Reflection Of An Ordinary Person:

Steps on the Path to Enlightenment Lhundub Sopa, 2017-12-12 Geshe Sopa continues his elucidation of Lama Tsongkhapa's masterwork on the Buddhist path with an explanation of superior insight vipa yan or wisdom the pinnacle of the bodhisattva's perfections Reflection of Human Behaviour, The Experiential Dimension of Advaita Vedanta Arvind Sharma, 1993 The Experiential Dimension of Advaita Vedanta provides a clear concise and precise introduction to Advaita Vedanta on the basis of something more powerful than argument namely experience Balance and Refinement Michael R. DePaul, 2006-12-05 We all have moral beliefs But what if one belief conflicts with another DePaul argues that we have to make our beliefs cohere but that the current coherence methods are seriously flawed It is not just the arguments that need to be considered in moral enquiry DePaul asserts that the ability to make sensitive moral judgements is vital to any philosophical inquiry into morality The inquirer must consider how her life experiences and experiences with literature film and theatre have influenced her capacity for making moral judgments and attempt to ensure that this capacity is neither naive nor corrupted Ageless Soul Thomas Moore, 2017-10-10 Ageless Soul will teach readers how to embrace the richness of experience and how to take life on accept invitations to new vitality and feel fulfilled as they get older Thomas Moore is the renowned author of Care of the Soul the classic 1 New York Times bestseller In Ageless Soul Moore reveals a fresh optimistic and rewarding path toward aging one that need not be feared but rather embraced and cherished In Moore's view aging is the process by which one becomes a more distinctive complex fulfilled loving and connected person Using examples from his practice as a psychotherapist and teacher who lectures widely on the soul of medicine and spirituality Moore argues for a new vision of aging as a dramatic series of initiations rather than a diminishing experience one that each of us has the tools experience maturity fulfillment to live out Subjects include Why melancholy is a natural part of aging and how to accept it rather than confuse it with depression The vital role of the elder and mentor in the lives of younger people The many paths of spiritual growth and learning that open later in life Sex and sensuality Building new communities and leaving a legacy Reflections on Human Inquiry Nirmalangshu Mukherji, 2017-10-30 This original volume examines forms and limits of human inquiry from a largely sceptical point of view Human beings are endowed with cognitive agency Our grasp of the world and of ourselves are not merely responses to external stimuli they are reflective products of human inquiry At one point in human history it was thought that modern science especially theoretical physics is the paradigm of human inquiry Where does this form of inquiry significantly apply Are there limits on its claims of truth and objectivity How much of the vast canvas of human experience does it cover Where do other forms of inquiry such as philosophy religion and the arts attain their salience With the emergence of the scientific study of the human mind itself these critical questions have taken a more intriguing form in recent decades Can human inquiry investigate its own nature Can the scientific theory of language explain the richness of human expression Can a science of the mind account for human experience These probing questions on the scientific enterprise are usually addressed from the outside as it were by humanists and critical theorists In these essays they are examined from the inside by a philosopher whose primary academic work concerns the study of the human linguistic mind In that sense the sceptical inquiry turns on itself

Aquinas F. Copleston,1991-07-25 Aquinas 1224 74 lived at a time when the Christian West was opening up to a wealth of Greek and Islamic philosophical speculation An embodiment of the thirteenth century ideal of a unified interpretation of reality in which philosophy and theology work together in harmony Aquinas was remarkable for the way in which he used and developed this legacy of ancient thought an achievement which led his contemporaries to regard him as an advanced thinker Father Copleston's lucid and stimulating book examines this extraordinary man whose influence is perhaps greater today than in his own lifetime and his thought relating his ideas wherever possible to problems as they are discussed today

Reflection and the Stability of Belief Louis E. Loeb,2010 A unifying theme of Loeb's work is epistemological that Descartes and Hume advance theories of knowledge that rely on a substantial naturalistic component adopting one or another member of a cluster of psychological properties of beliefs as the goal of inquiry and the standard for assessing belief forming mechanisms Thus Loeb shows a surprising affinity between the epistemologies of the two figures surprising because they are often thought of as polar opposites in this respect Descartes and Hume are unique in that their philosophical texts are accessible beyond just a narrow audience in the history of philosophy their ideas continue to be a vital part of the field at large This volume will thus appeal to advanced students and scholars not just in the history of early modern philosophy but in epistemology and other core areas of the discipline

The Idealist Illusion and Other Essays Maurice Blondel,2013-03-09 I was very happy when in 1997 Fiachra Long came to spend part of his sabbatical leave at the Archives Maurice Blondel at Louvain la Neuve This allowed him to bring together and complete his translation of three important articles from Maurice Blondel known as the philosopher of Aix en Provence These three articles form a unity they make explicit certain aspects of the method used in the great thesis of 1893 Action This thesis it is well known aroused many polemic debates after its appearance Thomist theologians accused Blondel of turning back towards Kantian idealism whereas the philosophers of the Revue de metaphysique et de morale accused him on the contrary of falling back on a pre critical realism The three articles translated here each in its own way attempt to pass beyond these two opposite charges The Idealist Illusion 1898 underlines the fact that the content of consciousness should be unfurled as it appears by withdrawing from any idealist or realist prejudice before judging the consistency of its content as a whole In this way Blondel supports the phenomenological method used in his thesis The Elementary Principle of a Logic of the Moral Life 1903 is a very well worked text which shows that the logic of possession and privation is broader than the logic of affirmation and negation Using these words Blondel develops certain
