Dangerous Crossings Claire Jean Kim, 2015-04-09 Dangerous Crossings offers an interpretation of the impassioned disputes that have arisen in the contemporary United States over the use of animals in the cultural practices of nonwhite peoples It examines three controversies the battle over the cruelty of the live animal markets in San Francisco s Chinatown the uproar over the conviction of NFL superstar Michael Vick on dogfighting charges and the firestorm over the Makah tribe s decision to resume whaling in the Pacific Northwest after a hiatus of more than seventy years Claire Jean Kim shows that each dispute demonstrates how race and species operate as conjoined logics or mutually constitutive taxonomies of power Analyzing each case as a conflict between single optics the optic of cruelty and environmental harm vs the optic of racism and cultural imperialism she argues for a multi optic approach that takes different forms of domination seriously and thus encourages an ethics of avowal among different struggles

The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
