Volkman,2009 Featuring the work of 15 Viet Nam War veteran writers this anthology of poems stories and essays looks through the lens of past and present perspectives and defines how modern warfare affects the lives of those who lived it and their families The Listening Post Reflections of a Vietnam Veteran Charles O Robinson,2017-01-28 I started thinking about writing this book as a memoir of my experience as a young soldier in the Vietnam War beginning in November 1967 until November 1968 It was to have been an effort to relate to my family especially to my children what it was like to have fought during the war As I started trying to recall my experiences I found that I could remember only a few scattered details Somehow it seems as if my entire life can be encapsulated in just a few memorable snapshots in a photograph album So the book became not only a memoir of war but a memoir of my life and a reflection upon the war my thoughts and feelings about what was going on during the war my life after the war and how the two would become inseparable I hope that in my doing so that those who read this account may understand a little bit better how my entire life and perhaps that of my comrades was influenced by events of that one year in Vietnam in service to my country The Tug of War Ed Orr,2020-01-31 The Tug of War is profoundly evocative of scenes etched deeply with in my own memory and I m sure the memories of all who served there Despite the fact that Vietnam was many things to many people as were so many different wars experienced by those who were in combat your work seems to bridge all by its reality Chaplain Ray W Stubbe Surviving Vietnam James Toscano,2016-12-15 Jimmy Toscano was smart talented and the rock in his family When he was drafted to serve in the Vietnam War at age twenty two he willingly accepted the request from Uncle Sam After all Jimmy who was always up for a challenge was full of life drive and a determination to make the world a better place In a posthumous collection of poems Jimmy leads others down a lyrical path through the experiences he endured during the Vietnam War as he fought alongside over two million other soldiers and after as he returned to an unwelcoming America Jimmys poems shine a light on the effects war has on a soldiers family what it is like to stare death in the face the brutality of combat how the war transformed energetic young men into broken souls and the challenges that accompanied their return home as they learned to battle a new enemy the haunting memories of war Surviving Vietnam shares poignant and candid poems from a war veteran that expose the realities of the battlefield and beyond Opaque Memories of War Gary Robert Geister,2010-04-08 Many of the poems contained herein follow excerpts from my books NAM The Devils Domain The Pimp of Saigon and Undaunted Valor These poems were created to envision facts of war inspired by my Vietnam War experiences some are inspired by myths reported by biased American newspaper radio and television media Still others were created to reflect individual valor human suffering and mans inhumanity to man Myths The biased American media reported that the U S Military lost many encounters with the enemy in Vietnam The TET offensive was an NVA VC Victory and that America had lost its first war ever as witnessed on television during the fall of Saigon April 30 1975 Facts The American military was not defeated in Vietnam The American military did not lose a battle of any consequence From a military standpoint the war was a major military defeat for the Vietcong and North Vietnamese Army Militarily the 1968 TET offensive resulted in a total defeat of the Communist forces on all fronts It resulted in the death of some 45 000 NVA troops and the complete if not total destruction of the Vietcong elements in South Vietnam The fall of Saigon happened April 30 1975 two years after the American military had left Vietnam The last American troops departed Vietnam in their entirety March 29 1973 It is impossible to lose a war we had stopped fighting We fought to an agreed governmental stalemate and turned over all military responsibility to the South Vietnamese army which included jets helicopters tanks trucks weapons and ammo The U S peace settlement was signed in Paris on January 27 1973 It called for the release of all U S prisoners and withdrawal of U S forces Effective April 30 1975 the South Vietnamese army outnumbered the North Vietnamese army by at least two to one in all categories men machines aircraft and firepower The U S A supported the French military with 98% if its military costs and fought Communism in Vietnam for a total involvement for 10 000 days With the South Vietnamese army now in charge of their own countrys destiny they never fought but instead surrendered unconditionally to North Vietnam within nine days The 140 000 evacuees in April 1975 during the fall of Saigon consisted entirely of Vietnamese civilians and military There were twice as many casualties in Southeast Asia primarily Cambodian the first two years following the end of U S involvement than there were during all the years of the Vietnam War The media perceived loss of the war the countless assassinations and torture visited upon Vietnamese Laotians and Cambodians is due to the American media for their undying support by misrepresentation of the anti war movement in the United States As Americans we must support our military men and women involved in the War On Terrorism for once again the American media is working tirelessly to undermine their efforts and force a psychological loss or stalemate for the United States
