Red Suitcase American Poets Continuum:

Red Suitcase Naomi Shihab Nye, 1994 A collection of poetry in which the author draws from ordinary people and events for subject matter

Red Suitcase Naomi Shihab Nye, 2013-12-20 Poet teacher essayist anthologist songwriter and singer Naomi Shihab Nye is one of the country's most acclaimed writers Her voice is generous her vision true her subjects ordinary people and ordinary situations which when rendered through her language become remarkable In this her fourth full collection of poetry we see with new eyes a grandmother's scarf an alarm clock a man carrying his son on his shoulders Valentine for Ernest Mann You can't order a poem like you order a taco Walk up to the counter and say I'll take two and expect it to be handed back to you on a shiny plate Still I like you spirit Anyone who says Here's my address write me a poem deserves something in reply So I'll tell a secret instead poems hide In the bottoms of our shoes they are sleeping They are the shadows drifting across our ceilings the moment before we wake up What we have to do is live in a way that lets us find them Once I knew a man who gave his wife two skunks for a valentine He couldn't understand why she was crying I thought they had such beautiful eyes And he was serious He was a serious man who lived in a serious way Nothing was ugly just because the world said so He really liked those skunks So he re-invented them as valentines and they became beautiful At least to him And the poems that had been hiding in the eyes of skunks for centuries crawled out and curled up at his feet Maybe if we re-invent whatever our lives give us we find poems Check your garage the odd sock in your drawer the person you almost like but not quite And let me know

A Sense of Belonging Jennifer Allen, 2023-10-10 Too often new teachers enter the profession excited to make a difference in the lives of children only to find themselves disillusioned and overwhelmed with the expectations of the classroom In A Sense of Belonging Jennifer Allen shares her stories and journey in creating an infrastructure of support for new teachers within her school district A Sense of Belonging provides research-based practical ideas on how to support new teachers while honoring the innovation idealism and optimistic enthusiasm that they bring to the classroom From supporting new teachers early in the year with administering and analyzing literacy assessments through using student work to guide instruction to offering ongoing help with curriculum planning Jennifer shares strategies on fostering relationships with new teachers starting before school even begins creating learning environments for new teachers to be reflective practitioners coaching new teachers in their classrooms and providing opportunities for them to observe their peers in action supporting new teachers beyond their first year through gradual release of support over their first several years in the classroom and facilitating professional development opportunities where new and veteran teachers learn alongside one another Jennifer believes and her book demonstrates that when schools embrace encourage and celebrate the work of new teachers they establish a supportive environment that fosters excellence and improves retention
