Race Politics Partnership In The Feder:

The Politics and Economics of Decolonization in Africa Andrew Cohen, 2017-05-26 The slow collapse of the European colonial empires after 1945 provides one of the great turning points of twentieth century history With the loss of India however the British under Harold Macmillan attempted to enforce a second colonial occupation supporting the efforts of Sir Andrew Cohen of the Colonial Office to create a Central African Federation Drawing on newly released archival material The Politics and Economics of Decolonization offers a fresh examination of Britain's central African territories in the late colonial period and provides a detailed assessment of how events in Britain Africa and the UN shaped the process of decolonization The author situates the Central African Federation which consisted of modern day Zambia Zimbabwe and Malawi in its wider international context shedding light on the Federation's complex relationships with South Africa with US Presidents Dwight Eisenhower and John F Kennedy and with the expanding United Nations The result is an important history of the last days of the British Empire and the beginnings of a more independent African continent

The British Labour Movement and Imperialism Billy Frank, Craig Horner, David Stewart, 2010-05-11 With Foreword by Tony Benn This edited collection explores the British labour movement's relationship with imperialism in the period 1800-1982 through nine inter-connected articles Labour historians have tended to neglect the labour movement's interaction with imperialism preferring to concentrate on industrial relations internal factionalism the Labour Party trade union alliance and economic policymaking In order to redress the balance this book takes a broad chronological overview of the subject and engages with key themes ranging from trade union interaction with empire and the influence of popular imperial culture to post-war colonial development and responses to post-colonialism Taking stock both of the labour movement in a broader context and of new approaches to the history of British imperialism the collection combines the work of leading authorities on labour history with recent scholarly research By blending this combination of economic social political and cultural analyses it makes a substantial contribution to the debates surrounding the legacy of imperialism and the evolution of the British labour movement The book will be of interest to academics researchers teachers and students of modern British political social economic and cultural history It will also appeal to Labour Party members and labour movement activists

Political Power and Colonial Development in British Central Africa 1938-1960s Alan Cousins, 2022-12-30 This book focuses on the late colonial history of Zambia and Malawi which between 1953 and 1963 were part of the Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland. Although there were many links in their history and between their populations the two territories British protectorates under Colonial Office control contrasted greatly in power structures in their economies and in their development. Europeans living in Northern Rhodesia with a power base in the mining economy were able to establish a dominant position in the territory after the Second World War. By the 1950s it looked as though they would have with Southern Rhodesian Europeans a long hegemony gaining independence from Britain as a new Dominion which would mean control over both Northern Rhodesia and Nyasaland through the Federation. Thus white ethnicity and ideology are essential factors in this book relating to the struggle for power from just before the Second World War up to the 1960s. However crises in 1959 and 1960 led to the collapse of the Federation. A second focus is on issues of social and economic development. For Africans in Nyasaland and in rural parts of Northern Rhodesia there was a relatively weak economy in this period a pattern of limited cash crop production while many people became caught up in labour migration subordinate to powerful European dominated economic forces within southern Africa. This meant that colonial policies aimed at rural development were fundamentally flawed. The book also looks at the actual nature of rural economic change as opposed to colonial policies and discusses alternative visions of the future which were put forward. The argument is put that historians have often concentrated on the activities of the main nationalist movements in Nyasaland and Northern Rhodesia seeing them as bringing progress away from colonialism and towards independence. Here there is an attempt to draw out the complexities of life and a variety of responses in the colonial situation progress coming in a number of forms but not always being achieved.

Administration in Zambia William Tordoff, 1980 Historical Dictionary of Zambia Bizeck Jube Phiri, Thokozile Shaba, 2023-08-15 Zambia is a nation with a long record of peace that has enjoyed decades of constitutional rule and even in recent years an increasingly competitive democracy. Peace constitutionalism democracy and nationhood face constant challenges such as in the elections of 2006 when the ugly language of ethnic confrontation found renewed currency. Moreover Zambia's economic record and prospects are less equivocal after over four decades per capita incomes are lower than they were at the dawn of independence. remarkable figure whose journey intertwined with the colonial and post colonial histories of Northern Rhodesia now Zambia On one hand Gore Browne was a statesman and advocate for African rights championing progressive legislation and fostering dialogue that challenged the colonial status quo As Northern Rhodesia s representative at pivotal conferences he tirelessly advanced African interests in imperial circles On the other he was a quintessential English squire managing his sprawling Shiwa Ngandu estate while hosting an eclectic mix of titled guests political figures and African leaders long before such integration was socially acceptable among the settler elite His life exemplified the rare convergence of privilege reformist ideals and a profound commitment to equitable race relations in colonial Africa Drawing from an extraordinary archive of personal letters diaries and official documents this biography sheds light on the forces that shaped Gore Browne s transformation from aristocratic officer to a pioneer of African nationalism The work examines his family ties his wartime experiences and the moral convictions that led him to embrace African self governance Through interviews with key figures including President Kenneth Kaunda and meticulous research across continents the book delves into Gore Browne s complex identity and enduring influence Combining political history with personal narrative Black Heart offers an intimate portrait of a man who stood out as both a settler and a champion of African liberation making a profound impact on the trajectory of modern Zambia This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1977

Partners in Gatekeeping Lauren Braun-Strumfels,2023-11-01 Partners in Gatekeeping illuminates a complex distinctly transnational story that recasts the development of U S immigration policies and institutions Lauren Braun Strumfels challenges existing ideas about the origins of remote control by paying particular attention to two programs supported by the Italian government in the 1890s a government outpost on Ellis Island called the Office of Labor Information and Protection for Italians and rural immigrant colonization in the American South namely a plantation in Arkansas called Sunnyside Through her examination of these distinct locations Braun Strumfels argues that we must consider Italian migration as an essential piece in the history of how the United States became a gatekeeping nation In particular she details how an asymmetric partnership emerged between the United States and Italy to manage that migration In so doing Partners in Gatekeeping reveals that the last ten years of the nineteenth century were critical to the establishment of the modern gatekeeping system By showing the roles of Italian programs in this migration system Braun Strumfels establishes antecedents for remote control beyond the well studied Chinese and Mexican cases Canadian Annual Review of Politics and Public Affairs 2002 David Mutimer,2008-04-12 Both at home and abroad the events of 2002 contrasted significantly with those of the previous year something for which most Canadians could be extremely grateful To no one s surprise however the year was dominated by the issues that had captivated the world s attention at the end of 2001 the attacks on the United States and the subsequent war on terror declared by the Bush administration Canada had chosen to stand shoulder to shoulder with its southern neighbour in response to those attacks and in 2002 the meaning of that commitment became clear as Canada entered into full scale combat operations in Afghanistan suffered its first casualties and ended the year torn over whether to follow the United States should it choose to send troops to Iraq On the home front a battle of an altogether different magnitude reached a turning point with the seeming resolution of the long running struggle between Prime Minister Jean Chr tien and Minister of Finance Paul Martin even though by year s end it was by no means clear who had actually won Similarly a number of the consequences of the 9 11 attacks remained unresolved Changes to legislation regarding national security failed to be approved Ottawa software engineer Maher Arar who was arrested and deported by the United States on suspicion of terrorist links languished in a Syrian jail despite official protest by the Canadian Government and the war drums were beating loudly around Iraq Continuing in the tradition of excellence for which the series has long been acclaimed the Canadian Annual Review of Politics and Public Affairs 2002 presents detailed information and insightful analyses of issues and events that have had a lasting impact both nationally and internationally Social Exclusion and Inner City Europe S. Mangen,2004-05-25 The searches by European Union major states for joined up approaches to inner city regeneration are examined thematically through a focus on policy evolution since the mid 1970s Key issues addressed include the physical social employment and urban security agenda The product of long term research drawing on extensive qualitative and quantitative sources at national level backed by in depth case study investigation of five large cities the book assesses how contemporary urban rejuvenation is being regulated including the increasing contribution of the European Union A Handbook of Politics for 1876 Edward McPherson,2025-08-08 Reprint of the original first published in 1876 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage A
