Redeeming the Past Michael Lapsley (Fr), 2012 In 1990 Fr Michael Lapsley an Anglican priest active in the struggle against apartheid in South Africa opened a letter bomb that nearly killed him Though he survived the blast took both his hands and one of his eyes This memoir tells the story of this horrendous event beginning with the journey that led him there particularly his rising awareness of the radical demands of the gospel and his growing identification with the freedom struggle But that was not the end of his inspiring journey In post apartheid South Africa Fr Lapsley saw a whole nation in need of healing He discovered

Redeeming the Past Linda Goodnight, 2024-12-24 Can repairing an old house Open the door to a new love To make amends for his misspent youth bodyguard John Parker Wisdom vows to turn his late foster mom's property into a home for neglected teenage boys Only there's a catch unexpected co heir Zoey Chavez The pretty widow needs the house proceeds to support her children and she won't let a former bad boy stand in her way Now they have three months to agree on a plan or forfeit their shared inheritance But when John Parker's past complicates things as the deadline looms near will they risk everything for a chance at a forever partnership From Love Inspired Uplifting stories of faith forgiveness and hope House of Hope Book 1 Redeeming the Past Book 2 Keeping His Promise The Healing of Nations Mark R. Amstutz, 2005 How does one forgive an international political transgression as deep as genocide or apartheid Forgiveness is often conceived of as an element of personal morality and even at that it is difficult This book argues that it is also an essential part of political ethics especially when dealing with collective wrongdoing by political regimes In the past a retributive justice demanding prosecution and punishment of all past offenses has kept the international community away from moving on to the next step in regime change Here Mark R Amstutz takes a restorative justice approach calling for nations to account for crimes through truth commissions public apology and repentance reparations and ultimately forgiveness and the lifting of deserved penalties The distinctive feature of forgiveness is the balance it strikes between backward looking accountability and forward looking reconciliation The Healing of Nations combines a theory of the role of forgiveness in public life with four key case studies that test this ethic Argentina Chile Northern Ireland and South Africa Amstutz uses the hard cases to illustrate the promise and limits of forgiving without forgetting

Exclusion & Embrace Miroslav Volf,2010-03-01 Life at the end of the twentieth century presents us with a disturbing reality Otherness the simple fact of being different in some way has come to be defined as in and of itself evil Miroslav Volf contends that if the healing word of the gospel is to be heard today Christian theology must find ways of speaking that address the hatred of the other Reaching back to the New Testament metaphor of salvation as reconciliation Volf proposes the idea of embrace as a theological response to the problem of exclusion Increasingly we see that exclusion has become the primary sin skewing our perceptions of reality and causing us to react out of fear and anger to all those who are not within our ever narrowing circle In light of this Christians must learn that salvation comes not only as we are reconciled to God and not only as we learn to live with one another but as we take the dangerous and costly step of opening ourselves to the other of enfolding him or her in the same embrace with which we have been enfolded by God

Theology of Reconciliation in the Context of Church Relations Rula Khoury Mansour,2020-01-31 Christians are called to be peacemakers in a world rife with conflict but how should Christians respond when the source of strife is not outside the church but within it Built on an in depth analysis of three Palestinian church splits this text examines the cultural and theological implications of intra church conflict in Arab evangelical communities in Israel Translating Miroslav Volf s formative theology of reconciliation into her contemporary Palestinian context Dr Rula Khoury Mansour provides a critical evaluation of both Volf s theory and Palestinian peacemaking models Through her research and analysis Dr Mansour develops a Middle Eastern theology of reconciliation and encourages congregations around the world to develop greater cultural and theological awareness in their quest to experience lasting peace within their churches and wider communities
