Redeeming Lost:

Redeeming the Axe-Head Ifeoma Eze, 2018-02-17 In the family settings when the axe head has lost its position things will no longer work for good Beloved I want to remind you that you are a weapon of warfare God's battle axe The situation in your family is waiting for you to change The calamity in this nation country is only waiting for the axe head to come up and face it squarely

Redeeming Words David Michael Kleinberg-Levin, 2013-11-01 Probing study of how literature can redeem the revelatory redemptive powers of language In this probing look at Alfred Döblin's 1929 novel Berlin Alexanderplatz and the stories of W G Sebald Redeeming Words offers a philosophical meditation on the power of language in literature David Kleinberg Levin draws on the critical theory of Benjamin and Adorno the idealism and romanticism of Kant Hegel Hölderlin Novalis and Schelling and the nineteenth and twentieth century thought of Nietzsche Heidegger and Derrida He shows how Döblin and Sebald writers with radically different styles working in different historical moments have in common a struggle against forces of negativity and an aim to bring about in response a certain redemption of language Kleinberg Levin considers the fast paced staccato and hard cut sentences of Döblin and the ghostly languorous and melancholy prose fiction of Sebald to articulate how both writers use language in an attempt to recover and convey this utopian promise of happiness for life in a time of mourning

Beyond the Academy David Thang Moe, 2024-10-11 The term public theology was introduced by Martin E Marty in a 1974 article Since then scholarly discussions on public theology have become more popular in academic circles This book however is about the invitation for moving beyond the academy It provides two reasons for doing so First an overtly academic public theology is in crisis today Although public theology may be flourishing in the academy its relevance for real life is limited Second there is the ecclesial flourishing among grassroots Christian communities across Asia who witness to their lived faith in public and hidden life Their voices are largely unheard due to the gaps between the academy and the church This volume argues that we should consider their voices as key sources for developing a relevant lived Asian public theology The author makes the case for reimagining the paradigm shifts in lived Asian public theology of religions and for bridging the unhappy gaps between the academic and grassroots voices

THE PARABLES OF THE LORD JESUS CHRIST John Sandbek, 2018-06-12 The parables of Jesus should not be studied as individual homilies or proverbs but instead as a series of prophetic installments wherein each parable reveals an aspect of his coming millennial kingdom The focus of all his parables was the kingdom and encompassed four areas of revelation Jesus was sent by his Father to reveal to man eternal truths to redeem the lost sheep of the house of Israel to expound on the prophets and the Law and to preach of the gospel of the Kingdom With these four anointings Jesus assumed the three offices of Prophet Priest and King and used parables to conceal his message from those who would not listen or sought to destroy his ministry As Prophet he foretold of events imminent to his time and the destruction of Jerusalem He became our High Priest to redeem his people and instruct them in righteousness As King his parables reveal to us the grandeur of his coming kingdom
