Encountering Islam Paul Auchterlonie,2012-03-24 Long before European empires came to dominate the Middle East Britain was brought face to face with Islam through the activities of the Barbary corsairs For three centuries after 1500 Muslim ships based in North African ports terrorized European shipping capturing thousands of vessels and enslaving hundreds of thousands of Christians Encountering Islam is the fascinating story of one Englishman s experience of life within a Muslim society as both Christian slave and Muslim soldier Born in Exeter around 1662 Joseph Pitts was captured by Algerian pirates on his first voyage in 1678 Sold as a slave in Algiers he underwent forced conversion to Islam Sold again he accompanied his kindly third master on pilgrimage to Mecca so becoming the first Englishman known to have visited the Muslim Holy Places Granted his freedom Pitts became a soldier going on campaign against the Moroccans and Spanish before venturing on a daring escape while serving with the Algiers fleet Crossing much of Italy and Germany on foot he finally reached Exeter seventeen years after he had left Joseph Pitts s A Faithful Account of the Religion and Manners of the Mahometans first published in 1704 is a unique combination of captivity narrative travel account and description of Islam It describes his time in Algiers his life as a slave his conversion his pilgrimage to Mecca the first such detailed description in English Muslim ritual and practice and his audacious escape A Christian for most of his life Pitts also had the advantage of living as a Muslim within a Muslim society Nowhere in the literature of the period is there a more intimate and poignant account of identity conflict Encountering Islam contains a faithful rendering of the definitive 1731 edition of Pitts s book together with critical historical religious and linguistic notes The introduction tells what is known of Pitts s life and places his work against its historical background and in the context of current scholarship on captivity narratives and Anglo Muslim relations of the period Paul Auchterlonie an Arabist worked for forty years as a librarian specializing in Middle Eastern and Islamic studies and from 1981 to 2011 was librarian in charge of the Middle East collections at the University of Exeter He is the author and editor of numerous works on Middle Eastern bibliography and library science and has recently published articles on historical and cultural relations between Britain and the Middle East He is currently an Honorary Research Fellow at the Institute of Arab and Islamic Studies at the University of Exeter      Converting Cultures Dennis Washburn, Kevin Reinhart, 2007-05-30 This volume fundamentally improves our understanding of processes like the secularization of society and the growth of mass ideological movements by looking upon these transformations to modernity as a species of conversion akin to religious conversion The geographical areas covered by the contributors the Ottoman domain India China and Japan provide striking examples of the dynamic force of conversion as a reaction to the tremendous pressures exerted by colonialism and imperialism and by the types of transformations constitutive of modernity      Catalogue Bernard Quaritch (Firm), 1903      Problems in Lexicography Michael Adams, 2022-10-04 Problems in Lexicography is an essential classic work of practical lexicography the practice of writing dictionaries and meta lexicography Originally published over sixty years ago it was based on the proceedings of the Indiana University Conference on Lexicography held November 11 12 1960 It set a standard that still holds today three generations later This critical and historical edition brilliantly researched and presented by Michael Adams explores the enduring legacy of this classic work and promises to extend its life further into the twenty first century Problems in Lexicography A Critical Historical Edition amply demonstrates that this unique work is a book of historical significance and a worthy prologue to lexicography s present      Persian Language, Literature and Culture Kamran Talattof, 2015-03-05 Critical approaches to the study of topics related to Persian literature and Iranian culture have evolved in recent decades The essays included in this volume collectively demonstrate the most recent creative approaches to the study of the Persian language literature and culture and the way these methodologies have progressed academic debate Topics covered include culture cognition history the social context of literary criticism the problematics of literary modernity and the issues of writing literary history More specifically authors explore the nuances of these topics literature and life poetry and nature culture and literature women and literature freedom of literature Persian language power and censorship and issues related to translation and translating Persian literature in particular In dealing with these seminal subjects contributors acknowledge and contemplate the works of Ahmad Karimi Hakkak and other pioneering critics analysing how these works have influenced the field of literary and cultural studies Contributing a variety of theoretical and inter disciplinary approaches to this field of study this book is a valuable addition to the study of Persian poetry and prose and to literary criticism more broadly      Biography of an Empire Christine M. Philliou, 2011 This vividly detailed revisionist history opens a new vista on the great Ottoman Empire in the early nineteenth century a key period often seen as the eve of Tanzimat westernizing reforms and the beginning of three distinct histories ethnic nationalism in the Balkans imperial modernization from Istanbul and European colonialism in the Middle East Christine Philliou brilliantly shines a new light on imperial crisis and change in the 1820s and 1830s by unearthing the life of one man Stephanos Vogorides 1780 1859 was part of a network of Christian elites known phanariots institutionally excluded from power yet intimately bound up with Ottoman governance By tracing the contours of the wide ranging networks crossing ethnic religious and institutional boundaries in which the phanariots moved Philliou provides a unique view of Ottoman power and ultimately of the Ottoman legacies in the Middle East and Balkans today What emerges is a wide angled analysis of governance as a lived experience at a moment in which there was no clear blueprint for power      Research in Education ,1970
