Handbook of Reflection and Reflective Inquiry Nona Lyons,2010-04-07 Philosophers have warned of the perils of a life spent without reflection but what constitutes reflective inquiry and why it's necessary in our lives can be an elusive concept. Synthesizing ideas from minds as diverse as John Dewey and Paulo Freire, the Handbook of Reflection and Reflective Inquiry presents reflective thought in its most vital aspects not as a fanciful or nostalgic exercise but as a powerful means of seeing familiar events anew, encouraging critical thinking and crucial insight teaching and learning. In its opening pages, two seasoned educators, Maxine Greene and Lee Shulman, discuss reflective inquiry as a form of active attention. Thoreau's wide awakeness, an act of consciousness and a process by which people can understand themselves, their work, particularly in the form of life projects, and others. Building on this foundation, the Handbook analyzes, through the work of 40 internationally oriented authors, definitional issues concerning reflection: what it is and is not; worldwide social and moral conditions contributing to the growing interest in reflective inquiry in professional education; reflection as promoted across professional educational domains including K-12 education, teacher education, occupational therapy, and the law; methods of facilitating and scaffolding reflective engagement; current pedagogical and research practices in reflection; approaches to assessing reflective inquiry; educators across the professions as well as adult educators, counselors, and psychologists; and curriculum developers concerned with adult learning. Will find the Handbook of Reflection and Reflective Inquiry an invaluable teaching tool for challenging times. Resources in Education, 1998

The Student Nurse's Guide to Successful Reflection: Ten Essential Ingredients 2e Nicola Clarke, 2024-03-25 This book is an engaging and enlightening read. I highly recommend it to all personal tutors, academic advisors, and anyone in higher education who guides students to learn more about themselves. Dr David Grey, UK Advising and Tutoring Association CEO. This book provides a unique, engaging perspective on successful reflection, which is a welcome addition to the arduous academic textbooks on offer. Shelley O'Connor, Senior Lecturer in Mental Health Nursing, Liverpool John Moores University, UK. The second edition of this essential book continues to provide practitioners with an accessible and thorough account of reflection's essential ingredients. Dr Marc Roberts, Visiting Lecturer, Faculty of Health, Education and Life Sciences, Birmingham City University, UK. This book is an easy-to-read, practical guide that will show you what reflection is and how you can do it successfully. Assuming no prior knowledge, this fully revised and updated text utilises the established ten essential ingredients of reflection from the first edition. It builds on this foundation to develop much-needed reflective skills with new and updated chapters enabling you to apply complex reflective theory and become an effective reflective practitioner. In clear and supportive language, Nicola Clarke will equip you with evidence-informed understanding and ideas for application to your own situation and support you to become an emotionally resilient, self-aware individual who can reflect and empower yourself to become the best version of you. This book includes expansion beyond nursing to include those who study any subject in allied health and the related fields where reflection is a requirement. New chapters exploring what reflection is, reflective writing for academic purpose, guided reflection, and new frameworks to support reflection. A how-to approach using exercises, for and examples from Health Education and Life Sciences HELS and the everyday reflection and reflective practice made real Authentic jargon free writing that speaks to and is inclusive of the reader Information that will empower you to reflect correctly and inform how you receive and who you allow to support guided reflection in you This book is a must have text for all students of nursing allied health social work and all fields where an understanding of self and reflection is required Dr Nicola Clarke is a senior lecturer and doctoral supervisor for the faculty of Health Education and Life Sciences HELS at Birmingham City University UK
