Places and Spaces for Preschool and Primary (indoors) Jeanne Vergeront, 1987 HOW TO SET UP INDOOR SPACES FOR EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION Early Learning Environments that Work Rebecca T. Isbell, Betty Exelby, 2001 Noting that the early care and education environment is a vital contribution to children's learning this book examines the early childhood learning environment with the vision of making it a place where young children will be physically emotionally esthetically and intellectually nurtured The chapters are 1 The Power of the Environment and Its Impact on Children 2 Contemporary Childcare Spaces 3 The Teacher's New Role Designer 4 Principles of Meaningful Environments 5 Aspects of Quality Environments for Children 6 Assessing What You Have 7 Making a Plan That Works for You 8 The Designer's Toolbox 9 Enriching the Environment including ideas for using displays planning work and sitting spaces and growing plants and 10 Extending Your Understanding including classic resources about early childhood environments Each chapter includes detailed illustrations and photographs to assist teachers in setting up a classroom The book's 10 appendices include an inventory form equipment checklist team inventory storage ideas and an anthropometric chart for a child scaled environment Contains 79 references KB Cities for Children Sheridan Bartlett, Roger Hart, David Satterthwaite, Ximena de la Barra, Alfredo Missair, 2016-04-29 Urban authorities and organizations are responsible for providing the basic services that affect the lives of urban children Cities for Children is intended to help them understand and respond to the rights and requirements of children and adolescents It looks at the responsibilities that authorities face and discusses practical measures for meeting their obligations in the context of limited resources and multiple demands While the book emphasizes the challenges faced by local government it also contains information that would be useful to any groups working to make urban areas better places for children Cities for Children begins by introducing the concept history and content of children's rights and the obligations they create for local authorities The volume then goes on to look at a variety of contentious issues such as housing community participation working children community health education and juvenile justice The final section of the book discusses the challenge of establishing systems of governance that can promote the economic security social justice and environmental care essential for the realization of children's rights It follows through the practical implications for the structure policies and practices of local authorities Written by the top experts in the field of children's issues and including a resource section which lists publications and organizations that can provide further information and support this volume is a must for all involved in planning for and the protection of children within the urban environment Places and Spaces for Preschool and Primary Jeanne Vergeront, 1987 Facility Design for Early Childhood Programs National Association for the Education of Young Children, 1989 Let's Build Pamela C. Phelps, 2012 Blocks are a key teaching tool in any early childhood program Through well planned teacher supported block play experiences young children can build math language and social skills Let's Build provides educators of young children with guidance in how to create early childhood

environments that support children's natural need to play. It includes strategies for creating and scaffolding the block play experience, recommends children's books that support the learning and outlines ways to match behaviors, content, and concepts to learning standards. More than just a collection of activities, lesson plans are based on ten broad themes including Large Buildings, Around the World, Wild Animals, Ways to Travel, and Our Families and Ourselves. Early Childhood Programs Katherine Haskill Read, Pat Gardner, Barbara Child Mahler, 1993. A Practical Guide to Early Childhood Planning, Methods, and Materials Evelyn A. Petersen, 1996. This very practical Guide is aimed at helping pre-service and inservice teachers put early childhood theories and information into daily practice. Aimed at long range, short range, and daily lesson planning, its coverage of such topics as How to Plan and Document Individualized Teaching and Creating Developmentally Appropriate Lesson Plans should be useful to anyone working with young children. An excellent, very complete book with step-by-step suggestions for real world planning and implementation of developmentally appropriate learning experiences for 3 to 5 year olds. Journal of Nursery Education, 1995. Young Children, 2000.

Children's Environments, 1995. Room to Grow, 1990. Comprehensive Bibliography on Child Care and Preschool Design, 1994. Student Study Guide Ruth K. Steinbrunner, 1999-09-24. Resource Catalog, 1995. This catalogue of early childhood resources represents the current materials available from the Ohio Department of Education Division of Early Childhood Education Information Dissemination Project housed at the Central Ohio Special Education Regional Resource Center COSERRC. These instructional and professional materials reflect a balance of items that will serve all children typically developing and those with disabilities, ages birth age eight. The collection also contains resources relating to school age child care programs. Transdisciplinary Play-based Intervention Toni W. Linder, 1993. Extends the presentation made in Transdisciplinary Play Based Assessment Linder 1990, translating principles into intervention strategies and techniques for facilitating cognitive, social, emotional, communication, and language and sensorimotor development. Comb binding. Annotation copyright by Book News Inc, Portland, OR. Through the Looking Glass Sheryl Nicolson, Susan G. Shipstead, 1998. A detailed text on early childhood classroom observation uniting solid methodological instruction with a broad understanding of children's development. This second edition integrates concepts from the National Association for the Education of Young Children's Code of Ethical Conduct and illustrates. Creative Thinking and Arts-based Learning Joan P. Isenberg, Mary Renck Jalongo, 2006. Creative Thinking and Arts Based Learning prepares preservice and inservice teachers to know why children's creative thinking and play are so important, know about children's play and creative thinking, and also know how to provide these experiences within the curriculum. It contains extensive coverage of the roles, responsibilities, and strategies that lead to a more child-centered play-based curriculum. An Applied Approach. Many instructional guidelines and classroom strategies are presented throughout the text for integrating creative thinking and play into learning. Cases about preschoolers, K-2nd graders, and 3rd-4th graders open each chapter and show readers how teachers infuse the arts into learning Meeting Standards This new feature discusses how to provide for creativity in classrooms while also meeting state and national standards Frequently Asked Questions Another new feature poses common questions about issues such as what materials and resources to use how to adapt environments for diverse learners and how to foster and assess creative thought Misconceptions are dispelled with research based answers A Theoretical Approach Solid theory underlies all of the content The authors experience as university professors and practitioners is evident in their clear presentation of relevant theory A Reflective Approach Teacher s Reflections in each chapter tell readers what other preservice and inservice teachers are thinking and doing in their classrooms relative to their experiences with the arts Resources Instructor s Manual and test Bank PowerPoint Slides Better Homes and Centers ,1991 Creative Activities for Young Children Mary Mayesky,2006 In this very special book teachers parents and care givers will be exposed to hundreds of age appropriate activities for young children through grade 5 all aimed at promoting creativity through art activities across the curriculum The author presents a wealth of information about developing creativity in children and in their adult educators with such activities as art and food recipes finger plays and poems and through the use of such resources as book and software lists advice for choosing children s books hundreds of resource Web sites and much more Readers will appreciate the sound theoretical base presented for the hundreds of practical activities designed to encourage creativity in children and their educators This One s for You and Think About It sections make the text more interesting by expanding coverage to related thought provoking research in early childhood education This book is a must have for those looking to bring creativity to young children in a very engaging way
