I Did Something Different...and it Worked Nicole McLellan, 2017-07-26 It s time for an education revolution I Did Something Different and It Worked is based on Nicole McLellan s alternative approaches to working with teenagers She is a rule breaker and rule maker in the classroom and in all aspects of being an advocate for youth This book goes through all of the emotions of a teacher coach parent and teenager It will leave you feeling inspired to look at your day to day role in your career and see how you can switch it up and do things differently Because Nicole is driven by student wellness and creativity she did whatever it took to raise their self esteem and see unprecedented academic results sky rocket Nicole reaches out to teens weekly through her video series teentalks

Must Write Christl Verduyn, Edna Staebler, 2009-08-03 Long before she became the renowned author of the best selling Schmecks cookbooks an award winning journalist for magazines such as Macleans and a creative non fiction mentor Edna Staebler was a writer of a different sort Staebler began serious diary writing at the age of sixteen and continued to write for over eighty years Must Write Edna Staebler s Diaries draws from these diaries selections that map Staebler s construction of herself as a writer and documents her frustrations and struggles along with her desire to express herself in writing She felt she must write that not to write was a denial of life while at the same time she doubted the value of her scribbles Spanning much of the twentieth century each decade is introduced by an overview of key events in the author s life during that period the diaries vividly illuminate both her intensely personal experiences and her broader social world The volume also presents four key examples of Staebler s public writing her first published magazine article her first award winning publication the opening chapter of her book Cape Breton Harbour and her lively account of the Great Cookie War Must Write Edna Staebler s Diaries portrays an ordinary woman s struggle to write in the context of her lived experience All my life I have talked about writing and kept scribbling in my notebook as if that makes me a writer wrote Staebler in 1986 This volume argues that the very act of writing the diaries with all their contradictory accounts of writerly ambition success and conflict made Staebler the writer she yearned to be

HELLO, FROM SOMEWHERE: Stories of the Roads I Traveled (A Memoir) Metty Pellicer, 2015-01-01 Whenever the author has returned from traveling her friends wanted to hear detailed accounts of her experiences She started emailing these accounts Many have kept copies of their favorite pieces and soon everyone wanted the author to compile them into a book From Alaska to Zanzibar the author offers funny and detailed observations of the places people and cultures she has encountered On a visit to Pompeii she tells of frescoes of the various ways ancient Romans copulate In Africa she thrilled to the spectacle of a lion kill of an impala in the wild but was repelled by a cat with its kill of a rat in the alleys of Zanzibar On her 70th birthday she celebrated with a solo walk of the 800 km Camino Santiago de Compostela from St Jean Pied de Port in the French Pyrenees to Galicia in Spain She got lost in the mountains on the first day but the trek was smooth all the way from there After her husband passed in 2004 she continued to travel and reflected on her life A lapsed Catholic she took a

Buddhist retreat in Tassajara trying to inject a spiritual dimension in her life but she found the vegetarian meals and the mountains more alluring Along the way she made many friends young and old who enriched her life and who showed her that life is indeed beautiful Canadiana ,1991 Our Lives, Our Heritage Angela J Carter,2019-11-29 Imagine leaving all you know to come to a country where the majority of people are a different colour from you and have a different culture from yours You aspire to create a better life for yourself and your family but you are told you can t work without Canadian experience While some people accept and even welcome you others refuse to sit next to you on the bus Would you stay Some of the 38 seniors featured in Our Lives Our Heritage were part of a small wave of Caribbean immigrants who arrived in Canada in the late 50s and 60s under the West Indian Domestic Scheme Others were able to immigrate to Canada when a family member sponsored them Some came as visitors stayed and faced a life in the shadows until they became legal immigrants Yet no matter how they arrived all chose to stay in Canada Here they survived thrived and helped to build the communities they joined Their stories are an important piece of Canada s social history and serve as a reminder that immigrants have and still do build and strengthen our country Kabuki Library Volume 3 Various,2016-07-26 This edition collects Kabuki The Alchemy originally published by the Marvel Comics imprint Icon Prometheus Untold originally published in Prometheus Eternal by the Philadelphia Museum of Art and Locust Moon Press Lil Kabuki in Dreamland originally published in Little Nemo Dream Another Dream by Locust Moon Press Flying Dutchman originally published in Comic Book Tattoo by Image Comics and Kabuki The Psy chic originally published in Dark Horse Presents Volume 3 1 by Dark Horse Comics Homeless Nicolas Wilson, Humanity has been decimated by a violent new species that nests in any enclosed spaces and slaughters everything unfortunate enough to come indoors Mitch is a Wall Banger an explosives expert who cracks buildings exposing them to air and sunlight to kill these invasive organisms When a friend of Mitch s asks for help tracking down a murderer Mitch recruits Cori a Shadow Runner who races through infested spaces to gather supplies and saleable loot But this terrifying contagion isn t the only danger as their world descends into a harrowing marathon against oversupplied militias murderous gangs self righteous survivors and all out starvation Keywords Post Apocalypse Post Apocalyptic Fiction Action Horror Thriller Horror Supernatural Horror Apocalypse Wasteland Science Fiction Dystopian Apocalypse Paranormal Out of Place Luann Good Gingrich,2016-08-12 The flow of migrants from south to north and east to west carries with it growing concerns about the economic integration political incorporation and social inclusion of newcomers and their children But what happens when a group of people deliberately excludes themselves from mainstream society How can social policies human services and communities best understand and respond to them In Out of Place Luann Good Gingrich explores social inclusion and exclusion in relation to the approximately 60 000 Low German speaking Mennonites who have migrated from traditionally self sufficient and agrarian colonies in Latin America to rural areas of Canada By examining the free market principles that organize the human services industry the author exposes the inherent conflict that arises when this market logic is imposed on a group that does not embrace these ideals The author s innovative approach to social policy and human services which emphasizes the relationship between dominant and subordinate cultures encourages us to find new ways to authentically engage with difference and bridge the gaps that divide us Seth's Personal Canadian Vernacular Seth,2017-01-01 Seth s Creating a Personal Vernacular Canadian Design Style puts forth a detailed explanation of the influence of the Vimy Ridge memorial on the design of The Collected Doug Wright Maiden, Warrior, Mother, Crone Julie Peters,2025-07-01 Goddesses are not only powerful spiritual figures they are also archetypes that represent our deepest feelings and most powerful experiences They are exiles witches queens lovers grievors rage filled warriors playful beauties despairing crones and hopeful maidens They can move with us through the cycles of our lives teaching us over and over again what can be learned from our most difficult experiences Through the stories of goddesses and mythic figures from around the world we will learn how exile makes us powerful how grief is a form of love how protest and play can work together how rage is a necessary aspect of forgiveness how loneliness can be a magical form of desire and how despair always sits right next to hope This book will explore a range of goddesses including Eve Lilith Inanna Persephone Kali The Morrigan and more spanning mythology from the East to the West Learn how these divine feminine archetypes are with you in times of struggle and a part of you in times of strength Framed around the archetypes of maiden warrior mother and crone this book looks at how embodying the power of the goddesses can be a balm in hard times and help readers to connect with and feel how important their emotions and their divine feminine power can be Greeks of Vancouver George James Patterson,1976-01-01 An examination of the unparalleled retention of cultural traditions by Greek immigrants in the Kitsilano region of Vancouver British Columbia Published in English Dieter Misgeld Hossein Mesbahian,Trevor Norris,2017-04-17 Professor Dieter Misgeld taught Philosophy of Education at the University of Toronto for over 30 years His retirement lent occasion for a series of lengthy interviews ranging from his years in Heidelberg where he studied philosophy in its history based on philosophical hermeneutics with Gadamer participated in debates about Hegel with Heidegger and saw Habermas begin his career to his interest in Richard Rorty encounter with Buddhism and reflections on global politics and the new security regime With Dieter Misgeld we see the seductions of philosophy when studied among this centuries greatest practitioners What emerges in the book is a pedagogy of hope based on Misgeld s own utopian aspirations emancipatory politics and caution about philosophy Misgeld argues that philosophy is no longer helpful for any project of social and political change that the problems of the world today are political rather than philosophical Thus it is political engagement rather than philosophical reflection that is called for Considering the stature of his teachers and the depth of his own philosophical capabilities his insistence on the limitations of philosophy compels us to reflect on our own assumptions about the promise of philosophy What emerges is the grounding of thought in the personal character of philosophical reflection and the drama of ideas as they unfold throughout a lifetime Taking Your Place at the Table

Joseph JB Bensmihen, 2017-08-01 Taking Your Place at the Table is the first of its kind on the art of becoming an insider It focuses closely on three topics 1 getting to the table moving from the outside to the inside 2 using your insider status wisely once you get there and 3 leaving the table gracefully when the time is right Joseph JB Bensmihen has fine tuned the art of getting to the table while becoming a millionaire and a highly successful business leader He has given hundreds of talks at a wide range of venues from Chautauqua Institute to Yeshiva University to Friendship Circle events At age six he talked his way into a meeting with Canadian Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau since then he has met with three presidents Vice President Pence and many senators and has advised multiple members of Congress Photography as Activism Michelle

Bogre, 2024-11-25 This fully revised and updated second edition of Photography as Activism is both a study of activist photography and a call to action It offers students and documentary photographers insights into the theory history philosophy and practice of photography as activism The book is lavishly illustrated with 85 key historical and contemporary images Chapters have been revised to include contemporary ideas about representation gaze agency and decolonizing the camera as well as an expanded history that includes work from the global South and the civil rights movements in the US A new fourth chapter focuses on activist practices that go beyond traditional reportage It features 19 new interviews and updates on the original interviews Photographers talk about their practices the challenges they face in the twenty first century advice on working with NGOs and non profits and how to form partnerships to expand the dissemination of their work Photography as Activism is an essential text for courses on documentary and photojournalism and those that explore art as social change more broadly but also a call to action for young photographers to pick up their cameras and advocate for change

Inhabited Phillip Vannini, April Vannini, 2021-11-15 People are key elements of wild places At the same time human entanglements with wild ecologies involve extractivism the growth of resource based economies and imperial colonial expansion activities that are wreaking havoc on our planet Through an ethnographic exploration of Canada's ten UNESCO Natural World Heritage sites Inhabited reflects on the meanings of wildness wilderness and natural heritage As we are introduced to local inhabitants and their perspectives Phillip Vannini and April Vannini ask us to reflect on the colonial and dualist assumptions behind the received meaning of wild challenging us to reimagine wildness as relational and rooted in vitality Over the three years they spent in and around these sites they learned from Indigenous and non Indigenous peoples about their entanglements with each other and with non human animals rocks plants trees sky water and spirits The stories actions and experiences they encountered challenge conventional narratives of wild places as uninhabited by people and disconnected from culture and society While it might be tempting to dismiss the idea of wildness as outdated in the Anthropocene era Inhabited suggests that rethinking wildness offers a better if messier way forward Part geography and anthropology part environmental and cultural studies and part politics and ecology Inhabited balances a genuine love of nature's vitality with a culturally responsible understanding of its interconnectedness with more than human ways of life

The Man's Outrageous Demands Elizabeth Lennox, 2009-09-10 Royal obligations be damned Sam Montrose was too much Too arrogant too irritating too intelligent too everything for Princess Marabeth's peace of mind He would never do for a royal husband despite what everyone thinks And oh why does that man always have to be around when she makes a fool of herself Too bad she can't keep herself out of his arms To make matters worse his touch only inflames her desire for the man to heights she's terrified of investigating
