wise woman and guardian of the mysterious cave The Beauty of Melancholy and British Women Writers, 1670-1720 Laura Alexander, 2019-11-15 This book considers melancholy language in representative works by several British women writers in late Stuart England To understand how these women writers understood and reframed the discussion about melancholy and women s experience of suffering in their art it turns to the twentieth century French feminist theorist Julia Kristeva whose radical work on melancholy in Black Sun Depression and Melancholia 1989 provides an alternative psychoanalytic perspective for considering melancholy discourse created by women experiencing alienation depression and anguish in earlier periods Kristeva offers a theoretical lens for understanding loss as a significant and ongoing perspective on life experience that finds expression through art and language This text argues that early women writers created a new expressive mode revising existing models to account for their own losses during a time of cultural and political transitioning in England These writers provide a melancholy aesthetic in their works or depict depressed female figures reflecting artistic angst and a new discourse within language for articulating pain Religious Sounds Beyond the Global North Carola Lorea, Rosalind Hackett, 2025-10-01 What makes sounds religious How are communities shaped by the things they hear play or listen to This book foregrounds connections between sounds bodies and media in the private and public life of communities beyond the Global North analyzing diverse configurations of the category of sound and various sonic ontologies to usher in a more inclusive global anthro history of religious sounds Religious Sounds Beyond the Global North implements a sonic turn in the study of religion by engaging with a diversity of auditory musical and embodied practices Dislodging the Global North as the main point of reference for studies on religious sound in this volume editors Carola E Lorea and Rosalind I J Hackett propose an acoustemology of the post secular with an emphasis on Asia as method Unsettling and expanding existing discussions on senses media and power the editors present religious sounds as co creating subjectivities and collectivities that coalesce around audible aesthetic formations demonstrating that religious sounds are not only produced by certain religious traditions but also produce communities shaping the self and sensitivity of those who participate
