Reflections Mary Gifford Brown,1988      Paradise Pursued Alice Crawford,1995 Paradise Pursued reinterprets the fiction of one of England's most important mid century novelists Knowledgeably yet accessibly written it demonstrates the recurring obsession with paradisaal pursuit that runs through all twenty three of Rose Macaulay's richly varied fictions

Whitaker's Books in Print ,1990      British-Bangladeshi Women in Higher Education Berenice Scandone,2022-12-30 Drawing on primary qualitative research this book explores the experiences and identities of a group of British born women of Bangladeshi background attending university in London through a Bourdieusian theoretical framework It demonstrates the inequities that these women experience in UK higher education and employment as well as how they challenge them This book presents stories that illuminate the diversity of views and experiences marked by dynamics of class race ethnicity religion and gender These stories reveal family projects of social mobility and discourses of aspiration the multiple resources and constraints that influence decisions experiences and pathways and the mutual construction of different dimensions of identification and tensions between them Through participants narratives the book tackles wider questions around fair access to education and employment social mobility and the re production and transformation of social inequities The book will be of interest to scholars and students in the fields of Youth Education Race Ethnicity and Migration Sociology as well as community and education practitioners and anyone with an interest in multi ethnic societies and young people's histories

Reflections Mary Gifford Brown,1988      Picturing the Woman-Child Morna Laing,2021-01-28 The childlike character of ideal femininity has long been critiqued by feminists from Mary Wollstonecraft to Simone de Beauvoir Yet women continue to be represented as childlike in the western fashion media despite the historical connotations of inferiority This book questions why such images still hold appeal to contemporary women after three or even four waves of feminism Focusing on the period of 1990 2015 Picturing the Woman Child traces the evolution of childlike femininity in British fashion magazines including Vogue i D and Lula Girl of my Dreams These images draw upon a network of references from Kinderwhore and Lolita to Alice in Wonderland and the femme enfant of Surrealism Alongside analysis of fashion photography the book presents the findings of original research into audience reception Inviting contemporary women to comment on images of the woman child provides an insight into the meaning of this figure as well as an evaluation of theory on the female gaze Both scholarly and accessible the book paves the way for future studies on how readers make sense of fashion imagery      The Methuen Drama Handbook of Women in Contemporary British Theatre Marissia Fragkou,Rebecca Benzie,2025-02-06 This handbook provides a detailed exploration of the rich and diverse theatrical work produced by women in the first two decades of 21st century British theatre The book explores key issues and methodologies relevant to women working in the UK's theatre industry including the legacies of feminism and its role in shaping contemporary work by women the politics of visibility and inclusion in theatrical institutions and collaborative strategies in creating original work It closely examines how women in contemporary British theatre tackle urgent social issues such as environmental risk the representation of marginalized identities and mental and physical wellbeing Chapters by both established and early career scholars from a variety of international contexts present new perspectives on significant questions and issues underpinning women's work in 21st century British theatre by engaging with contemporary debates from theatre and performance studies and cultural theory A concluding roundtable with women theatre practitioners addresses key questions pertaining to their work including working conditions the politics of funding and of ageing disability and care With a foreword by the Guardian's chief theatre critic Arifa Akbar and featuring research tools such as introductions to sections a detailed list of sources and an annotated bibliography this is an authoritative study for anyone with a keen research interest in the distinct contribution of women to contemporary British theatre and performance RIC, 1988 Image-based Research Jon Prosser, 2005-08-12 Just what is a picture worth Qualitative research is dominated by language However researchers have recently shown a growing interest in adopting an image based approach This is the first volume dedicated to exploring this approach and will prove an invaluable sourcebook for researchers in the field The book covers a broad scope including theory and the research process and provides practical examples of how image based research is applied in the field It discusses use of images in child abuse investigation exploring children's drawings in health education cartoons the media and teachers The History of British Women's Writing, 1880-1920 Holly A. Laird, 2016-10-06 The ranks of English women writers rose steeply in the late 19th and early 20th centuries contributing to the era's revolutionary social movements as well as to transforming literary genres in prose and poetry The phenomena of the new New Women New Unionism New Imperialism New Ethics New Critics New Journalism New Man are this moment's touchstones This book tracks the period's new social phenomena and unfolds its distinctively modern modes of writing It provides expert introductions amid new insights into women's writing throughout the United Kingdom and around the globe Feminist Bookstore News, 1988 Women Artists, Feminism and the Moving Image Lucy Reynolds, 2019-08-22 What is the significance of gendered identification in relation to artists moving image How do women artists grapple with the interlinked narratives of gender discrimination and gender identity in their work In this groundbreaking book a diverse range of leading scholars activists archivists and artists explore the histories practices and concerns of women making film and video across the world from the pioneering German animator Lotte Reiniger to the influential African American filmmaker Julie Dash and the provocative Scottish contemporary artist Rachel Maclean Opening with a foreword from the film theorist Laura Mulvey and a poem by the artist film maker Lis Rhodes Women Artists Feminism and the Moving Image traces the legacies of early feminist interventions into the moving image and the ways in which these have been re configured in the very different context of today Reflecting and building upon the practices of recuperation that continue to play a vital role in feminist art practice and scholarship essays discuss topics such as how multiculturalism is linked to experimental and activist film history the function and nature of the essay film feminist curatorial practices and much more This book transports the reader across diverse cultural contexts and geographical contours addressing complex narratives of subjectivity representation and labour while juxtaposing cultures of film video and visual arts practice often held apart As the editor Lucy Reynolds argues it is at the point where art moving image and feminist discourse converge that a rich and dynamic intersection of dialogue and exchange opens up bringing to attention practices which might fall outside their separate spheres and offering fresh perspectives and insights on those already established in its histories and canons
