Redefining The Egyptian Nation 1930 1945:

Redefining the Egyptian Nation, 1930-1945 Israel Gershoni, I. Gershoni, James P. Jankowski, 2002-08-08 The authors examine the emergence of nationalism among the Egyptian middle class during the 1930s and 1940s and its growing awareness of an Arab and Muslim identity Previously Egypt did not define itself in these terms but adopted a territorial and isolationist outlook It is the revolutionary transformation in Egyptian self understanding which took place during this period that provides the focus of this study The authors demonstrate how the growth of an urban middle class combined with economic and political failures in the 1930s eroded the foundations of the earlier order Alongside domestic events the momentum of Arabism abroad and the impact of events in Palestine necessitated Egyptian regional involvement Egypt's present position as a major player in Arab Muslim and Third World affairs has its roots in the fundamental transition of Egyptian national identity at this time

The Origins of the Libyan Nation Anna Baldinetti, 2014-05-12 This book is concerned with the emergence and construction of the Libyan nation It charts the rise of nationalism out of the colonial era and shows how nationalism developed through an external Libyan diaspora and the influence of Arab nationalism

Modernity in Islamic Tradition Florian Zemmin, 2018-07-23 What does it mean to be modern This study regards the concept of society as foundational to modern self understanding Identifying Arabic conceptualizations of society in the journal al Manar the mouthpiece of Islamic reformism the author shows how modernity was articulated from within an Islamic discursive tradition The fact that the classical term umma was a principal term used to conceptualize modern society suggests the convergence of discursive traditions in modernity rather than a mere diffusion of European concepts

Remembering Cosmopolitan Egypt Deborah Starr, 2009-06-25 Remembering Cosmopolitan Egypt examines the link between cosmopolitanism in Egypt from the nineteenth century through to the mid twentieth century and colonialism While it has been widely noted that such a relationship exists the nature and impact of this dynamic is often overlooked Taking a theoretical literary and historical approach the author argues that the notion of the cosmopolitan is inseparable from and indebted to its foundation in empire Since the late 1970s a number of artistic works have appeared that represent the diversity of ethnic national and religious communities present in Egypt in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries During this period of direct and indirect European domination the cosmopolitan society evident in these texts thrived Through detailed analysis of these texts which include contemporary novels written in Arabic and Hebrew as well as Egyptian films the implications of the close relationship between colonialism and cosmopolitanism are explored This comparative study of the contemporary literary and cultural revival of interest in Egypt s cosmopolitan past will be of interest to students of Middle Eastern Studies Literary and Cultural Studies and Jewish Studies

Mamluks in the Modern Egyptian Mind Il Kwang Sung, 2016-11-25 This book explores how modern Egyptians understand the Mamluks and reveals the ways in which that historical memory is utilized for political and ideological purposes It specifically examines the representations of the Mamluks from two historical periods the Mamluk Sultanate era 1250 1517 and the Mamluks under the Ottoman era 1517 1811 focusing mostly on the years 1760 1811 Although the Mamluks have had a great impact on the Egyptian collective memory and modern thought the subject to date has hardly been researched seriously with most analyses given to stereotypical negative representations of the Mamluks in historical works However many Egyptian historians and intellectuals presented the Mamluk era positively and even symbolized the Sultans as national icons This book sheds light on the heretofore neglected positive dimensions of the multifaceted representations of the Mamluks and addresses the ways in which modern Egyptians utilize that collective memory
