Reenvisioning Egypt 1919-1952

Jasper Trautsch

Reenvisioning Egypt 1919-1952:

Re-envisioning Egypt 1919-1952 Arthur Goldschmidt, Amy J. Johnson, Barak A. Salmoni, 2005 Re Envisioning Egypt 1919 1952 presents new and often dismissed aspects of the constitutional monarchy era in Egyptian history. It demonstrates that many of the domestic and regional sociopolitical and cultural changes credited to the 1952 revolutionaries actually began in the decades before the July coup. Arguing against the predominant view of the pre-revolutionary era in Egypt as one of creeping decay, the volume restores understandings of the 1919-1952 years as integral to modern nation-state formation and social transformation. The book's contributors show that Egypt's real revolutions were long-term processes emerging over several decades prior to 1952. The leaders of the 1952 coup capitalized on these developments yet earlier changes in Egyptian society fundamentally facilitated their actions and policies. This volume includes revisionist discussion of domestic political issues and foreign policy, the military, education, social reform, and class, as well as popular media, art, and literature. By introducing new approaches to these underappreciated categories of analysis through exploration of untapped sources and by re-examining the political context of the time, Re Envisioning Egypt 1919-1952 proposes innovative methodologies for understanding this crucial period in Egyptian history, casting these years as fundamental to the country's twentieth-century trajectory. Contributors: Tewfik Aclimandos, Malak Badrawi, Andrew Flibbert, Nancy Gallagher, Arthur Goldschmidt, Mervat Hatem, Misako Ikeda, Amy J. Johnson, Anne Claire Kerboeuf, Samia Kholoussi, Hanan Kholoussi, Fred Lawson, Shaun T. Lopez, Scott David McIntosh, Roger Owen, Lucie Ryzova, Barak A. Salmoni, James Whidden, Caroline Williams. Re-envisioning Egypt 1919-1952 Arthur Goldschmidt, Amy J. Johnson, Barak A. Salmoni, 2005. This title presents new and often dismissed aspects of the constitutional monarchy era in Egyptian history. It demonstrates that many of the domestic and regional sociopolitical and cultural changes credited to the 1952 revolutionaries actually began in the decades before the July coup. Muslim Identities and Modernity Maha Habib, 2016-03-16. What have the concepts of modernity and secularization meant for Islamic tradition, culture, and society? How have the discourses which surround all of these issues influenced Muslim self-perception and individual identity? There have been many attempts to describe and analyse the encounter between Islam and modernity in the Middle East, but few have been able so effectively to explore the impact this has on the idea and reality of religious identity and individual religiosity. Maha F. Habib examines modernity from this angle, offering socio-cultural, philosophical, and literary perspectives. She assesses how this is played out in Egypt, analysing cultural changes in the country through its intellectual thought and literature from the nineteenth century to the present day. Her references to the works of Muhammad Abdu, Muhammad Husayn Haykal, Abbas Mahmud al-Aqqad, Naguib Mahfouz, Alaa al-Aswany, and Salwa Bakr reveal contemporary issues and concerns which will interest those researching the cultural and social milieu of modern Egypt. Civic Nationalisms in Global Perspective Jasper Trautsch, 2019-03-14. Recent events around the globe have cast doubt on the assumption that as a result of increasing cross-border migrations and global interdependencies, nation-states are becoming more inclusive ethnic forms of identification more and more a thing of the past and processes of supranational integration progressively more acceptable Xenophobic forms of nationalism have once again been on the rise as became strikingly visible through the results of the Brexit referendum the election of Donald Trump and the inclusion of the Lega Nord in the Italian government It is timely therefore to inquire how multiethnic forms of nationalism can be re promoted and for this purpose to re investigate the concept of civic nationalism This book assembles case studies that analyse the historical practices of civic or quasi civic nationalisms from around the world By allowing for global comparisons the collection of articles seeks to shed new light on pressing questions faced by nation states around the world today Are truly civic nationalisms even possible Which strategies have multiethnic nation states pursued in the past to foster national sentiment How can nation states generate social solidarity without resorting to primordialism Can the historical example of civic or quasi civic nation states offer useful lessons to contemporary nation states for successfully integrating immigrants

Working Out Egypt Wilson Chacko Jacob, 2011-01-14 Describes how attempts to create a modern Egyptian self free from the colonial gaze were enacted through discourses of gender and sexuality during the British colonial period

Histories of the Jews of Egypt Dario Miccoli, 2015-03-24 Up until the advent of Nasser and the 1956 War a thriving and diverse Jewry lived in Egypt mainly in the two cities of Alexandria and Cairo heavily influencing the social and cultural history of the country Histories of the Jews of Egypt argues that this Jewish diaspora should be viewed as an imagined bourgeoisie It demonstrates how from the late nineteenth century up to the 1950s a resilient bourgeois imaginary developed and influenced the lives of Egyptian Jews both in the public arena in institutions such as the school and in the home From the schools of the Alliance Isra lite Universelle and the Cairo lyc e fran ais to Alexandrian marriage contracts and interwar Zionist newspapers this book explains how this imaginary was characterised by a great capacity to adapt to the evolutions of late nineteenth and early twentieth century Egypt but later deteriorated alongside increasingly strong Arab nationalism and the political upheavals that the country experienced from the 1940s onwards Offering a novel perspective on the history of modern Egypt and its Jews and unravelling too often forgotten episodes and personalities which contributed to the making of an incredibly diverse and lively Jewish diaspora at the crossroads of Europe and the Middle East this book is of interest to scholars of Modern Egypt Jewish History and of Mediterranean History

Childhood and Colonial Modernity in Egypt Heidi Morrison, 2015-10-07 This book examines the transformations of Egyptian childhoods that occurred across gender class and rural urban divides It also questions the role of nostalgia and representation of childhood in illuminating key underlying political social and cultural developments in Egypt

Unfinished Places: The Politics of (Re)making Cairo's Old Quarters Gehan Selim, 2016-11-10 The Emerging Politics of Re making Cairo s Old Quarters examines postcolonial planning practices that aimed to modernise Cairo s urban spaces

The author examines the expanding field of postcolonial urbanism by linking the state's political ideologies and systems of governance with methods of spatial representations that aimed to transform the urban realm in Cairo. Adopting an interdisciplinary approach, the study draws on planning history and politics to develop a distinctive account of postcolonial planning in Cairo following Egypt's 1952 revolution. The book widely connects the ideological role of a different type of politicised urbanism practised during the days of Nasser, Sadat and Mubarak and the overarching policies, institutions and attitudes involved in the visions for re-building a new nation in Egypt. By examining the notion of remaking urban spaces, the study interprets the ambitions and powers of state policies for improving the spatial qualities of Cairo's old districts since the early 20th century. These acts are situated in their spatial, political and historical contexts of Cairo's heterogeneous old quarters and urban spaces, particularly the remaking of one of the city's older quarters named Bulaq Abul Ela, established during the Ottoman rule in the thirteenth century. It therefore writes in a chronological sequence a narrative through time and space connecting various layers of historical and contemporary political phases for remaking Bulaq. The endeavor is to explain this process from a spatial perspective in terms of the implications and consequences not only on places but also on the people's everyday practices. By deeply investigating the problems and consequences, the strengths and weaknesses and the state's reliability to achieve the remaking objectives, the book reveals evidence that shifting forms of governance had anchored planning practices into a narrow path of creativity and responsive planning.

Fashioning the Modern Middle East
Reina Lewis, Yasmine Nachabe Taan, 2021-06-03

In the first book to address the critical role of the undressed body in the formation of the modern Middle East, these essays unveil contemporary struggles over nation, gender, modernity and post-modernity. Contributions from leading interdisciplinary scholars exploring gender representation, photography, dress and visual culture recount the role of the visible elite body in campaigns for gender and social emancipation, dress histories concerning early nationalist women and men and legal frameworks used by those who seek to control the movement of gendered bodies. The result is a rich picture of a historical period and cultural landscape which brings dress and visual culture back into historical narratives of the modern Middle East. Recognising multiple modernities, multiple imperialisms and diverse regional experiences of post-colonialism, Fashioning the Modern Middle East contains a range of theoretical frameworks invaluable to students of fashion studies, Middle Eastern studies, anthropology, photography and gender. Bringing forward new primary material and re-investigating extant sources from new perspectives, this is the essential introduction to the role of the dressed and undressed body in the formation of the modern Middle East.
