Red Tears War Famine And Revolution In Ethiopia:

Red Tears Dawit Wolde Giorgis, 1989 War Famine and Revolution in Ethiopia The Ethiopian Revolution 1974-1987 Andargachew Tiruneh, 1993-04-08 This book is a comprehensive account of the Ethiopian revolution dealing with the entire span of the revolutionary government's life. Particular emphasis is placed on effectively isolating and articulating the causes and outcomes of the revolution. The author traces the revolution's roots in the weaknesses of the autocratic regime of Haile Selassie, examines the formative years of the revolution in the mid-seventies when the ideology of scientific socialism was espoused by the ruling military council, and finally charts the consolidation of Mengistu Haile Miriam's power from 1977 to the adoption of a new constitution in 1987. In examining these events, Dr. Tiruneh makes extensive use of primary sources written in the national official language. He was also the first Ethiopian nation to write a book on this subject. This book is thus a unique account of a fascinating period, capturing the mood of the revolution as never before, yet firmly grounded in scholarship. The Human Cost of African Migrations, Droughts Donald A. Wilhite, 2016-09-17 Drought draws together contributions from over 75 leading international researchers in the field to present the most comprehensive body of research on the physical and social dimensions of drought to date. Including an extensive range of case studies covering the most drought-prone and most affected countries, the contributors examine new technology, planning methodologies, and mitigation actions from recent drought experiences worldwide. Following a discussion of the critical concepts of drought, the work is divided into the following additional parts: causes and predictability; monitoring and early warning techniques; impacts and assessment methodologies; links between drought and other global issues; conclusions and future challenges. Little Ethiopia of the Pacific Northwest Joseph W. Scott, 2017-07-05 Little Ethiopia of the Pacific Northwest tells the story of the Ethiopian community in Seattle. The community began with approximately two dozen college students who came to the city during the Ethiopian revolution of 1974. These sojourning students earned college and university degrees but were unable to return home to use them to modernize the developing nation. These stranded students became pioneers who built a micro community in inner-city Seattle. Providing background with an analysis of Seattle's geographic, demographic, social, and economic challenges, this volume studies the students who became asylum seekers, their falls in position, power, prestige, and the income of these elite and non-elite settlers. The authors analyze examples of those who became entrepreneurs and the ingenuity and determination they employed to start successful businesses. The authors examine the challenges imposed on them by a school system that assigned their children to grade levels according to age rather than knowledge. They explore how the American welfare system worked in practice and explain how and why Ethiopians die young in Seattle. This fascinating study will be of interest to sociologists, ethnographers, and regional analysts. Historical Dictionary of Eritrea Dan Connell, 2019-07-15 In 1991 Eritrea won a 30-year war for independence from Ethiopia, and in 1993 it was recognized as Africa's newest nation after more than a century of conquest and occupation by a succession of external powers that included the Ottomans Egypt Italy Great Britain and Ethiopia Each had left its mark while fostering a deep distrust of outsiders and a fierce commitment to Eritrea's separate political identity Eritrea and Ethiopia slipped into a chronic state of no peace no war that kept the entire Horn of Africa off balance for nearly two decades the standoff ended in 2018 when a newly installed Ethiopian prime minister reached out to Eritrea and set in motion a rapid fire series of talks among the states of the African Horn that broke down long standing barriers and raised hopes for a new era of regional peace and cooperation This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Eritrea contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Eritrea

The Human Cost of African Migrations Toyin Falola, Niyi Afolabi, 2007-11-13

In an era of globalization population growth and displacements migration is now a fact of life in a constantly shifting economic and political world order This book contributes to the discourse on the beneficiaries benefactors and the casualties of African displacement While the few existing studies have emphasized economic motivation as the primary factor triggering African migration this volume treats a range of issues economic socio political pedagogical developmental and cultural Organized with a multidisciplinary thrust in mind this book argues that any discussion of African migration whether internal or external must be conceived as only one aspect of a more complex organic and global patterning of flux and reflux necessitated by constantly shifting dynamics of world socio economic cultural and political order

In This Land of Plenty Benjamin Talton, 2019-08-23

On August 7 1989 Congressman Mickey Leland departed on a flight from Addis Ababa with his thirteen member delegation of Ethiopian and American relief workers and policy analysts bound for Ethiopia's border with Sudan This was Leland's seventh official humanitarian mission in his nearly decade long drive to transform U S policies toward Africa to conform to his black internationalist vision of global cooperation antiracism and freedom from hunger Leland's flight never arrived at its destination The plane crashed with no survivors When Leland embarked on that delegation he was a forty four year old deeply charismatic fiercely compassionate black radical American He was also an elected Democratic representative of Houston's largely African American and Latino Eighteenth Congressional District Above all he was a self proclaimed citizen of humanity Throughout the 1980s Leland and a small group of former radical activist African American colleagues inside and outside Congress exerted outsized influence to elevate Africa's significance in American foreign affairs and to move the United States from its Cold War orientation toward a foreign policy devoted to humanitarianism antiracism and moral leadership Their internationalism defined a new era of black political engagement with Africa In This Land of Plenty presents Leland as the embodiment of larger currents in African American politics at the end of the twentieth century But a sober look at his aspirations shows the successes and shortcomings of domestic radicalism and aspirations of politically neutral humanitarianism during the 1980s and the extent to which the decade was a major turning point in U S relations with the African continent Exploring the links between political activism electoral politics and international affairs Benjamin Talton not only details Leland s political career but also examines African Americans successes and failures in influencing U S foreign policy toward African and other Global South countries Insurgent Fragmentation in the Horn of Africa Michael Woldemariam,2018-02-15 When insurgent organizations factionalize and fragment it can profoundly shape a civil war its intensity outcome and duration In this extended treatment of this complex and important phenomenon Michael Woldemariam examines why rebel organizations fragment through a unique historical analysis of the Horn of Africa s civil wars Central to his view is that rebel factionalism is conditioned by battlefield developments While fragmentation is caused by territorial gains and losses counter intuitively territorial stalemate tends to promote rebel cohesion and is a critical basis for cooperation in war As a rare effort to examine these issues in the context of the Horn of Africa region based upon extensive fieldwork this book will interest both scholarly and non scholarly audiences interested in insurgent groups and conflict dynamics Changing Relations Between Churches in Europe and Africa Katharina Kunter,Jens Holger Schøjrring,2008 Proceedings from the conference Changing relationships between churches in Africa and Europe in the 20th century Christian identity in the times of political crises which took place October 8 12 2005 at Makumira University College of Tumaini University in Tanzania Ploughing New Ground Getnet Bekele,2017 In October 2016 the Ethiopian administration declared a State of Emergency in response to anti Government demonstrations and mass riots Officially said to result from subversive activities channelled from Eritrea Egypt and diasporic populations in the West the evidence in fact suggests that the riots stemmed from widespread internal dissatisfaction Large scale land dispossessions following bilateral deals with transnational agribusiness damming of major rivers construction of sugar estates and industry parks as well as urban sprawl have put pressure on agricultural and rural areas Today displacement drought and widening inequalities surround fears of severe food shortages and political instability Drawing on informant testimonies court archives field reports and other sources the author examines these developments in Ethiopia s lake region He shows how transformations over time in spatial politics state society relations and the organization of production and exchange have influenced the situation today and reveals the impact of these changes on a population of smallholder farmers for which agriculture is not only the mainstay of the national economy but a way of life Getnet Bekele is Associate Professor of History at Oakland University MI where he teaches African History and the Environmental and Economic History of Africa and the Global South Accountability for Mass Starvation Bridget Conley,Alex De Waal,Catriona Murdoch,Wayne Jordash QC,2022 This volume explores how famine and mass starvation in our lifetime are the result of man made policies and invariably occur during times of armed conflict It provides expert analysis on defining starvation early warning systems gender and mass starvation the use of sanctions reporting on and memory of famine The Eritrean Struggle for Independence Ruth Iyob,1995 This book is a comprehensive analysis of the country s political history over the past three decades Contemporary Issues on Governance, Conflict and Security in Africa Adeoye O. Akinola, 2023-05-25 This edited volume reflects on some of the important discussions on the trends of governance conflict and security in Africa It explores some of the emerging concerns and offers a holistic understanding of the remote and immediate causes of the conflict and how the neo colonial African states have been structured in a manner that makes violent conflict inevitable The book thereby provides an overview of Africa s security challenges and proffers some sustainable policy options for curtailing lawlessness and armed conflict on the continent Literature is exhaustive about the nexus between governance peace and security however discourse on the impact of new conflict on governance has been scant Understanding these new trends has become a necessity and precondition for sustainable development as reflected in both the African Union AU Agenda 2063 and the United Nations UN Sustainable Development Goals SDGs The Fate of Africa Martin Meredith, 2005-07-05 Traces the history of Africa in the fifty years since the independence era began describing how the withdrawal of Europe s colonial powers influenced the African people and culture The A to Z of Civil Wars in Africa Guy Arnold, 2009-09-02 The A to Z of Civil Wars in Africa covers all of the wars that have occurred in Africa since independence This is done through a chronology broken down by country an introductory essay a bibliography and cross referenced dictionary entries covering the wars conflicts maj The A to Z of Civil Wars in Africa Guy Arnold, 2009-09-02 Ever since the end of World War II and even more so since 1960 when 17 African colonies became independent of colonial rule the African continent has been ravaged by a series of wars These wars have ranged from liberation struggles against former colonial powers to power struggles between different factions in the aftermath of independence They have ranged from border wars between newly independent states to civil wars between ethnic groups As with many conflicts outside forces were drawn into these wars and major powers outside the continent intervened on one side or the other for a variety of reasons political ideology Cold War considerations ethnic alignments and stemming the flow of violence Whether referring to Algeria s struggle for independence from French colonial rule Nigeria s internal struggles to achieve a balanced state after the British departure the Rwandan genocide of 1994 or the current ethnic cleansing in Darfur The A to Z of Civil Wars in Africa covers all of the wars that have occurred in Africa since independence This is done through a chronology broken down by country an introductory essay a bibliography and cross referenced dictionary entries covering the wars conflicts major political and military figures child soldiers mercenaries and blood diamonds Encyclopedia of African History 3-Volume Set Kevin Shillington, 2013-07-04 Covering the entire continent from Morocco Libya and Egypt in the north to the Cape of Good Hope in the south and the surrounding islands from Cape Verde in the west to Madagascar Mauritius and Seychelles in the east the Encyclopedia of African History is a new A Z reference resource on the history of the entire African continent With entries ranging from the earliest evolution of human beings in Africa to the beginning of the twenty first century this comprehensive three volume Encyclopedia is the first reference of this scale and scope Also includes 99 maps Crimes against Humanity in the 21st Century Robert Dubler

SC, Matthew Kalyk, 2018-07-23 In Crimes Against Humanity in the 21st Century Dr Robert Dubler SC and Matthew Kalyk provide a comprehensive analysis of crimes against humanity in international criminal law. The text tracks the crime from its conceptual origins in antiquity to its emergence in customary international law at Nuremberg to the establishment of the modern definition at the Hague with the ICTY, ICTR and ICC and finally to recent state practice and jurisprudence. The text sets out conclusions about the legal elements of the crime and contends that the raison d'être of the crime is located not in the inhumanity of its authors' actions but in the extent to which its authors threaten international peace and security so as to justify international intervention. With a foreword by Geoffrey Robertson QC. The Horn of Africa Peter Woodward, 1996-12-31 Nowhere is the crumbling of state structures more self-evident than in Somalia, the Sudan and Ethiopia. Drawing on a wide range of little-known material, this book presents an overview of structural disintegration in the Horn of Africa from the dual perspectives of domestic and international political developments. The breakdown of these three major states is due, according to Woodward, to the ravages of civil war. He argues that while all three conflicts arise from domestic issues, their scale has been magnified by international involvement, which has also linked the three countries together with Ethiopia as the crux. The Horn of Africa is a study of the national and international dimensions of these conflicts, examining not only the relations between the three countries but also their relations with a variety of regional actors as well as with the superpowers.
