmatic frameworks to address some of the social crises in Higher Education classrooms forging new understandings of how notions of race are buttressed by popular media The chapters draw on popular media as a tool to explore the social economic and cultural dimensions of racial injustice and are grouped by Black studies migration studies Indigenous studies Latinx studies and Asian studies Each chapter addresses diversity and the necessity for teaching to include visual media which is reflective of a myriad of students experiences Offering opportunities for using popular media to teach for inclusion in Higher Education this critical and timely book will be highly relevant for academics scholars and students across interdisciplinary fields such as pedagogy human geography sociology cultural studies media studies and equality studies

Making Black History Dominique Haensell, 2021-10-04 This study proposes that rather than trying to discern the normative value of Afropolitanism as an identificatory concept politics ethics or aesthetics Afropolitanism may be best approached as a distinct historical and cultural moment that is a certain historical constellation that allows us to glimpse the shifting and multiple silhouettes which Africa as signifier as real and imagined locus embodies in the globalized yet predominantly Western cultural landscape of the 21st century As such Making Black History looks at contemporary fictions of the African or Black Diaspora that have been written and received in the moment of Afropolitanism Discursively this moment is very much part of a diasporic conversation that takes place in the US and is thus informed by various negotiations of blackness race class and cultural identity Yet rather than interpreting Afropolitan literatures merely as a rejection of racial solidarity as some commentators have they should be read as ambivalent responses to post racial discourses dominating the first decade of the 21st century particularly in the US which oscillate between moments of intense hope and acute disappointment Please read our interview with Dominique Haensell here <https://blog.degruyter.com/de-gruyters-10th-open-access-book-anniversary-dominique-haensell-and-her-winning-title-making-black-history/>
